

USEFUL CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

Eastman Kodaks—
$2.75 to $30.00 Papeteries . . . 50c to $2.50 Perfumes in bulk and packages, exquisite odors—50c to $10.00
Safety Razors . . . $1 to $10 Hair Brushes . . . 50c to $5 Cloth Brushes . . . 25c to $5

Don't fail to accompany your gift with a box of Gan-ong's Delicious Chocolates.

The
J.B. HUGGINS LTD.
"The Drug Store That is Different."
Phone 250.

1918 ADVERTISING RATES

Wanted, For Rent, Lost and Found Ads.—1c per word per issue, or 4c per word per week. Minimum charge, 25c.

Reading Advertisements—3c a line.

Notices of Meetings: Political Meetings, Legal Notices, Political or Municipal Election Cards and Advertisements—10c per line for first insertion and 5c a line for each subsequent insertion. 8 lines to inch.

Birth and Marriage Notices—50c.

Death and Funeral Notices—$1 for first insertion and 50c for each subsequent insertion.

Local Reading Ads.—10c per line each issue.

Auction Advertisements—25c per inch.

Transient Display Ads.—25c per inch.

Front Page Display—Double Rates.

Steady Commercial Advertising Rates on application.

Subscription Rates

One Year, by mail . . . $3.00

Six Months, by mail . . . $1.50

City Rates

By Carrier, per month . . . 50c

One Year (strictly in advance) $5.00

THE HERALD

Published Every Morning Except Monday

R. R. Hindmarch

FOCH'S SACRIFICE

The statement of the war correspondent of the British Wireless Service at headquarters in France that at the time the German delegates came to Marshal Foch asking an armistice the marshal knew that complete victory in the field, the entire destruction of the German army through surrender, capture and slaughter, was in his hands, that it was only a matter of a very few days till it would be accomplished, may be taken as reliable. A similar statement was repeated by Hon. Dr. Cody of the Ontario Government recently.

He had it at first hand from a British officer. This officer told Dr. Cody that British headquarters, hearing of the prospect of an armistice, telephoned to Marshal Foch asking what he thought of it. His reply was: "Why an armistice? I have them. I have them."

It must have taken the very highest degree of character to renounce such a victory. True, the victory through the armistice was just as emphatic, the defeat of the enemy just as conclusive, but to have held back from destruction of the entire German army when not more than a week or ten days would have seen that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, after all our praise and thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was British and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that lurked in the foggy fastness of the North Sea, slowly, silently and surely strangled the German military machine to death. Just as British naval power undid Napoleon, though he visibly fell at Waterloo, so did British naval power, aided by the navies of France, Italy, the United States and Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as it did a hundred years ago, as it did when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that proposes to guarantee the peace of the world must have at its disposal an adequate navy to enforce its judgments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand for "freedom of the sea." Germany wants not the mere liberum that has existed for 200 years, whereby in times of peace ships sailed the seas unhindered, but a freedom of the seas in times of war, so that war may be reduced to a series of land operations, at which Germany, as the largest ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

THEOSOPHICAL SOCIETY

Nanaimo Lodge

A very interesting lecture was given in the Theosophical room Brumpton Block by Mr. Harries of Vancouver, on Sunday night. The subject "How to Attract" was a continuation of a previous lecture on "Paths of Attainment." The lecturer showed very clearly that our progress or attainment depends on the utilization of forces in ourselves especially those of emotion and thought, references being made to great thinkers such as Edison.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control persistence and repetition, was emphasized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good attendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note that the usual Wednesday meeting will be postponed to Friday, January 3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership of right between the United States and Europe, declared President Wilson in receiving the freedom of the City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States is not interested merely in the peace of Europe but in the peace of the world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us but a new attempt to keep the world at the right policy by a balance of power," the President added, "the United States would take no interest in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the
North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good at-
tendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership
of right between the United States
and Europe, declared President Wil-
son in receiving the freedom of the
City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States
is not interested merely in the peace
of Europe but in the peace of the
world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us
but a new attempt to keep the world
at the right policy by a balance of
power," the President added, "the
United States would take no interest
in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a
combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the
North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good at-
tendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership
of right between the United States
and Europe, declared President Wil-
son in receiving the freedom of the
City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States
is not interested merely in the peace
of Europe but in the peace of the
world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us
but a new attempt to keep the world
at the right policy by a balance of
power," the President added, "the
United States would take no interest
in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a
combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the
North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good at-
tendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership
of right between the United States
and Europe, declared President Wil-
son in receiving the freedom of the
City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States
is not interested merely in the peace
of Europe but in the peace of the
world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us
but a new attempt to keep the world
at the right policy by a balance of
power," the President added, "the
United States would take no interest
in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a
combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good attendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership
of right between the United States
and Europe, declared President Wil-
son in receiving the freedom of the
City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States
is not interested merely in the peace
of Europe but in the peace of the
world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us
but a new attempt to keep the world
at the right policy by a balance of
power," the President added, "the
United States would take no interest
in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a
combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good attendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

NOT INTERESTED IN
EUROPEAN POLITICS

Manchester, Eng., Dec. 30.—(Associated Press).—The United States
is not interested in European politics
but she is interested in a partnership
of right between the United States
and Europe, declared President Wil-
son in receiving the freedom of the
City of Manchester at Free Trade
Hall here today. The United States
is not interested merely in the peace
of Europe but in the peace of the
world, he added.

