WINNIPEG NEWS INTERESTINGLY TOLD

(By Our Own Correspondent.)

ELECTION INVESTIGATION.

Charge of Multipled Voting at Municipal Election Will Be Inquired Into.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7.—It is announced today that the County Court investigation into the voting at the municipal elections on December 11, which was ordered by the City Council, will open at 2:30 o'clock next Saturday afternoon in the City Hall. The court will go over all the poll books, and inspect the names of those voters who are credited with having received more than one ballot for mayor, controllers, or bylaws. The investigation will be conducted by Judge Myers.

WIFE WAS GRATEFUL

When Husband Was Committed to Jail for Vagrancy.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7.—"Thank God," fervently ejaculated Nellie Martini, at 10 o'clock, when her husband was sentenced to four months at hard labor at the police court this morning for vagrancy and was led away to the jail.

Albert Martini was arrested this morning by Constable Smallwood for carrying a revolver. He was taken to the police station and carried in a harness under his left arm, where it would be out of sight, but ready for use. When the police today received such formidable artillery he did not say.

After Martini had pleaded guilty to the charge of carrying concealed weapons and the gun had been confiscated, a charge of vagrancy was also preferred against him. He was committed to the jail for the night. When his wife was called to the witness stand she told the story of the way in which her husband had abused her since July last. They had been married for two years, but she had been living in the city alone for two years and keeping a house of ill-fame.

CITY TO APPEAL CASE.

Will Carry to Supreme Court Judgment for Damages.

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7.—Board of Control has decided to appeal to the Supreme Court against the decision of Judge Richards awarding Mrs. Iverson $3,000 for damages sustained from falling on a sidewalk in the north end, and which award was sustained by the Court of Appeal. The case came before Judge Richards some time ago, when an award was made against the city, which appealed the case, but the Court of Appeal upheld the judge's decision. The Board of Control, however, do not believe in peacefully bowing to this decision and will carry the case up to the Supreme Court of Canada.

BOUQUET FOR ROOSEVELT

Sultan of Morocco Pays President Some Very Fine Compliments.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 7.—President Roosevelt has received a letter from the Sultan of Morocco, expressing his gratitude for the appointment of Samuel Gannett as American minister to Morocco. The letter is written in Arabic. The Sultan addresses the President as "the beloved, the most cherished, the exalted, the most gracious friend, most honored and most excellent President of the republic of the United States of America, who is the pillar of its most important affairs, the most celebrated preserver of the ties of true friendship, the faithful friend Theodore Roosevelt."

CAPTAIN'S DAUGHTER PILOTS BIG VESSEL

Her Father Ill, She Took His Place at Wheel and Sailed Successfully.

NEW YORK, Jan. 4.—A true daughter of the nation which gave to the world that fighting Dutchman, Admiral Von Trumm, is Nellie Visser, 19 years old. For the greater part of the long voyage of the big four-masted bark Jeanette Francois, from Java to New York, she was at the wheel, because of the illness of her father, Captain Gool Visser. She is the only woman who, when the sun shone, took the latitude and longitude, and who, when the bark pitched and rolled in the unsteady seas and eddies, called by dead reckoning, to the admiration of second officer and crew.

She is a true daughter of the nation, for her father was ill, and she took his place at the wheel and sailed successfully. The Jeanette Francois is berthed at the Erie Basin. When overhauled and repaired, she will load with general merchandise for Sydney.

Pretty, with the rich color of the young women of our country teaming by the winds of the sea, and the picture of health, Miss Visser sat in the cabin of the bark and talked of her voyage.

"Did I like it?" she said in English, with the Dutch accent. "It was grand. A year ago, when my father's ship was in London, my mother gave me permission to join him. I had studied navigation at home from my father's library. Then, besides, I had been on the water much, so when we sailed for Java, I was delighted.

"What I knew surprised my father. Sometimes I took the wheel in fun, and kept the course as mapped out. Then my father became ill. Of course, I could not sail the ship alone, but he was not taken ill until we had reached Java, and had sailed for America. What I had learned on my way out was the experience I needed when I was in the watch coming back.

