BRIDE'S SAD FATE!

Gown Caught Fire While She Was Curling Her Hair--

Husband Tried Suicide.

New York, Aug. 6.—The wife of Christian Simers, a piano maker, of 620 East One Hundred and Thirtieth street, after accidentally setting fire to her dress Sunday night, jumped from a four-story window and was impaled on an iron picket. She died in the hospital. The husband, crazed by grief, was prevented from jumping from the window himself by Detective O'Brien. Simers was married three months ago. He and his wife had an engagement Sunday night to visit some friends. Mrs. Simers had finished dressing and was curling her hair when she upset a bottle of naphtha near a gas stove. Her husband was in another room, and when he reached her side her flimsy summer gown was afire from head to foot. He grabbed two pillows and tried to smother the flames, but the pillows caught fire. Mrs. Simers ran screaming through the rooms, enveloped in flames, and clutching in one hand a pillow which she had snatched from her husband. Before he could stop her she jumped through a window. An iron railing, with spikes, was in front of the house, and she struck on one of the spikes. Her screams had attracted a number of neighbors, and they carried her to a nearby stoop. An ambulance was called, and she was taken to the Harlem Hospital. She died two hours later.

JOYOUS REUNION OF LONDON'S "OLD BOYS"

Detroit, Chicago and Toronto Close Competitors for the Honor of Having the Largest Delegation.

Unique and Interesting Procession Viewed by Many Thousands of Delighted Spectators.

The Gathering in Victoria Park—Warm Words of Welcome From President Love, Mayor Rumball and Hon. John Carling—Great Rush to Springbank—Model Ball Game—Concert by Combined Bands—Beacon Fires Blazed From the Heights—The Typos' Reception—Demonstration of Rejoicing Continues Throughout Today and Tomorrow.

The Old Boys completely possess the city, and London is glad it is so. No welcome could exceed in sincerity that which was given them yesterday, but no effort was required to make them feel that the citizens were truly happy with them in their return to the old home. The streets were gay with colors, and all day they resounded with music. "A Hot Time in the Old Town" was the band's early morning forecast, and none then knew how exactly it would be fulfilled. The role of rulers became the visitors well, and everybody was perfectly satisfied with the way in which they took over the power so willingly abdicated in their favor. Immense crowds gathered at the railway stations, and upon the streets near by, to welcome the new arrivals, and in this they were assisted by those of the Old Boys, who had already arrived from Cleveland, Detroit, Toronto and other places, who helped with their presence and their bands, to make the reception of the new comers as enthusiastic as possible. When each contingent arrived it was taken in charge by members of the reception committee, and escorted to Victoria Park. It would be quite impossible to say whether Detroit or Toronto succeeded in sending the most Old Boys this year. Hitherto that honor has been held by the association of the great metropolis on Lake Michigan, and would have been theirs again but for the disappointment caused by the railways. In spite, however, of stupendous difficulties, the plucky westerners rose triumphantly from the despair into which they were once cast, and their crowd was splendidly large.

Without Chicago, what would the reunion have been compared with what it is when the irrepressibles from Illinois are present? Think of a London Old Boys' reunion without Billy Small. It is useless to do so, for while Old Boys are in Chicago, and reunions are being held in London, we believe that they will climb over every obstacle and get here. Because, therefore, of having almost to give up the idea of an excursion, Chicago had to yield first place, in point of numbers, to either Detroit or Toronto—it would be hard to say which—but they acknowledged no leader in the matter of pleasure at being here once more nor in enthusiasm while here.

THE BANDS.

The city did miss their band. Every-

Words of Welcome.

MAGISTRATE LOVE.

Mr. Love essayed to speak when several bands were playing, and the contest was a noble one, while it lasted. Finally, however, the musicians got the better of the magistrate and he decided to let the band play on. Fortified by this breathing space, he made another start and maintained a good lead throughout. He was loudly applauded as he commenced to speak. "Ladies and gentlemen," said he, "the most pleasant duty devolves upon me, as the president of the London Old Boys' Association, to again welcome the visiting London Old Boys who have come from their far distant homes to visit their old city and their old friends here. (Cheers.) It affords me the extreme pleasure to do this because the London Old Boys who have come away from this city are a credit to the city they have left, and in the places to which they have gone they have made themselves decent, responsible positions, and we all ought to feel proud for the credit they reflect on the city to which they belong. (Applause.) There is no question about it, that the London Old Boys have succeeded wherever they have gone. There is no question about it that the London (Continued on page 2.)

THE SETTLEMENT

PROTOCOL NOT SIGNED

The Arrangement With China Lacks the Name of the British Minister.

Peking, Aug. 6.—The foreign ministers had arranged to sign the settlement protocol today, but the British minister, Stow, yesterday evening notified his colleagues that Great Britain was unable to sign. He gave no reasons, and the meeting was postponed indefinitely.

London, Aug. 6.—"An American official named Brill, who was recently returned from China, where he has been in government service, has been interviewed here," says the Calcutta correspondent of the Times, "and he asserts there is great activity in the arsenals and factories in Fu Chau, Han Yang, Nankin and Chen Tu, which are turning out smokeless powder and hundreds of rifles daily. He declares also that the No Nansens army is being drilled by Germans and Japanese.
