Local and Provincial.

Acadia Seminary and Horton Academy open again on Wednesday of next week.

The annual conference of Free Baptist Church of Nova Scotia will open at Kemps, N. S., on the 13th Sept.

The great stretches of cultivated land and numerous orchards in view from the railway and far beyond on each side of it are almost invariably owned by the titlers of the soil and yet there is room for many more such.

Our people are proud of their country, loyal to their Queen and contented with the laws made for their government.

We hope that this first visit of your Excellencies to the Maritime Provinces may ever be a pleasant reminiscence in your term of government of this great Canada of ours.

We regret that your Excellencies cannot spend more time with us at present but trust that at a later date you may enable us to renew our welcome and make you acquainted with the scenic beauties of our fair land.

E. P. BOWLES, Mayor.

The Addresses to Lord and Lady Aberdeen.

FROM THE TOWN COUNCIL. To His Excellency The Right Honourable Sir John Campbell Hamilton Gordon, Earl of Aberdeen, Baronet of Nova Scotia, Governor General of Canada.

May it please your Excellency: We, the Mayor and Town Councilors of Wolfville, for ourselves and as representatives of the Citizens, do most cordially welcome your Excellencies to our town.

First, to your Excellency as the representative of our beloved Queen whom may the Great God abundantly bless, and secondly, personally as one whose lofty aim of life is to use your high rank, great intellectual powers and untiring energy in benefitting your fellow-man, and assisting to solve the perplexing social problems of the day; and also to the Countess who so ably aids you in every good work.

This our land is famed in history as one of the earliest settlements of the French Acadians and of their struggles with our race for its possession; immortalised in poetry, as the land of Evangeline; provisionally, as the garden of Nova Scotia; and educationally, as the seat of Acadia University and Ladies' Seminary.

FROM THE FRUIT GROWERS' ASSOCIATION.

May it please your Excellencies: That we, in behalf of ourselves and the Fruit Growers Association of Nova Scotia have the honor to address you.

This association was organized some thirty years ago, and during this time has done much to advance the fruit growing interests of the province. The society has now a roll of about 600 members representing nearly every county in Nova Scotia, and during the past year, with the aid of the local government, has established a school of Horticulture—the only such school in Canada.

Believing you are personally interested in fruit growing in the Dominion, and also remembering the lively interest manifested by your excellencies in our fruit exhibit at the world's fair at Chicago, we venture to hand you herewith certificates of honorary life membership in the association and trust you will do us the honor to accept them. We also take this opportunity to heartily bid you welcome to Nova Scotia and to the land of Evangeline. Permit us to remind your excellencies that you now stand at the eastern entrance to the Annapolis Valley celebrated somewhat, and justly so we think, as a favored fruit growing district, where almost every variety of fruits indigenous to temperate climes may be successfully grown. From this region have been gathered, in the main, the fruits shown at many of the principal fairs in different parts of the world, during the last quarter of a century, and which in every case have won distinction for Nova Scotia. The shipment of apples from Kings, Annapolis and Hants counties to England has become an important item in the exports of the country, and we are jealous of the fact that Nova Scotia apples hold a high place in the London markets.

We hope your excellencies may find it convenient during your residence in Nova Scotia to spend at least a short time, among the orchards of this fruitful valley and thereby obtain a view of the country not afforded by a flying trip over the railway.

Should you decide to return to Wolfville any day that may best suit your own convenience, the executive committee of this association will be pleased to have the honor of meeting your party and driving to some of the many points of interest in this home land of Evangeline.

Signed on behalf of the association. J. W. BURLING, President. C. R. H. SEARS, Sr., Vice-President. GEORGE THOMPSON, Treasurer. S. G. PARKER, Secretary.
