MISS NETHERSOLE HELPS

Special Matinees for Benefit of Oid London's Unemployed.

Toronto, Nov. 14.-Miss Olga Nethersole, who arrived in Toronto yesterday morning and read of Queen Alex-andra's subscription of $10,000 towards and they made known their satisfac-London's unemployed and her appeal for funds to her subjects, decided to Germany. One of the leading Austrian papers, for instance, says: "No more than Macbeth will Lansdowne be able to purge from his raiment the stain for which he has to thank his French friend and accomplice, Delcasse, Lans-downe played with the awful idea of a double war which might have grown into a universal war. That is the stigma from which he will never be able to rid himself, and no denial will prevent the memory of Delcasse from fastening upon him this idea, and drawing him down in company with a blinded and criminal disturber of the peace, from whom his own people shrank in horror as it learned of the nameless woe which he was about to perpetrate. This is said to have been inspired by Prince Von Buelow, and the Times declares it to be the beginning of a campaign for the removal of Lord Lansdowne from the foreign office here, in the same way as M. Delcasse was driven from the Quat l'Orsay. In JOHN TOM-LAUNDRY, 8121/2 DUNDAS. that now pervades Great Britain, high and low, it begins to look more like an attempt to really strengthen the position of Lord Lansdowne, and it is not conceivable that the German chancellor could be so stupid as to imagine that it could have any other effect, once its origin is supposed to be German

IT RETAINS OLD AND MAKES NEW FRIENDS.—Time was when Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil had but a small field of distribution, but now its territory is widespread. Those who first recognized its curative qualities still value it as a speci-fic, and while it retains its old friends it ever making new. It is certain that hoever once uses it will not be without it.

LAMBTON FOR PARDEE

tion in no uncertain way. West Lambton, he said, has had her share of elections. There is no one in the whole of Lambton who does not deplore deeply the occasion of the bye-election. He paid a glowing tribute to Dr. Johnston the last of a line of great men who had done great things for Lambton, and the country. None had served the constituency better than Dr. Johnston. We now have an opportunity of showing our appreciation of Dr. Johnston, to the Government to which he belonged. There are no new issues. Lambton heard the great questions discussed, and in the last year there has nothing happened that would cause the Conservative party to ask the people of Lambton or any other constituency to throw out the Laurier Government. The great prosperity has continued, and the future is rose-

Pessimistic Tupper. He spoke of the pessimistic utterances of Sir Charles Tupper in 1896. These prophecies have not been fulfilled, but, on the contrary, the deficits disappeared and in their place came surpluses and prosperity. The Conservatives saw that in every year since 1896 the country has been prosperous, and they then claimed that the Liberal party had stolen their policy. It was the national policy dressed up. But it is not. We have done those things by our own policy, and today the Government is holding a commission all over Canada to inquire into the tariff. We are of the people, and for the people and by the people, and what the people say we will do. Mr. Pardee then entered into the possibilities and resources of the country, and said it only remained for the people to give a good and strong government, and then Canada will becomone of the great nations of the world We must put good men in power. We must look at the men in a broad and patriotic way. Not from a partisan standpoint. A progressive and strong government should not be turned out. unless for something of great importance. He dealt with the Conservative opposition to the Grand Trunk Pacific will do more as an all-Canadian road, to bind the nation, than any other single cause. The four great criterions of prosperity are that the trade is increasing, that the revenues are growing, that the vacant lands are being taken up, and that the agriculturalists are prosperous. Mr. T. C. Robinette was given great reception on beginning his peech. He was very much struck with the imperialistic tone of Mr. Cowan's speech. He liked the imperial note. It marked the beginning of Canada as a He liked to hear it sounded in every speech. That was the keynote of the constitutional government we enjoy today. There never was such interest shown over Canada in Britain as today. The question of the food supply of the world is being discussed with an interest of which scarcely conceive, and Canada is being thought of and talked over as neve before. Young men, members of Parliament, were coming out from Eng out to see the world's granary. That it is such is no idle dream.
