Wedding Anniversary Celebrated.

On Friday evening, January 7th, 1911, at the home of Mrs. Adam Baldwin, 157 Santiago Ave., Rutherford, New Jersey, Mrs. Baldwin gave a dinner in honour of the twentieth anniversary of her marriage. This was followed by a large reception attended by seventy-five couples. The decorations consisted of Mrs. Baldwin's favourite flowers, chrysanthemums, and the American and Newfoundland flags. A very pleasant evening was spent in singing and dancing, and also in listening to recitations by Miss Aletha Baldwin, and musical selections by Miss Annie Edwards.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin were married in the Church of the Redeemer, Fourth Avenue and Pacific Street, Brooklyn. After five years of happy wedded life in Brooklyn, Mr. Baldwin purchased a detached cottage in Rutherford, New Jersey, where the Baldwins have become very popular. During the evening a toast was given to Mr. Baldwin by Mr. Frank Stedman, Borough Clerk of Rutherford, in which he spoke of Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin's sterling qualities.

Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin's one desire was that they could have had some of their old companions of Newfoundland to participate in celebrating the very happy hours of the evening.

Coasters Hurt Man.

Shortly after 6 p.m. yesterday as Mr. Thos. Kelly, cooper, was returning from work and crossing Cochrane Street on his way along Gower Street, two boys came down the former thoroughfare on a slide at a very rapid rate. They yelled out "clear the road," as boys usually do, but Mr. Kelly, who is very deaf, did not hear them and was unaware of their proximity to him till the slide collided with him and threw him with great force to the ground. He fell in such a manner that his head came in contact with the ice and he was rendered unconscious, while blood flowed freely from an ugly wound in the scalp. Messrs. Kelly and Mullings, of the Customs, who were passing, picked the man up, but the heartless boys did not stop to render assistance and continued on their way. The gentlemen named conveyed him home and calling Dr. Cowperthwaite several stitches were put in the wound. A man named Gerald King, who also saw the accident, thinks he knows the boys, and Inspector Collins and Sergt. Savage are making enquiries into the affair. Kelly was very ill last night, and if the lads who "hurt" him are found they will be prosecuted.

Indigestion & Dyspepsia
In all its forms can be cured. It is quite a daily occurrence to hear persons say: "Oh, what a feeling of distress I have after meals, fullness of the stomach, heaviness and headache, I feel too tired to do anything. I had a sensation of suffocation, and at times I care for nothing. I often have a pain in the pit of my stomach, no appetite, my heart beats rapidly on the slightest exertion. I feel just as if I were rising in the morning as when retiring to bed. My sleep is often disturbed, and I often awake with a sensation of suffocation, and a difficulty of again going to sleep. I have to be careful of what I eat, and my life seems a veritable burden."

Wanted His Pay.
The Husky Jamaican Didn't Care to Work for Nothing.

An English naval officer tells of being on a war vessel which took provisions to St. Kitts, one of the British West India Islands. A hurricane had left many of the inhabitants in a destitute or even starving condition. Hungry crowds gathered at the wharf, but refused to help unload the food that was to be given to them unless paid for their work.

A similar story sheds light on the Jamaican negro. Some years ago a hurricane devastated the island, and a large relief sum was raised, much of it in England and the United States. The committee having charge of this fund sent a wagon load of lumber to a husky black man whose house had been scattered over the parish. He and his family were living in a rude shack made out of odds and ends.

"What's that for?" he asked of the men who were unloading the material in front of his patch of ground.

"That's for your new house," was the reply. "It's from the relief fund and won't cost you anything."

"Who's going to build mah house?" "You are, if anybody does."

"Who's going to pay me fur mah work?"—Waynesboro Record.

Signs of the Times Saved Mary From the Cold Spurt.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—The person who has instinct enough to watch the signs of the times, very often benefits by them. My man came in the other day and he said to me:—"Min, I am very much afraid we are going to have a hard spurt of weather, so-and-so is here and I am afraid we'll see more hard weather this winter than we have for many a year."

"Never mind, Tom," said I, "you know Tory times are hard times, so as you think there is something in the wind we had better prepare for it, so we got in some coal and all the necessaries, and sure enough the next day was a terribly cold one, and all we could do was to keep ourselves warm by the stove. No need to tell you (as editors know everything), that when old age comes on and the blood gets poor, we generally, in fact always, feel the cold. Well, as I was saying the next couple of days was very severe, but Uncle Nath came down to the doctor, poor old Aunt Dina was very sick and he had to come for the doctor. He had a good cup of tea, and you ought to see him as he sat before the stove with the cup in one hand and the saucer in the other, just like the old folk used to do in my young days, and that one action of his brought back a lot of things to my old brain. Our conversation drifted to Governments and their doings, but when I asked him how the people in Shanahar's Bay were now, politically, he nearly went wild. The way the poor people has been treated by the present apology for a Government is something terrible, and, said he, as he slapped his fist on the table, you can bet your bottom dollar they will get no show again."

Yours sincerely,
MARY X X.

Lady Insulted on Patrick Street.

Editor Evening Telegram.
Dear Sir,—Two young ladies going home from the rink Saturday night got out of the street car at the foot of Patrick St. and proceeded up that thoroughfare. When midway up some rough-looking man stopped them and asked them for money. They told him they had none, but he insisted they had; and being refused again caught hold of one of the girls and

Don't Make a Mess Of It

Editor Evening Telegram.

