Appearances

If you want to make a presentable appearance at home or abroad you need the services of a good, reliable tailor. Remember, no two men are built alike, and ready-made clothing cannot give perfect satisfaction for this reason. Every man has a peculiarity of his own; unless he has this taken into consideration his clothes cannot possibly fit him.

W. D. Sheldon is somewhat better to-day.

"What is the matter with painting the fire alarm boxes?" asked a citizen this morning. "These boxes have been painted once since they were put up. That was three years ago and then they made a cheap job of it. They are sadly in need of painting now and if it is not done they will soon commence to rust so that they won't be fit for use."

Be sure and attend the sale of Fred. F. Quinn's books and old guns, etc., in the Garner House store this evening. The sale will be by auction and without reserve. There is nearly one thousand volumes and three large solid cherry book cases. These cases are very fine and were made to order by Casper Schwemler, of our city. Special accommodation will be provided for ladies and everything will be sold without reserve. The books are of the best authors, well bound in cloth and leather and have had extra good care.

He is the only candidate that throws from that side of the carcase, and for that reason he has a somewhat better chance than an ordinary every-day pitcher. He handles himself like a good man and is big and strong. He has a sore arm, and Manager Gardner, who thinks well of him, has not asked him to extend himself as yet."—London News.

TROOPS AND THE MOB.

One Collision Took Place at Montreal Yesterday.

Montreal, April 30.—One rather stubborn attempt by striking longshoremen yesterday morning to break through the militia guarding the approach to the wharves in front of the Bonsecours Market, and a few feeble efforts further along the rivermen wall during the day, were all that materialized of the threats that freely circulated last night. The appearance of armed men in uniform seemed to have a decidedly sobering effect upon the groups of ship laborers gathered at almost every street corner facing the waterfront. Jeering began early, and for a time some of the guards had to dodge hurrying missiles. Then a mob congregated in front of Jacques Cartier square, and gradually moved towards one of the widest openings in the wall. The order to disperse was given, but they crowded closer and advanced. The Royal Scots, who were on guard, forced them back, but they pressed forward again as the soldiers retreated. A second charge was made, a second fall back resulted, but the mob recovered ground the moment the Scots withdrew. Then the cavalry and a squad of mounted police were called out. They rode into the jeering crowd and scattered them in all directions. This ended the only serious clash of the day.

Brantford Shoplifter Fined.

Brantford, April 29.—The case of the woman charged with shoplifting from different stores was heard at the Police Court to-day. The woman's husband knew nothing of the theft. The Magistrate fined her $125. The goods were valued at $132.

Residents of Fourth street are complaining of certain boards steeped in tar, which have been utilized to repair the sidewalk on that street. The tar is soft and sticky during this warm weather and is very disagreeable to pedestrians.
