INFLUENZA STILL SERIOUS AT BOUESTOWN

Boiestown, Dec. 6.—On Nov. 6th, Jane Reid, child of nine months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Norrad passed away. The little one had never been very strong, and contracted influenza and was unable to withstand the ravages of the disease. Besides his parents, there are three sisters, Glena, Rena and Margaret. The remains were interred in the Mortuary grounds, Rev. Mr. MacNeil officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Jonathan Munn, of Boiestown, are mourning the loss of Cora Hilda, their adopted daughter, of pneumonia, at the age of seven months. Services were conducted by the Rev. Mr. Allaby, burial at Cameron Hill cemetery.

At the Emergency Hospital, on Nov. 23rd, Ernie Munn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Archie Munn, Boiestown, passed away with pneumonia. The young man had only been sick a short time and was removed to the hospital only a few hours before his death. He was a member of the Baptist church and was buried on Sunday in the Baptist cemetery at Norrad Bridge. He leaves besides his parents a number of brothers and sisters and other relatives to mourn their loss.

The people of the community were shocked on Saturday evening to learn of the death of Lottie, wife of Walter Cameron. She had been sick a short time but it was thought she was recovering, when she became suddenly worse and passed away. Lottie was loved by her friends, who were many, for her kind, sunny disposition. Much sympathy is felt for her father, Ed Munn, of Boiestown, as this is the third time in less than two months he has been bereaved; also for the young husband, who feels his loss so keenly and the little son, as well as her brothers and sisters and a host of friends who sincerely mourn her early passing. She was laid to rest on Sunday in the Cameron Cemetery beside her infant who died two years ago.

Mrs. Purdy Spencer is improving slowly after her serious illness with influenza.

Miss Fraser, of Covered Bridge, is clerking for Miss G. A. Wilson.

Mrs. Clair Young, of Taymouth, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. Norrad.

Mrs. Willie Norrad is seriously ill at her home.

Howard Hinchey, of Texas River, is able to be at work again after his serious illness with influenza.

Miss Kathleen Hinchey has returned to her home after spending three months with her aunt in Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Scott and Mr. and Mrs. Will Munn are being congratulated on the arrival of sons at their homes recently.

Hartley, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Snow, passed away at his home, Gordon Vale, on Wednesday last. There is left to mourn besides his parents, three sisters, Mary, Aletha, and Ruby, two brothers, Hudson and Hedley, and a little fellow, twin brother Hedley. Much sympathy is felt for the bereaved ones.

$100 REWARD $100

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Catarrh, being greatly influenced by constitutional conditions, requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Medicine is taken internally and acts through the Blood on the Mucous Surfaces of the System, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in the curative powers of Hall's Catarrh Medicine that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

DEATH CLAIMS A DISTINGUISHED SON OF THE MIRAMICHI.

Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglastown, Retired Lumber Operator, Passed Away in South Carolina on Thursday—Was Prominent Politician, and Founded Miramichi Hospital.

Miramichi lost a most distinguished and successful business man and citizen in the death at Columbia, South Carolina, on Thursday, of Ernest Hutchinson, of Douglastown. Deceased, who was a retired lumber operator, was 71 years old. He leaves his widow, formerly Miss Jane Johnston, of Chatham and two children, Richard, manager of the Babcock and Wilcox Co., Boston, and Belle, Mrs. Hugh G. Moncrieff, Winnipeg. Death was due to influenza. Deceased had left home on an automobile trip some three weeks ago. Mrs. Hutchinson was in St. John, enroute to Boston, when the sad news reached her.

