A PROPOSAL

Leap year is the time once in four years that unmarried ladies have the privilege to propose marriage to unmarried men. Business men can propose to their customers every year. We have a proposal to make, Mr. Merchant. Our biscuits are uniformly the best on the market. Will you take them, stock them and keep them always in stock as long as you are in business? It will not be for worse; it will be for better. This we guarantee. Did you say "I will?"
