Police Chief Campeau Places Responsibility on Laval Men For Riot

FIFTH PIONEERS PREFER CHARGES

Bishop Gauthier Quoted as Saying Young Men "Acted Like Boches"

MONTREAL, Oct. 6.—The Fifth Pioneers, whose recruiting posters were torn down by Laval students Wednesday, have sworn out warrants against two of the young men arrested by the police—Alfred Grenier and Emile Tasse.

Responsibility was placed upon the students by Chief of Police Campeau this morning. In reply to the argument made on behalf of the students that the police followed their parade to St. James' Cathedral and provoked them, the Chief issued a denial and says the first he knew of the matter was when three young men were arrested for tearing up recruiting paraphernalia.

Major Martin this morning had a conference with Monsignor Gauthier about the fight in St. James' Cathedral. The Bishop yesterday was quoted as saying the students acted like a lot of Boches.

Friends of the students claim the tearing down of the recruiting posters was not intentionally disloyal, but only a part of a piece of frolic.

Several hundred students packed the recorder's court this morning to listen to the police cases of four young men detained for damaging property. The defendants pleaded not guilty and the hearing was adjourned until October 12.

Captain Dyes, who had charge of the police squad which arrested the students on Phillips Square, tendered his resignation today. He said he had done his duty.

PLAN TO BLOCK CHANNEL FAILS

Bremen is Not the Only Submarine Whose Whereabouts is Causing Anxiety—All Available U-Boats Sent to Close Ocean Route.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The New York World this morning publishes the following special cable from London, Dated Oct. 5:

Although the fact is not generally known in England, not having been mentioned in any of the newspapers, the Germans last week sent all available submarines to the English Channel.

The object was, of course, to close the Channel for once, in accordance with German boasts. But the British navy was quick to deal with this new menace, although the Channel may have been closed to passenger traffic for a few days.

The Germans since have learned they cannot send submarines into English waters with any more impunity than they send Zeppelins to London. The Bremen is not the only submarine whose whereabouts is causing anxiety in Berlin.

This is regarded, however, in naval circles as only one symptom of an intention on the part of Germany to resume her submarine campaign on a serious scale. It is openly asserted by the shipping men that Germany's intention in this is as much to reduce her disadvantage in mercantile tonnage after the war, as to inflict direct injury on Great Britain in the war.

Because of this belief, shipping men are declaring that Great Britain's only recourse will be to announce a ton-for-ton indemnity clause as one of her stipulations in the peace treaty, unless Germany desists.

Another Exposition Award For G. T. E.

The Grand Trunk System has received an additional honor from the Jury Awards of the Panama Pacific International Exposition.

Notification was received here today that the Jury awarded the Railway a silver medal for the excellence of its exposition pavilion from an architectural point of view.

This is a tribute not only to the Grand Trunk, but to the Canadian architects who designed the building. The design was Spanish Renaissance in character, making a handsome and ornate structure which was situated in a prominent position at the North East corner of the grounds at San Francisco.

The Grand Trunk was awarded a gold medal for its general exhibit which featured the natural riches of the Dominion.

WONDERSFUL DISCOVERY MADE. CURES CATARRH PERMANENTLY.

Formerly doctors prescribed stomach treatment for Catarrh and Bronchitis. They seldom cured and Catarrh has become a national disease.

Today the advanced physician fights Catarrh by medicated air. He fills the lungs, nose and throat with the antiseptic vapor of Cattarhoxone. Cure then is certain. It is easy for Cattarhoxone to cure. It contains the essences of pure pine balsams, reaches all the germs and destroys the disease. Every case of Catarrh, Bronchitis and Sore Throat can be cured by Cattarhoxone. The dollar outfit lasts two months and is guaranteed to cure; smaller sizes 25c and 50c. Sold everywhere.

COMMITTEE MARVEL OF EFFICIENCY.

What a Prompt American Banker Has to Say of the Belgian Relief Organization.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—"The external calm is an amazing tribute to the efficiency of the system whereby the relief organization provides and distributes to the whole nation supplies without which there would be chaos and unthinkable suffering," says Alexander J. Hemphill, the New York banker, in discussing the work of the Belgian Relief Committee.