His Career.
Deceased when a young man bought out from his father, Richard Hutchinson, who had once been a member of the firm of Gilmore & Rankine, his interest in the lumber mills at Douglastown, which business he ran successfully until he sold out to the Miramichi Lumber Company about ten years ago. He knew the business thoroughly, being himself an expert mechanic, conversant with all details of lumbering and milling. Deceased took a great interest in politics and sat eight years in the New Brunswick legislature. He was never a strong party man but always worked for what he thought just for the country; at the time when Northumberland county was incorporated in 1878 Mr. Hutchinson was elected county councillor for Newstead Society and became the first warden. In 1878 along with Allan A. Davidson, Michael Adams, and T. F. Gillespie, he decided to contest the legislative election. In 1882 he was on a ticket with Gillespie, Hon. John P. Burchill and Thomas Troy, the other candidates being Michael Adams and W. A. Park.

OBITUARY.

DEATH OF CHAS. ASLE.
The death occurred on Friday night at his home on Avery's Portage, of Charles Nelson Asle, in the 74th year of his age. The deceased had been ill for a few months with stomach trouble. He is survived by his wife, three sons, Alex Asle of Newcastle, Nelson and Eldon at home; one daughter, Mrs. Robert Palmer; three sisters, Mrs. Alexander Bubar, of Houlton, Mrs. Sara Edey, of Durham, and Mrs. Joseph Norrad, of Boiestown; and three brothers, Geo. Gerrie and John, all of Houlton. Interment was made at Boiestown cemetery on Sunday. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mr. Smith, of Boiestown.

Willard T. Baldwin.

The death of Willard T. son of Counsellor and Mrs. W. H. Baldwin, occurred on December 1 at his home in Douglastown, after a lingering illness of tuberculosis. He was twenty-five years of age and a young man of great promise and was a graduate of the Chatham Grammar School, and for two years was in the service of the Bank of Nova Scotia in Chatham and later in the service of the Canadian Bank of Commerce in the same place.

In January, 1916, while in the employ of the bank in Toronto, he enlisted with an Ontario Battalion, and served several months in training at Camp Borden. Being unfit for military service, he accepted a position with the Dalhousie Landwehr Corps, and with that company until October, 1917, when he returned on account of ill-health. He survived by his parents, one sister, Mrs. Willard Edey, of St. John's, and four brothers, John and Harold, at home; Purdy, of Saskatoon, and Andrew, now lieutenant in the 42nd Overseas Battalion.

The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon from his father's residence to St. Paul's church, Chatham Head, where service was conducted by Ven. Archdeacon Forsythe. The funeral was attended by members of the Masonic lodge with which he was connected and a large number of friends. A large number of friends and many floral tributes marked the esteem in which the young man was held.

Arthur MacMillan.

Gloom was cast over this community for miles around, and there was not a heart but felt a painful sensation when the news went out on Saturday, November 30, that Arthur MacMillan, of New Mills, N. B., after only a few days' illness had succumbed to an attack of influenza. On Friday, the 29th, the gravest concern was felt for him, but it was hoped that with his splendid constitution he would tide over the danger successfully, but all efforts proved unavailing and he passed peacefully away at 1.30 a. m. on Saturday.

The deceased was just in the flower of manhood and was one of those large-hearted, energetic fellows of sterling qualities who endeared himself to all not only by his kind, cheerful disposition, but by his ever-ready willingness to help all in need, no matter if he were inconvenienced thereby—one of those whose passing away means everything to a community. He is survived by the following brothers: Dr. John D. Newcastle; J. Reid and R. Edwin, of New Mills, and Mrs. Murray Nichols, of New Mills. The sympathy of the whole community goes out to this broken-hearted family, who in a little more than a year have been bereft of father, mother and brother, and various members of the same household as the deceased went down with the disease at the same time and so were unable to be with their beloved brother in his last moments.

No regular funeral service was held but prayer was offered and comforting passages of scripture read out loud by the Rev. P. L. Job. A memorial service will be held later. Interment was made in the New Mills cemetery beside his parents, his grave being overshadowed by the church.

