presidential possibilities would have been complete.

The Senate's opening was sedate at usual. And while the leadership of the upper branch of Congress remains in Republican hands, the change in the personnel of those assuming command was almost as marked as in the House itself. Aldrich, Hale, Beveridge and a dozen of the majority were missed.

PLANS TO MAKE

BROADWAY GASP

New York, April 5 .- "My! but Laure and I will make the rubbernecks sit up and take notice all right," said Mrs. Henry B. Harris, wife of the theatrical manager, who, with her husband and Laura Guerite, returned today from s menth's tour of Europe.

latest thing in the harem skirt," she continued, "and we are going to wear it on the first pleasant day. We'll make Broadway gasp,"

Miss Guerite went into ecstasies describing the creation to a man. This is what he made out of what she gurgied:

"The skirt, from and back, reaches to the shorters. On the side, treaches

"The skirt, front and back, reaches to the shoetops. On the side there is a slit like the directoire effect, and the trousers, which are fastened about the ankles, are exposed to view."

Mrs. Harris had on her new skirt, but the slit in the side was closed by a piece of silk. The ladles wore something new in the headgear line, which had a Nepoleonic effect in front, but there was allest to expect which he there was allest to expect the side of th which had a Napoleonic effect in front, but there was a list to starboard which shuts out one eye, making the wearer use only the port optic.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris went abroad for rest, but they made their stay profitable, as Harris managed to take down $2.000 of the money at Monte Carlo, while his wife's winnings are considerably greater.
