But, while allies were lacking for the actress, succor for Miss Epstein was forthcoming. Manager Roach, of the Bijou suddenly appeared as a reserve flank movement, succeeded in catching and disarming the Crescy battalion. When Miss Epstein had escaped safely from the scene of averted combat she proceeded to take legal adice. After consultation with Attorney Marks and Henry Weil she secured warrants from Justice Everett last night, charging Miss Crescy with making threats to kill and with disorderly conduct. At a late hour a constable adventured out into the night to serve writ on the "To Die at Dawn" star. Miss Crescy is a daughter of R. L. Crescy, a life insurance agent at 701 Chamber of Commerce building. She said last night. "I did not want to kill her. A messenger from the north reports Liao Yang were recently arrested by the Russians and charged with furnishing supplies and information to the enemy. They were taken to Mukden, but released after an investigation. Influential natives clare that the arrests were made not because the Russians believed they could prove the charges, but becaus the magistrates were non-committa and refused to aid either side. The Russians are printing a news paper in Chinese at Mukden for the purpose of influencing the natives.