Mr. Hemphill has been in Belgium and as a neutral has made a thorough study of conditions there. He is one of the many wealthy New Yorkers who have interested themselves in the relief of the starving populace of the occupied portion of Belgium. Hundreds of these people, who have no interest in the situation beyond that prompted by a sense of fairness and humanity, have given freely of their time and money.

Mr. Hemphill describes the efficient work of the Belgian Relief Committee, which has been impressed on the people of the States and Canada for several months past. He also describes the squalor, destitution, and devastation which he found in Belgium—men, women and children slowly starving to death and only saved by the little food that is possible for the Belgian Relief Committee to distribute.

Finally Mr. Hemphill characterizes the work as a "marvel of efficiency." This is the organization which is operating so thoroughly a branch in Canada where some of the men in the highest commercial and professional positions in the Dominion are giving their services. The Canadian headquarters of this committee are at 59 St. Peter Street, Montreal, and at that point the treasurer is receiving funds from Canadians to purchase Canadian food for these people.

The Belgian Relief Committee also has branches in practically every community in Canada. These branches are receiving donations of money which are immediately diverted to the proper channels for immediate use.

Two dollars and a half is the cost of keeping one family in Belgium from starvation for a month and many Canadians are now obligating themselves to take care of a family for a whole year.

THE BATTLE OF ARMAGEDDON

Mr. Perry Gives His Opinions About the World Cataclysm Foretold by the Prophets.

On Sunday evening Mr. Perry gave a discourse in Bethel Hall on the battle of Armageddon and the coming great tribulation, and in connection therewith touched upon the first, second and third advents of Christ; the first being in the past and the two latter coming being in the future.

Mr. Perry read Dan. 2, wherein is related Nebuchadnezzar's dream, and the interpretation thereof by Daniel, foretelling the manifestation of four great empires subsequent to the Babylonian and including that of the Kingdom of Christ, the latter of which is to appear in the near future, at the third advent of Christ. This empire is symbolized by the stone cut out of the mountain without hands and smites the great image symbol of Nebuchadnezzar's dream on the fact, with the result that it becomes like chaff and is carried away by the wind; and the stone representing the Kingdom of Christ, which is small at first, becomes a great mountain and fills the whole earth, as shown in Verse 44. The ten toes of the image as well as the ten horses of Rev. 13 represent ten kingdoms that are to be in existence when Christ comes to establish His Kingdom. Mr. Perry defined what he thought would be the territory occupied by these ten kingdoms, but said Germany was not included. God, said the speaker, is using the present great war to bring together the ten kingdoms represented by the toes of the image. This war is not Armageddon, but that battle or war is only a few years in the future, he claimed; and takes place between the second and third advents, at which time the "man of sin" appears and the great tribulation takes place, affecting the Jews to a very great extent. Zech. 14. Just prior to these events Christ appears and takes the church away to heaven, which He went to prepare, so to put into a proper condition for the reception of the church, nearly nineteen hundred years ago.

One wonders how those who have "gone before" say thousands of years before Christ went to prepare that place in Heaven, were able to enjoy that unprepared condition—Reporter's Soliloquy.

According to the speaker the church would meet the Lord in the air at His second coming (?) but nevertheless the Lord does not actually come at this time, but turns about taking the church to the place prepared, but stays there only about seven years, Mr. Perry thought, at the end of which time the great tribulation would be ended. Christ then comes a third time, so Mr. Perry stated, and it will be conceded generally that Mr. Perry's work is thoroughly reliable. Christ then establishes His Kingdom and reigns on earth for 1000 years, at the end of which time He delivers up the Kingdom to God that He may be all in all.

Mr. Perry claimed that these events were close at hand and that we are now in the "latter days" and one great proof of this is the fact that the Jews were returning in considerable numbers in Palestine where they will become a great independent nation. The Jews, Mr. Perry said, are to preach the gospel of the Kingdom of God while the church is gone to Heaven. The speaker said that, he himself was looking for the upper-tower meaning, of course, that he desired to go up with Christ and see the renovation that had been accomplished, or the preparations that had been made in Heaven, and enjoy the same at least, seven years.