He and Troy were defeated. In 1889 he ran again, this time on a ticket with Adams, Park and L. J. Tweedie and all were elected. In 1890 his ticket included John Morrissey, Theophilus Desbriais and Anthony Adams and all were defeated, the successful candidates being Tweedie, Burchill, John O'Brien and James Robinson. This was the last election Mr. Hutchinson contested. Deceased was a very widely read man conversant with every topic of general interest and had one of the finest libraries in the county. He travelled extensively and kept abreast of the times in every respect.

Built Miramichi Hospital.
Besides engaging in numerous acts of private charity Mr. Hutchinson left two great monuments of his munificence—he built the associated lodges halls for Douglastown at a cost of some $12,000 and in 1916 there was finished and handed over to trustees the magnificent Miramichi hospital at Newcastle, built and equipped entirely by Mr. Hutchinson at a cost of about $100,000. This year he presented the hospital with an additional building which cost some $5,000. In his early days deceased was a military man and rose to a captaincy in the old Northumberland militia. Deceased was a member of the Miramichi A. F. & A. M. Lodge of Chatham and was a Past Master. He had long been a member of the Highland Society at Miramichi and had several times been president. For years deceased was a member of the Northwest Miramichi Room Company. During his long and active business career Mr. Hutchinson employed many people and came into contact with many more and his death will be regretted by many.

where he was a faithful attendant from his childhood. The floral tributes were beautiful.

Valentine de Olloqui.

At Chicago, on Nov. 15, Valentine de Olloqui, third son of the late Dr. Rudolph A. de Olloqui, of Rexton, passed away. He is survived by his wife, two children, besides his mother, three sisters and one brother, Miss Helena, Dr. M. J. and Miss Augusta, and Alphonse, all living in New York.

ROY MURRAY McTAVISH.

The sad death of Roy Murray, second son of Mr. and Mrs. William McTavish, occurred at his home in Whiteville on Monday morning, Nov. 18th, at 8:15 a. m. The deceased contracted influenza in the lumber woods. While being brought home it developed into pneumonia. Deceased was a bright young fellow, well educated, and was only fifteen years and six months old. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing mother and father, three sisters and two brothers, Lewis and Herman (Henderson). The bride, Newcastle, Greta and Sadie at home; Major, of the 1st Depot Battalion, St. John, now at home, and Russell, also at home.

The funeral was held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock; service conducted by Rev. J. P. McCurdy, Interment in the Whiteville Presbyterian cemetery. The pall-bearers were Pte. Charles McKay, Pte. Geo. Sheppard, Arnold and Walter Adams, Clifford Keating and William White. Sincere sympathy is felt for the family in their sad bereavement.

MRS. BERT JOHNSON.

On Nov. 30th, 1918, at Trout Brook, after a long and painful illness, passed away Mary Emily, beloved wife of Bert Johnson. Deceased was 32 years of age, leaves to mourn besides her husband her father, Thos. Norton, of Seville, and the following children: Harry, Joseph, Nina and Winston; also two brothers, Stephen Norton, of Seville, and Geo. Norton, in the West, and three sisters, Mrs. Rita Russell, of Trout Brook, Mrs. Ernest Russell, Newcastle, and Mrs. Rhoda Norton, of Seville.

The funeral took place on Dec. 2nd and was conducted by Rev. Ernest Rowlands. In spite of the cold weather and the influenza epidemic, the funeral was largely attended, a tribute to the esteem in which the deceased was held. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Kiah Copp, Frank Copp, Percy Hosford, Peter O'Shea, Osborne Johnston, Tom Polan.

EDWARD SINCLAIR MULLIN.

The death of E. Sinclair Mullin, son of Mr. and Mrs. David T. Mullin, of Boom Road, occurred at his home on Tuesday morning, Nov. 19th. Death was due to pneumonia, after an illness of seventeen days. Deceased was only seventeen years of age. He will be sadly missed by his many friends, being a great favorite with his family and his schoolmates. He leaves two sisters, Mrs. Willard Rolf and Mr. Hubert Matchett, and four brothers, Robert, David, Alvin and Marshall. The funeral was held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, interment being in St. Stephen's cemetery, Red Bank, Rev. Jas. P. McCurdy conducting the funeral service at the house and grave. The pall-bearers were Fred Leach, Gay White, Osborn Sheppard, Weldon Taylor, Harvey Allison and Wm. Connors. Much sympathy is felt for Mrs. Mullin in their very sad bereavement.

