The Parcels Post

By HOWARD L. RANN

THE parcels post is a recent invention which is designed to put a white-souled crimp in the net earnings of the express companies. It is also designed to make the mail carrier look like an itinerant tinware peddler with a crockery side line.

The parcels post will carry anything up to eleven pounds which is not liable to break open and spill the contents of a brewery upon the mail carrier's uniform. Fresh eggs can be carried quite a distance by this method without losing anything but the flavor they left home with. After a case of eggs has been tossed to and fro by seventeen wide-hipped mail clerks and sat upon by some traveling man's trunk, they will be turned over to the addressee in the form of an omelette. Fresh vegetables can be sent from Maine to California by parcels post, but they will age considerably en route. It is also permissible to ship

NOSTRILS AND HEAD STOPPED UP FROM COLD? TRY MY CATARRH BALM

Instantly Clears Air Passages; You Breathe Freely; Dull Headache Goes; Nasty Catarrhal Discharge Stops.

Try "Ely's Cream Balm." Get a small bottle anyway, just to try it—Apply a little in the nostrils and instantly your clogged nose and stopped-up air passages of the head will open; you will breathe freely; dullness and headache disappear. By morning the catarrh, cold-in-head or catarrhal sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant balm dissolves by the heat of the nostrils; penetrates and heals the inflamed, swollen membrane which lines the nose, head and throat; clears the air passages; stops nasty discharges and a feeling of cleansing, soothing relief comes immediately. Don't lay awake to-night struggling for breath, with head stuffed, nostrils closed, hawking and blowing. Catarrh or a cold, with its running nose, foul mucous dropping into the throat, and raw dryness is distressing but truly needless.

Put your faith—just once—in "Ely's Cream Balm" and your cold or catarrh will surely disappear.

SEVEN KILLED IN EXCURSION AT MONTREAL

Big Crowd Went to Look Over Property Subdivision—Cars Were Derailed.

MONTREAL, April 14.—Seven persons are dead and fifteen injured as the result of the derailment of an excursion train Sunday afternoon on the Montreal-hamby branch of the Central Vermont Railway, about five miles from St. Lambert. The train was carrying about 700 passengers, who had taken advantage of the free trip given by the railway. The train was derailed by a cold-in-head or catarrh sore throat will be gone. End such misery now! Get the small bottle of "Ely's Cream Balm" at any drug store. This sweet, fragrant track nearly at right angles, its front end being superimposed upon the overturned engine. The second coach stood in an oblique angle across the track, its front end jammed into the rear of the forward coach, while the third coach, to the left of and parallel to the track, was wedged into the side of the second car, near its rear end.

The passengers of the first and second cars were the worst sufferers. The deaths, except that of the fireman, and most of the injuries occurred in these two cars. These cars were crowded to their full capacity, many persons standing on the platforms. Steam from the derailed engine filled the coaches and added to the horror and confusion of the surviving passengers and impeded them in their efforts to escape.

The occupants of the four catches, which remained on the rails, quickly made their way out and a number of them hastened to extricate the dead and injured from the wreckage. Their efforts were fruitless in the case of some of the victims, whose bodies were so firmly wedged in the shattered remains of the coaches that they were only released after hours of work by the wrecking crew. Between the first and second coaches two bodies were crushed, one being that of Maggie Deer, aged 10, and the other that of an unidentified man. They had not been released at midnight. A heartrending incident was the presence of the mother, herself badly shaken by the accident, who begged the rescuers to release her child.

Terrible Injuries Another man, Rochon by name, was pinned under a truck, and although almost disembowled, lived for several hours in an unconscious condition while efforts were made to effect his release. The accident occurred about 5:20 p.m. and it was over an hour later before the wrecking crew arrived with the appliances necessary for effective rescue work and it was midnight before the relief train reached Montreal. Officials of the road put strict censorship on all information making the identification difficult. The accident is supposed to have been caused by spreading rails.

VAGRANT DOG INJURES BOY

Harold Eastcott, Grand View, Was Viciously Attacked Sunday Evening.

Harold Eastcott, the son of Mr. Wm Eastcott, the well known dairyman, Sydenham street, was viciously attacked by a vagrant dog, near his home last evening, having a portion of his chin removed by the fangs of the dog. A hurried call for medical assistance was sent and Dr. Hanna responded. The wound was burnt, and every precaution taken to remove poisonous substance. The little fellow is resting as easily as could be expected to-day. The dog in question has been around the neighborhood for some time, apparently without an owner, and an effort made to catch it failed last night. Dr. Cutcliffe was summoned and the dog if discovered will be immediately shot. Residents in the vicinity, anxious for their children, are keeping a sharp lookout to-day for the canine, which it is feared has rabies. It had been acting strangely on several occasions.

Importer of Paper Hangings

Artistic Display Wall Papers!

You may not know that you are indeed a true lover of Art—you unconsciously have a feeling that you are not satisfied with the hangings of your rooms, and when you see an effect that is the something that appeals to your ideas of what is pleasing, you say: "Now, there is the style I have wanted for a long time, but it must be very expensive and difficult to make." Yes, perhaps you are right, but then, again, you may not be—there are many very elaborate effects attained by simply "knowing how." We make a specialty of "knowing how," and will be pleased to give any person the benefit of our advanced knowledge of the proper styles in paper hanging, and also of a stock that is right-up-to-now in correctness.

POLICE TRIAL SIMCOE TH

Only Seven Residents Town on Jury Panel.

Forty-Eight Called, But Majority are Farmers.

Simcoe is Curious as to What It's All About.

(From Courier Staff Correspondent) SIMCOE, Ont., April 15.—The Holmdale case opens here at 10 o'clock this afternoon, as the suit of a change of venue in Brantford.

Contrary to expectation, many of the principals arrived here in evening.

Inquiry among the residents of the place resulted in diverse statements. In some cases there has been anticipation of a long investigation. In other instances citizens averred they were aware that any such case would be ventilated, while still another prominent man made the statement that the feeling, as far as he knew, was merely one of curiosity.

At the Battersby House, Justice Latchford, who tries the case, is staying, and the defendants occupy seven rooms, including accommodation for themselves and counsel.

The inquiry takes place in Court House, a handsome structure, capable of seating about four hundred people. Sheriff, Dr. Snider, has everything in readiness and anticipates quiet sessions.

The jury panel includes names of 48 men—seven residents of the town and the balance farmers living in the country. It is believed that there may be a deal of jury challenging on part of both sides, and as proceedings are not likely to commence much before 1:30, a late start is anticipated. The witnesses are not numerous, but the addresses of counsel are expected to be somewhat lengthy.

Jury Picked. At 1:15, when the court convened, there were about 60 people in attendance; most of them in the jury panel. Mr. Godfrey, in behalf of plaintiff, announced that he appeared for Mr. Robbette, and (Continued on Page 4.)