Dear Sir,—In your columns I wish to refer to a piece which appeared in the Plaindealer of Nov. 14th, headed: "Don't Make a Mess of It." Very near two columns is taken up by the editor handled her pretty roughly. The other girl ran up the street calling for help. A gentleman going down Hamilton Street heard the call and ran to the scene. The scamp seeing the man coming made hasty tracks. On the gentleman coming up to the girl he found her lying upon the snow apparently unconscious, but finding she was in safe hands, soon came round and proceeded to her home. Ladies being insulted has become quite frequent in the West End, and it is not safe for a woman to go out after dark without an escort, more especially on a Saturday night, when so many hard cases are seen "scuffling" their way along the streets and lanes. The practice of some of our young girls going to the rink Saturday night is not commendable, as they are exposed to many temptations during their travel home. It would be far better for them to stay at home and attend to their household duties and not leave them till Sunday morning, or for the old lady. Still, if a policeman would give Patrick Street an occasional visit it would not do any harm.

Boy Had Fits For 6 Years
Druggist advised DR. A.W. CHASE'S NERVE FOOD—Cure complete and lasting.

Mrs. J. D. Palmer, 38 Park St., Amsterdam, N. Y., writes: "When six years of age my boy began to have fits. They came on in the night. He would make strange noises, stiffen out, froth at mouth, face would twitch and sometimes turned purple. After the fit he could not talk."

"The family physician said all he could do was to keep them down somewhat. The second physician pronounced the trouble Jeffersonian epilepsy; but could not cure him. He suffered for six years and before beginning the use of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food had three fits in about five days. Our druggist recommended Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food. He has taken seven boxes and has not had the symptom of a fit since. His color has greatly improved; he is not nervous and irritable like he used to be, and we consider his cure complete."

Such results are only obtained by the use of the genuine Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Food—not from imitations or substitutes. 50 cents a box, all dealers or Edmanston, Bates & Co., Toronto.

forewarning the mill owners of this District of the great risk they would be running at Catalina if they allowed mill owners to price their own coeprage lumber. I wish to inform Messrs. Plaindealer & Co. that out of the two score mill owners that he referred to, there are men of common sense enough to be able to settle their own business without the assistance of Mr. Coaker or any of his associates.

And now to place the saddle on the right horse I would inform the above gentlemen that they must be aware that Mr. Coaker, if they know the gent, was flooding this District, and I hear Bonavista District also, with letters of advice calling for a meeting to be held at Clarendon, October 8th or 12th, for the same purpose, which proved a complete failure. This being the case, a few mill owners being in St. John's on business were captured by Coaker and taken to Renouf's building where the all-important meeting took place, that had to be finalized at Catalina, about 60 miles or so from Clarendon where they failed to attend the meeting previously.

In this we see Plaindealer playing the "white feather," and to screen Bro. Coaker, he says to mill owners, "Don't make a mess of it."

No fear of this, Messrs Plaindealer, if you yourself don't make a mess of it.

"Portia" Had a Very Stormy Trip.

Channel because the weather was too thick. The ship lay off in the Gulf till next morning when it cleared up somewhat and enabled Capt. Fitzpatrick to poke her into Channel at 11.30 p.m. Next evening Ramea was reached. Owing to bad weather—a S. E. snow storm—the Portia was kept here all night. Next morning, the snow storm still raging, the Captain got her out and worked up Hermitage Bay to Puskthrough where the Portia lay till 4 a.m. next day. The ship got to Grand Bank at 8 p.m. The storm was raging so fiercely now that an attempt to land the mails and passengers failed, the boat and those in her came near being driven off to sea, and the passengers were glad to get back to the ship and remain there all night. Next morning the wind moderated and the landing was effected without mishap. From Grand Bank on every port was made without undue delay. The ship brought a small freight.

Leaving St. John's on the 10th inst. Capt. Fitzpatrick had a stormy run to Cape Broyle there being a heavy sea and thick fog. From this port right on to Bonne Bay where she arrived on the 16th, the trip was performed without interruption by weather conditions. Leaving the same evening on the home route the run to Bay of Islands was marked by very cold weather and a terrific gale from the N. W. with snow; the mercury went down to zero. Next morning the ship was off Cape Ray, but Capt. Fitzpatrick could not meddle with the land or try for Hack Beat Ordeman.

Milwaukee, Wis., January 18.—Completely exhausted by terrific strain, Henry Ordeman, American wrestling champion, was defeated this morning in a finish wrestling match by George Hackenschmidt, "Russian Lion." First fall came after 2 hours, 37½ minutes of most desperate struggling, while Ordeman, worn out, lost second fall in 2½ minutes. The bout did not conclude until 2 o'clock. Hackenschmidt won only because he had greater endurance. Twice he picked Ordeman up bodily and slammed him to the mat, but each time the latter rolled away. The third time proved too much and Ordeman's shoulders were pinned to the mat. After ten minutes' intermission, the second fall was wrestled, but Ordeman was "all in" and fell readily.

Brings Down Both Men

Policeman Kills One Assailant and Wounds the Other.

Mt. Vernon, N. Y., Jan. 13.—Shot through the base of the spine, Robert Buffalo, a policeman, mastered paralysis to-night long enough to kill the prisoner who was escaping him, and mortally wounded the prisoner's brother, who had attempted a delivery. Then he collapsed, and before he could be removed to the hospital, where he now lies critically ill, complete paralysis set in.

Buffalo was sent to quiet a saloon fight. He arrested Artero Tiso for carrying concealed weapons. Tiso's brother, Alexander, stepped to the saloon door as Artero was led out, and fired. Buffalo stumbled and as he fell Artero broke loose and ran.

But Buffalo, staggering to his feet, pulled his revolver and dropped Alexander Tiso with a bullet through the lungs, below the heart. A second shot struck Artero, who died of the wound shortly afterward.

Still the instinct of duty would not let the indomitable policeman yield to growing numbness. "Here," he said, tossing his revolver to a bystander, "don't let that fellow get away."

Buffalo is 28 years old, married, and has six children. He has been on the Mt. Vernon force two years.