One precious to our hearts has gone. The voice we loved is stilled. The place made vacant in our home by the death of our dear son, our Father up in Heaven called. The one He loved He'd given. And though on earth his body lies, His soul is safe in Heaven.

AGRICULTURAL
HAD PROSPEROUS YEAR

Annual Reports Show Membership Largest in History—Directors Elected—Will Procure Basic Slag.

The annual meeting of Agricultural Society No. 122 was held in the Town Hall on Wednesday afternoon. President H. Willington in the chair. The Secretary-Treasurer's report showed the finances in good condition and a membership of ninety-seven, the largest in the history of the society. The report of the Agricultural Fair held on October 2nd showed a deficit, but plans for another one next fall were discussed.

It was decided to secure a car of basic slag for the members of the society. The following directors were elected: M. O. Shaughnessy, J. D. Goodfellow, John McColm, James Young, Wm. Taylor, John S. Mullin, H. Willington, H. Whitney, George Stables, Stan Hill, John Kane, John Kaka, Joseph Sobey, Wm. Johnston and G. G. Stothart.

Messrs. J. R. Lawlor and George Stables were elected auditors. On motion a committee composed of W. M. Johnston, James Young and G. G. Stothart were appointed to wait upon the County Council and ask for the enactment of a law to prevent the running of large bulls in the county and more particularly the parades of Northland South East and Newcastle. The directors will meet shortly to elect the officers.

WILLIAM S. HART'S NEW PICTURE, "SELFISH YATES," HAS POWERFUL THEMES.

Popular Ince-Artcraft Star Has Role of Selfish Man Whose Nature is Changed by Love.

"Selfish Yates," the new Artcraft photoplay featuring William S. Hart, the famous Thomas H. Ince star in Western productions, is said to be one of the most remarkable pictures in which that sterling portrayal of western roles has yet been seen. Imagine Mr. Hart as a confirmed egotist whose motto is "myself first and to the devil with all the others." That is "Selfish Yates," the supreme master of the sordid clique in Thirsty Center over which he presides.

But it is the woman, the simple, sweet, innocent little woman, who by the magic force of her compelling and soft yet so rigorous example, redeems him from his shocking mental condition and brings him to a realization that the love of a noble woman has a subtle power to the force of which egotism and selfishness must succumb. As "Selfish Yates," Mr. Hart affords his admirers another of those strange, robust, western characterizations for which he is famous. When the selfish devil in his heart finally is evicted, Yates fights bravely to win and retain the love of the woman he has learned to reverence for her sweetness, self-denial and purity. He saves her from a scoundrel and in turn protects this man from an arming mob at her own request. Then he is left looking at the light in her cabin window—a man transformed, purified, forgetful of his former life. The picture is a masterpiece of the love of her through which this magic transformation of his nature had been effected.

Yates is a great theme, treated in a big broad way. "Selfish Yates" will be presented at the Happy Hour theatre Friday and Saturday, and all who see it will agree that Mr. Hart never has done a better thing than this, and that like all of his pictures, "Selfish Yates" conveys a splendid moral lesson. The picture is directed by Mr. Hart himself under the supervision of Thomas H. Ince and in his support appear such notable players as Jane Novak, B. J. Burroughs, Harry Dumes, Ernest Butterworth, Thelma Salter and others.

INSANE RETURNED MAN JUMPED FROM TRAIN.

(Monday's Times)
A news item received here yesterday from the Officer Commanding military hospital train number 1157 which left Moncton at 2.35 Sunday evening, reports that a man, who was one of the returned men on board the special, who was insane, had made his escape, presumably by jumping from the train somewhere between Moncton and Newcastle. The name of the unfortunate man was given as Pte. Sevilins, a Spaniard, who entered with the Canadian Army from Ontario.