"My father is a good sailor, and what he taught me he taught me right. He knew that I knew, and he would go wrong when I had the watch, but was afraid my health might not stand it.

"But there is nothing like the sea for health. Each breeze has health in it. Every storm teaches courage. Sometimes the officers would wish me to go below, but I would not. I stayed on deck in every storm when it was my watch or when my father should have been there. In time he trusted me just as much as he did his officers, and the officers soon saw that I understood. Then, too, they knew that should anything happen that I did not know about, I would have been quick to seek aid. I have my oilskins, like the men, and when it blew, I liked it best.

"I want to go to Australia. I will if my mother does not stop me. She is coming here from Holland this week to join us. We expected her to reach here in time for Christmas. She has written saying that she and my youngest sister are coming, and she wants me to go back to Amsterdam with her.

"We were to have had a Christmas celebration and my father was to have played Santa Claus. But we are going to wait for mother, and she will distribute the presents to the crew when she gets here. I hope she lets me go to Australia, but she does not like a sailing ship. She prefers a big ocean liner.

"The reports of the Jeanette Francois are full of praise for the young woman who helped steer the ship. They have voted her 'the Little Captain,' and their 'Aye, aye, sir.' I hope she is always a cheery one. First-class seamen of the old wind-jammer vintage, they look upon her as a nautical wonder. They have seen her in action and have set the mark of approval upon her seamanship. To the big Dutchman she is the 'Little Captain' or 'Captain Nellie.'"

MOOSE JAW, Jan. 3.—The first game in the Saskatchewan League was played here tonight between Regina and the local team, the score being 4 to 1. The play commenced at 8:50, the first goal being scored by Carmichael for Regina at 9:15. The second goal also went to Regina, McGregor doing the trick in two minutes. Carmichael then scored again, making the score 3 to 0 in favor of Regina. No more goals were scored in the first half.

BRANDON, Jan. 4.—The Brandon senior hockey team took the Strathconas of Winnipeg into camp last night in a fast game by a score of 10 to 2. This is a big surprise, as the Strathconas, since they defeated the fast Ottawas a few days ago, were considered to have a good chance in the professional league. The home team was far too fast for the visitors. At half time the score was 6 to 0, but in the second half the visitors made a better showing, scoring two goals.

KENORA THISTLES DEFEATED BRANDON

The Stanley Cup Seekers Win Easily in Kenora by a Score of 9 to 2.

KENORA, Ont., Jan. 7.—The Brandon hockey team went down to defeat in easy style here today at the hands of the local team, the score being 9 to 2. Brandon started out strong, scoring two goals in a few minutes, and at half time the score was 2 to 1. In the second half the home team got busy in earnest and ran in eight straight goals.

The Brandon forwards were unable to penetrate the Thistles' defense, while the local forwards seemed to be able to score at will. There were very few penalties. The showing the home team made was very gratifying to the locals and sports, who are confident the Thistles will lift the Stanley cup.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 7.—"Of late I never start on a railroad journey without wondering how it will end, whether it will be my last. ## RADCLIFFE DECLINES TO EXECUTE MACRI

Canada's Official Hangman Has Quickly Changed from Strong, Active Man to Decrepit Invalid, and Has Probably Officiated at His Last Execution—Sheriff May Have to Execute Macri Himself

WINNIPEG, Jan. 7.—Radcliffe, the hangman, is reported to be a nervous wreck and it is quite possible that he will never again officiate on any scaffold. Recently he executed a Vancouver convict, and when he returned to his friends at Toronto, they could scarcely recognize him. His buoyant spirits have gone, his hair is budding up like an old man's. He seems to have changed in one short month from a strong, healthy man of middle age to a decrepit invalid. Such a change in the place of Sheriff Radcliffe has some foundation, for he has declined to hang Macri. Last week he despatched the following letter to Sheriff Baker:

"54 Fern Avenue, Toronto, Ont. Sir:—I shall not be able to be with you for the 12th. You will be able to get some one in Winnipeg for less than my expenses would come to, I am, Sir, your obedient servant. (Sigs.) W. R. Radcliffe." C. Inkster, Esq., Sheriff, Winnipeg, Man.
