More About Those SUITS We Are Selling For

Via the telegraph we closed a deal with an Eastern garment manufacturer for 50 high class suits representing his showroom samples for this season. We bought them like a small boy trades a jack knife on sight, unseen, and we were winners and so will be every woman who participates in this sale. At the time of writing the previous announcement the Costumes had not arrived, so we could say but little about them other than that they were the new season's models and worth to $40.00.

Since then the suits have arrived. Some are now displayed in one of our 8th Avenue windows. Had we chosen 50 models for our regular stock we could not have selected handsomer styles.

It seems a shame to sell such beautiful costumes at such a low figure, not one in the lot worth less than $30.00, many as high as $45.00. The styles and fabrics are the smartest we have shown this season, including our imported novelties. There is such a wide diversity, too, no two costumes alike. The coats are all silk lined and thoroughly tailored. If the purchasing of a costume worth from $30.00 to $45.00, for $19.75 interests you, by all means attend this sale.