Mr. Perry speaks rapidly, causing him to be less effective, we believe, than if he were to speak slower and with more deliberation.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Lesson III.—Fourth Quarter. For Oct. 15, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES. Text of the Lesson, Acts xxv. 1-12. Memory Verses, 10, 11—Golden Text, Matt. x. 25—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

The successor to Felix. Porcius Festus, seems to have been in some respects like minded to Felix, for he, too, was willing to do the Jews a pleasure (xxv. 27; xxv. 12), and he would have sent Paul back to Jerusalem had he been willing to go. This was what the Jews desired, that they might lay in wait for him by the way and kill him (xxv. 3). Their hatred of Paul does not seem to have decreased in the least during two years, for they were still full of grievous complaints against him which they could not prove (verses 2, 7). He was having wondrous fellowship with the Lord Jesus, for whose sake he was suffering and of whom it was written, "False witnesses did rise up; they laid to my charge things that I knew not." "Reproach hath broken my heart, and I am full of heaviness" (Ps. cxxi. 11; lxxv. 20).

When we consider such words as these, "Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue." "Thou shalt keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues." "These shall no evil befall thee." "No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper" (Job. v. 21; Ps. cxxi. 20; xci. 10; Isa. lvi. 17) and other similar assurances we are tempted to wonder a little, but then we remember that Paul was told that he must suffer great things for Christ's sake, and he taught others that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God and that all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution. And our Lord said to His disciples that in the world we would have tribulation, and after He ascended He said to one of the churches that the devil would cast some of them into prison, but they were to continue faithful even if they died for it, and some who had been killed were told to rest awhile till others should be killed as they were (Acts ix. 18; Rev. xii. 12; John xvi. 33; Rev. ii. 10; v. 11). He certainly loves His own and will to the uttermost, yet He allowed the disciples to toll nearly all night against a contrary wind, and He allowed Lazarus to continue sick and die and be buried that God might be glorified.

We must bear in mind that just because we are His we have the world, the flesh and the devil to contend with, but He will not suffer us to be tried above that we are able, and all our trials and afflictions are working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory (I Cor. x. 13; I Cor. iv. 18-19). When from the kingdom, and the glory we look back over our life story and consider all the way by which He has led us we may perhaps see a reason for everything He has done or permitted. But we shall surely say right was the pathway leading to this. It therefore becomes us during this little while to say, "As for God, His way is perfect." "Just and true are Thy ways, Thou King of us Nations" (Ps. cxviii. 90; Rev. xv. 13).

If only we could have no will of our own and rest wholly and fully in the perfect will and love of God we would have a foretaste of heaven in spite of all our trials here. When Paul refused to return to Jerusalem and appealed to Caesar that decided matters for the present, and Festus said, "Unto Caesar shalt thou go" (verses 9-12). It may be that the Lord's night message to him, "So must thou bear witness also at Rome" (xxiii. 11), helped him to decide to appeal to Caesar, for Caesar meant Rome, and this may have seemed to him his opportunity.

King Agrippa and Bernice having come to Caesarea to salute Festus, the whole matter was laid before them, and Agrippa expressed a desire to hear Paul for himself, and that will be our lesson for next week. This was being fulfilled the Lord's message to Ananias concerning Paul. "He is a chosen vessel unto me to bear my name before the gentiles and kings and the children of Israel (ix. 15). As Festus rehearsed the matter to Agrippa, he said that the whole matter seemed to be a question of Jewish superstition, and specially concerning one Jesus, who was dead, but whom Paul affirmed to be alive (verse 19). Does not that seem to describe the knowledge that many so called enlightened people have of Him even now? Many are like Gallop and care for a lot of these things (xvii. 14-17), while many more, even among churchgoers, who take some part in the public worship outwardly, know nothing of Him as a personal Saviour and friend.

It is written of such in Isa. xxxix. 13, "This people draw near me with their mouth and with their lips do honour me, but have removed their heart far from me." Also in Ezek. xxxiii. 21, "They hear thy words, but their heart they will not do them, for with their mouth they shew much love, but their heart goeth after their covetousness." In Matt. xv. 8, our Lord quoted the words from Isaiah concerning the hypocrisy of His day. Can you not hear our Lord saying to you, "What think ye of Jesus? Whom do ye say that I am? Does your heart reply, "O Lord, thou art my own Saviour, who didst bear my sins on the cross and hast redeemed me by Thy precious blood, that I might live for Thee, and after I have suffered while these Thy Kingdoms endure?"
