

SIXTEEN FINES AND TWO JAILED

Inspector Menzies Resents Accusation of Corruption in His Office

SCOTT ACT IN NELSON

Inspector Starts This Year With Nine Prosecutions out of which Two Perjury Cases Came

To the Editor of the Advocate:

Will you kindly allow me space in your paper to answer the "slander in the dark" who attacks me under the name of "Temperance"?

I have not been accustomed to give very much attention to parties who are ashamed of their names; but as this insidious slander has taken advantage of circumstances over which I have no control, I am compelled to answer it. I have no quarrel with anyone who is honest and upright, but I have a quarrel with anyone who is dishonest and corrupt. I have no quarrel with anyone who is honest and upright, but I have a quarrel with anyone who is dishonest and corrupt.

Nelson has a lot of fine men, but the most difficult I have had to cope with since I have been in the office is the one who is dishonest and corrupt. I have no quarrel with anyone who is honest and upright, but I have a quarrel with anyone who is dishonest and corrupt.

Last year, acting under the Scott Act, I brought in nine prosecutions, of which two were perjury cases. I have no quarrel with anyone who is honest and upright, but I have a quarrel with anyone who is dishonest and corrupt.

This year I started nine prosecutions against parties in Nelson for violation of the Canada Temperance Act, out of which developed two charges of perjury and one charge of tampering with a witness. Of these I secured five convictions. The first prosecution against Mrs. Fitzpatrick failed as she afterwards swore, by reason of perjury. The death of the late Police Magistrate Niven stopped proceeding in several of the cases, and for a considerable time I was unable to get a Court of competent jurisdiction in which to prosecute offenders. Hence the lull in the enforcement of the Act during the last couple of months. Nevertheless, I understand the rigor of my prosecutions has forced one of the most persistent violators to leave the country.

Any person but a slanderer, who knew his evil doing, and is ashamed to let people know who the party is, who like the Savage of years ago, wings his poisoned arrow from behind a tree, would not dare to charge me with neglect of Nelson under the above circumstances; which are undoubtedly known to your anonymous correspondent. Thanking you for space,

JOHN MENZIES,
Inspector.

IT'S UP TO MR. 'BULL' TO QUIT.

Seizure of British Vessels Has Created a Very Grave Crisis

AN UNWARRANTED ACT

Russia Had no Right to Sink Str. Knight Commander so There's Complication

(Special to the Advocate)

London, July 26.—The British public are thoroughly incensed over the seizure of British merchantmen by the Russians. This morning most of the London papers devoted considerable space to the seizure and sinking of the steamer Knight Commander and the consensus of opinion is that Russia should be speedily brought to account for her actions. Serious complications are likely to arise. The sinking of the Knight Commander without a trial is regarded as an unwarranted act and it is believed that it has created a grave crisis following so closely on the seizure of the Malacca.

There is little or no war news to-day.

A GOOD COMPLEXION

It is a joy to every woman's heart and man's vain enough not to desire it. Beautiful complexion means pure blood, or in other words a healthy body. Tens of thousands of women take Ferrazone because it is a splendid blood-builder. It keeps the system in perfect order and helps the complexion wonderfully. I consider Ferrazone the best remedy I know of. Write Miss A. E. Shaw of Bathurst, N. B., for a clear, ruddy complexion. I know of no other remedy that will give you a clear, ruddy complexion. I know of no other remedy that will give you a clear, ruddy complexion.

Big Gathering of Quebec Liberals to Be Held in Bonaventure Next Week.

REID AND TURGEON TOO

New Brunswick Liberals From the North Shore Will Also Be On Hand

(Special to the Advocate)

Montreal, Que., July 26.—It is reported that immediately after the close of the session Sir Wilfrid Laurier will go to Quebec, P. Q., to act as the guest of Senator J. P. B. Casgrain. While there the campaign will be opened. The electors of the four counties of Bonaventure, Gaspé, Restigouche and the rest of the last named two in New Brunswick will meet at a convention point, and listen to speeches by Messrs. Macdonald, Laurier, Reid, Turgeon, as well as an oration by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. This gathering will, it is said, be the opening of the Liberal campaign in the Province of Quebec. Apparently the whole announcement that Sir Wilfrid Laurier would go to the Union at the close of the session will not be carried out.

HACHEY ACCIDENT GRIEVOUS AFFAIR.

Mr. Albert Hinton Writes Expressing Regret And Explaining Circumstances.

To the Editor of the Advocate:

My attention has been called to an article which appeared in your issue of last week under the signature of Mr. J. Bennett Hachey, of Bathurst Village, who undoubtedly has a grievance against me owing to an act of mine which resulted in an accident to his father on the morning of the 2nd. July, at Newcas.

Permit me to state in explanation of what occurred to Mr. Hachey, that he was the victim of circumstances and in no way, so far as I know, connected with the parties who played a provoking trick upon me whilst I was sleeping on a bench in Newcastle Station awaiting the arrival of the Maritime Express which, that morning, happened to be four hours late. It was after this occurrence that, unknowingly, in a moment of impatience, I shoved Mr. Hachey over one of the men who had played the trick on me and who was seated at the rear of the station platform. Any stories to the contrary are certainly fabrications as the entire blame, so far as the injury to Mr. Hachey is concerned, rests on me and those who were the cause of my provocation. No person regrets the occurrence and its consequences to Mr. Hachey more than I do.
