MERGER OF TANNERIES IS NOW TALKED OF

Nothing Known of the Project at Hyman's—A Story From Toronto.

Toronto, April 20.-A merger of all the important tanneries of Ontario and Quebec is the latest plan of a group of Montreal brokers, who have recently devoted considerable attention to that phase of finance. Up to the present, so far as bringing local tanners into the merger is concerned, their plans have not met with success.

Joseph Dalson, of the Muncey Reserve, Bound Over to Keep Peace.

For an expounder of the gospel Joseph Dolson's conduct is very peculiar. He is an Indian from the Muncey Reserve, and is known as a local preacher. This morning he was charged before Squire Chittick with a variety of things. It was said he threatened to do away with himself, and also issued sundry threats about shooting his wife and neighbor, Scobie Logan, and in fact got out the gun to do the deed with.

Such a rumpus did he cut up that the police were telephoned for, and Constable Shaver went out last night and brought him in. Dolson's wife appeared and gave testimony against him, saying that she was afraid of him. The case came up at 11 o'clock, and was adjourned until 1:30. Dolson was finally bound over to keep the peace

ESTEEMED LADY DEAD

Mrs. John J. Harrison, of Simcoe Street, Passed Away Yesterday. Mrs. John J. Harrison, a respected esident of this city, died at the home quate her son, E. W. Harrison, 537 Simand Eliza Anderson, was born on the sionary 1th concession of London Township on March 26, 1834, and moved with the family into the village of London when ten years of age, and had resided here ever since, with the exception of about fifteen years, which she spent in Buf falo, N. Y., returning to this city about four years ago.

She was predeceased 23 years agby her husband, the late John J. Harison, who was councillor of London, hen Simeon Mortill was town mayor also by her sons, Harry, who was drowned in the Victoria disaster, and John J., better known as Jack, who died in Buffalo Feb. 12, 1897. She is survived by her son, Edward W., of his city, and her sisters, Mrs. John W. Claris and Mrs. David H. Parker, Buffalo.

In her early days she became an aderent of the old North Street Methodist Church, and later with the Methdist Episcopal Church. About 35 years ago she became connected with the Brethren, and had since remained a consistent member of that body. Unostentatious in her ways, she passes away, dearly beloved by those who knew her. The services will be conducted at her late residence Friday
