DIPHTHERIA!

USE STANDARD UNIVERSAL DISINFECTANT FLUID
For Drains, Closets, Sinks, Lavatories, Tender Feet, Washing Dogs, Washing Paint, etc.

Infectious Diseases—Distribute by means of a spray freely over the sick room a weak solution (about 1 oz. fluid to 5 pints water). Bed vessels and other utensils should be thoroughly cleansed with a solution of about 1 part to 10.

All Infected Linen and Clothing should be washed in a solution (1 part in 100), and this can be done without fear of injury to the most delicate fabrics, and with the confident expectation of rendering them thoroughly aseptic.

A Wise Precaution in case of infectious disease is to shut off the sick room by means of a sheet saturated with a solution of about 1 part in 80.

For the Bath—If sufficient fluid to cloud the water be added the effect on the body will be found most exhilarating and refreshing.

For the Foot Bath—A teaspoonful of fluid added to the water will be found most beneficial to those troubled with tender feet. Laundrymen and Others will find that for foul and dirty linen an admixture of fluid sufficient to make the water milky will prevent any noxious vapour arising therefrom.

Gas and Hospitality.

The sound of motor wheels heralding the arrival of unexpected guests has no terrors for the housewife whose menage is run on up-to-date lines. While the visitors are removing the traces of travel, with the hot water which a gas water-heater keeps always "on tap," a match to the gas fire makes the drawing room a place of warmth and pleasantness for their reception; and the children love to "help mother" by toasting the crumpets before the clear and smokeless glow.

The gas cooker (or the modern gas trivet by the drawing rooms gas fire) boils a kettle of water in no time, and within a quarter of an hour after their arrival the guests are enjoying a cosy chat over the cup that cheers. Should they be persuaded to stay, the invaluable cooker makes it possible, even at such short notice, for the experienced housewife, after a raid upon her emergency store cupboard, to set before them a dainty dinner of which no hostess need be ashamed. Gas means ever-ready hospitality.