"If the future has nothing for us
but a new attempt to keep the world
at the right policy by a balance of
power," the President added, "the
United States would take no interest
in it, because she will join no combination of powers which is not a
combination of us all."

It must have taken the very high-
est degree of character to renounce
such a victory. True, the victory
through the armistice was just as
emphatic, the defeat of the enemy
just as conclusive, but to have held
back from destruction of the entire
German army when not more than a
week or ten days would have seen
that result was a very great sacrifice.

The compensation lay in the fact that
to do so saved the lives of allied soldiers.

THE FACT THAT REMAINS

After all is said about our gallant
armies, says the Seattle Post-Intelli-
gencer, after all our praise and
thanks have been bestowed on them,
the fact still remains that it was Brit-
ish and allied sea power that won the
war. The great, silent navy that
lurked in the foggy fastness of the North Sea, slowly, silently and surely
strangled the German military mach-

ine to death. Just as British naval
power undid Napoleon, though he vi-
sibly fell at Waterloo, so did British
naval power, aided by the navies of
France, Italy, the United States and
Japan, undo the Kaiser, though he began visibly to fall on the Marne.

The sea controls the land today as
it did a hundred years ago, as it did
when Rome rose and Carthage fell,
and any league of nations that pro-
poses to guarantee the peace of the
world must have at its disposal an
adequate navy to enforce its judg-
ments. That is the dominant fear of Germany when she voices a demand
for "freedom of the sea." Germany
wants not the mere liberum that has
existed for 200 years, whereby in
times of peace ships sailed the seas
unhindered, but a freedom of the
seas in times of war, so that war may
be reduced to a series of land opera-
tions, at which Germany, as the largest
ethnic group in Europe, has every
chance to excel.

The importance of concentration
and the practice of self-control per-
sistence and repetition, was empha-
sized, the lecturer concluding with Tennyson's well-known words: "Self-
reliance, self-knowledge, self-control, these three alone lead men to
sovereign power."

An animated discussion followed,
there being a particularly good attendance of members and friends.

All interested are required to note
that the usual Wednesday meeting
will be postponed to Friday, January
3, at 8 p. m.

STRENGTH FOR THE DAY'S WORK in these times of food conservation is no longer a problem for the man or woman who knows

Shredded Wheat

It is the whole wheat—nothing was ted. The most real Food for the least money—and it is ready-cooked and ready-to-eat. No sugar is required—simply milk and a dash of salt.

MAILS FOR THE NORTH.

Ottawa Dec. 30.—The post office department announces that mails will leave Edmonton on Friday, January 24, 1919, for Port McMurray, Fort McKay, Fort Fitzgerald, Fort Chippewa, Fort Smith, Fort Resolution, Fort Providence, Hay River and Fort Simpson.

THEY MARRIED IN HASTE;
NOW REPENT AT LEISURE

Chicago, Dec. 30.—The "slacker marriages" performed by thousands in the early days of the selective service law are "beginning to bear fruit in the form of deserted wives and children," according to Judge William N. Gemmill, of the court of domestic relations. The judge, disgusted by the many tales of woe related by war brides who have hauled slacker husbands into court, announced today that he would see that as many as possible of the culprits are sent to jail.

"With the selective service act these fellows hurried to get a marriage license and then pleaded that they had dependent wives. Now they are showing their real calibre by deserting the women who kept them out of war."

Judge Gemmill said that the increase in complaints against slacker husbands had been alarming. In December, 1917, there were 34 such warrants. Thus far in December, 1918, there have been 196.

BLEW UP MONUMENT.

Cork, Dec. 30.—Sinn Feiners on Saturday night after the announcement of the election results, blew up the monument erected by public subscription to the Cork soldiers who fought in the South African war.

PEACE CONFERENCE.

Paris Dec. 30.—The Central Powers will not be admitted to the peace conference early in the negotiations, according to a statement given by Frederick A. Wood, who is engaged in framing a program of the preliminary negotiations.

150 U. S. AIRMEN KILLED.

Washington, Dec. 30.—The War Department announces that 150 American commissioned officers of the air service were killed in action in France this year.

DOMINION THEATRE

A thoroughly enjoyable picture is "Out of a Clear Sky," the five-act Paramount feature which heads the Dominion bill. It will be shown today for the last time. Happy romance and spirited comedy combine to make this one of the most delightful impersonations that Marguerite Clark has ever given. A beautiful Pathe scenic and an amusing Sidney Drew comedy are also shown.

BIJOU THEATRE

The program of pictures shown at the Bijou yesterday afternoon and evening drew big houses to both performances and was the best shown by the popular playhouse for some time.

The feature of the program is the ever popular Wm. S. Hart who is seen at his best in "The Disciple," a powerful story of the far west that is brimful of action. In addition to the feature the seventh episode of "Ven-essence and the Webber" is shown. The program being rounded out with official pictures showing the surrender of the German fleet, the greatest event of the entire war.

FRESH AND TENDER

ALWAYS GOOD

E. Quennell
& Sons

Can. Food Bd. License No. 9-4119

PHILPOTT'S CAFE

Rogers Block Phone 164

W. H. PHILPOTT, Prop.

OPEN DAY AND NIGHT