Carpetball Champions Give Fine Banquet

Very Enjoyable Event Held Last Evening by The Indoor Bowlers—Champions are Congratulated.

The banquet given by the Borden Club carpetball team No. 2 in the Borden Club rooms last night was a huge success and by far the greatest ever held in the history of the carpetball league. Over one hundred jolly bowlers sat down to a dainty banquet prepared by Caterer Crumback of the Tea Pot Inn. The affair will be one that will remain long in the memory of those who attended.

The Borden Bowlers have often put up good spreads and have been noted for the same but last night's affair excelled anything of the kind ever attempted in the past and set a standard for any that may take place in the future. Sharply at half past eight the jolly crowd entered the banquetting room where a dainty repast awaited the boys. A smart corps of waiters were on hand to attend to the appetites of the lads.

During the banquet Prof. McQuinn played a number of selections on the piano.

Seated at the head table were Messrs. A. Dowling, (chairman), A. L. Baird, J. Hill, J. W. White, L. Mears, N. R. Thompson, J. Stonehill and B. Fulcher.

Toast List.

After justice had been done to the inner man, Chairman Dowling rapped on the table and called the gathering to order and a lengthy toast list was then in order.

The chairman welcomed all present and spoke in the highest terms of all the teams and players in the City Carpet Ball League. He congratulated the winners on landing the much-sought championship and the Hastings cup.

The chairman then called upon Mr. A. L. Baird to present the Champion Borden Club No. 2 with the Hastings cup which was received on behalf of the team by B. Fulcher.

Mr. Baird spoke in the highest terms of the winners.

Mr. Fulcher made a suitable reply. The members of the champion Borden No. 2 are A. Jennings, F. Brett, R. Fowler, A. Davis, A. Collins and B. Fulcher (captain).

Short speeches were made by Messrs. L. Mears of Salisbury Lodge S.O.E. team; H. Wisson of Court

Brant, C.O.F. team; John Hill of the W.O.W. team; J. W. White of the Royal Guardians; James Adams of the Letter Carriers; J. Stonehill of the I.O.F. team; T. Lee of the I.O.F. team; M. McWhide of Borden Club No. 1. "Mac" got a rattling fine story that brought down the house. John Hill, too, told a funny yarn that caused a lot of laughter. Bert Watson sang a comic song which was well received.

Morrison McBride, Jr., "a chin of the old block" was the next number on the programme and the younger "Mac" made a big hit. It was the first appearance of the little chap in public and the lad acquitted himself nobly. He sang a couple of Irish songs in capital style and was very enthusiastically applauded. The boy has a sweet voice and like "Dad" has lots of confidence and bids fair to become a singer of merit.

J. Riley gave a couple of fine selections on the accordion and was well received.

Presentation of Lockets.

The chairman called upon Mr. N. R. Thompson, who presented each of the members of the champion team with a handsome gold locket suitably engraved. As each member received his locket he made a few remarks.

After the presentation of the lockets, Mr. McLellan gave a clog dance and received a well earned encore.

Scott's Doubles.

Ald. John H. Spence was called upon for a speech and the genial John was in a jovial mood and got off a number of funny jokes mostly at the expense of those present. His royal "nibs" then asked Messrs. L. and J. Winegard to come forward and the "Telephone City Minister of Finance" presented them with the prizes that were awarded for the winners of the Scotch doubles. The two brothers were forced to say a few words.

J. Riley then gave another selection on his concertina.

H. King followed with a comic song.

The Ryerson Cup.

Robert E. Ryerson came forward and presented the Ryerson Cup to the winners of the ward competition.

"Bob" was greeted with cheers and expressed his pleasure in presenting the cup to the winning team—Ward 5. R. Fowler stepped forward and on behalf of the victorious team accepted the silverware. Mr. Fowler in a few well chosen words thanked Mr. Ryerson.

Andrew Mulligan at this stage of the programme gave a couple of recitations. The elocutionist covered himself with glory.

Then Watson then gave a monologue and sang a couple of songs.

The singing of Rule Britannia and the National Anthem brought the successful affair to a close. The committee in charge of the banquet of which T. Money acted as chairman and B. Fulcher as secretary, deserve great credit for the success of the evening's entertainment. It was a jolly good time and one all enjoyed themselves in their heart's content.

So here's luck to the champion carpet ball team—Borden Club No. 2.

Tickets For Ad. Readers

The Courier has great faith in the "little liners," and more people are reading them every day. You will make them your daily companions. In order to create more interest in these advertisements, which appear on classified page No. 2, The Courier presents a proposition that will, of course, meet with your hearty co-operation and approval. It will give away a series of theatre tickets to the readers of these "little ads," and the method will be as follows:

Hundreds of names of thoughtful residents of this city have been collected and placed in a box. Every day one of these names will be withdrawn and printed upon the classified page, interspersed between the "little ads." You will have to read the advertisements very carefully in order to find them. Perhaps your name will be among them. If it is, simply bring a copy of The Courier, with your name distinctly marked, to the office, and you will be presented with tickets to Colonial or Apollo theatres, free of charge.