The escaped man is described as wearing trousers and sweater, bareheaded and stocking feet. The message asked that the Officer Commanding the military special be notified if the escaped man was located any time this morning, and if found this afternoon, the authorities of the military hospital at Coburg, Ont. All station agents along the line have been notified of the escape of the unfortunate soldier as well as section men and other railway employees. It being the fact that the weather was very severe at the time of his escape, with the temperature well below the zero mark, it is feared that he will not be found alive. When the men were checked up at Moncton no one was missing, but at Newcastle, the above mentioned man was not on board the special.

CLASH BETWEEN MILITARY AUTHORITIES AND MAYOR OF HALIFAX

Halifax, Dec. 9.—Mayor Hawkins objects to the military authorities sending soldiers to the city prison who are suffering from venereal diseases, and he has a dispute on at present with them over the matter. A man was sent to the prison for nine months, who had escaped from the military hospital. The Mayor ordered him out of the prison and sent him under guard to the military hospital. They refused to admit him and he walked off and is at large. The authorities object to this but the Mayor stands his ground and invites them to go ahead and do anything they consider proper.

THE GREATEST CRIMINAL IN THE WORLD TODAY

London, Nov. 23.—(Correspondence of Associated Press)—What does King George really think of his cousin, William II. of Hohenzollern, former German Emperor? That is a question that has been often asked, but has never received anything approaching an authoritative answer. According to a writer in the Daily News, which is usually very careful as to the trustworthiness of what it prints, King George regards him as "the greatest criminal in the world today."

The writer today says that he was talking a few days ago with a well-known statesman who has had many opportunities during the war, and especially lately, of hearing the King express his views of the Kaiser, and he thus summarizes what the well-known statesman told him: "My informant says that the King's feelings and expressions are so strong that they could hardly be reproduced verbatim, but that the substance of them is that the Kaiser is the greatest criminal in the world today; that he is directly responsible for the outrages on the Belgian and French civil populations, for the bombing and air raids on the innocent inhabitants of unfortified towns; for the torpedoing of passenger and hospital ships and the sinking of survivors in their boats, for the first use of poison gas, the poisoning of wells, the destruction of works of art of historic buildings, of beautiful towns, and the machinery of industrial life and potential reconstruction; that he has not only permitted these things to proceed, but has in many cases a personal interest in them, and is director of them and that for such a man no retributive penalty however severe, would be adequate."

FORMER KAISER WAS RICHEST PERSON IN GERMANY IN 1914

The Kaiser is reported to have had about $2,500,000 of German public money follow him into Holland, but even without looting the treasury he need not fear starvation, he could lay his hands on a small part of his private fortune. At the time of the German war levy in January, 1914, he was the richest person in Germany, with an estimated fortune of $28,500,000.

Next came the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg-Stralitz with $89,000,000 and Frau Krupp von Bohlen, with $80,000,000. Houses owned by the Kaiser in Berlin were valued at $4,500,000, while castles and lands in other parts of Prussia were valued at $27,600,000. It would not be easy to realize on the assets, even if they were not confiscated by the new German government, but his liquid assets were enormous. He was for example one of the largest stockholders of Krupp and had investments in many other commercial enterprises, notably shipping companies and export business in general. The foundation of the present Hohenzollern fortune was laid by Frederick William, the great-grandfather. About the Napoleonic wars Frederick William set about restoring the Hohenzollern private fortune and left about $7,000,000 to his son. In the next half-century this sum was judiciously handled and William II. came to the throne with excellent prospects. He was as good a business man as he was a war lord, and retired with nearly $200,000,000 on paper. His great trouble seems to have been that in his vision of interests he overlooked the possibility of the war lord speculation, forcing a prosperous and growing business into bankruptcy. Bank failures have tried the same combination with equally disastrous results. And now there is talk of extruding William.
