Surpassing by far, any former event of the season, was the At osed of four promising young bank ers of the town, members of the Royal Bank Staff viz. Mesers. Atkingen, McEvoy, McKeen and Mc-Inerney, in the town ha'l on last Friday evening.

In the vicinity of 100 couples trip ed the light fantastic, to the strains of "Persys Concert Orchestra" one of the best orchestras in Eastern Canada which was brought from Monoton especially for the occasion, the music rendered war of the high est standard, which tended to make the function a decided success.

The hall was tastefully and very prettily decorated with multicolored blossoms and evergreens, and an antiully constructed moon past its next Fall. flickering beams the gliding couples during the Moonlight Wal-tzes which were one of the novel attractions. Much credit is menner in which she supervised the arnangements for the lunch, it was all the inner man could wish for.

About 300 people attended the fair, many of the older people coming for the express occasion of listening to the music. The Pre which consisted of 8 musical numbers by the orchestra was rena most excellent manner immediately following dancing began, a programme of 18 dances, with several extras eagerly demanded, having been pjovided. For the older people's benefit, there was he older people's benefit, there was ne set of lancers which was very much enjoyed. The affair come to with three cheers and a tiger for the committee in charge, thereby expressing appreciation of a good time It would be impossible to ade-quately protray any idea of the from such a bunch of pretty who e gowns were a work of and added color and brightness as occasion.
