GIVES LONDON WIN OVER HAMS

London Shortstop's Hitting Was Main Factor in Yesterday's Game-He Hit a Homer With One on in the Third-Steiger Was Taken Out in the Seventh, and Hammond Finishes the Game.

CANADIAN LEAGUE NOTES

[Special to The Advertiser.] HAMILTON, Ont., June 23.-A rather weird exhibition of baseball this afternoon was won by London 8 to 5 in 10 innings. The league leaders seemed to have the game tied up in the first few sessions, but Steiger weakened and Hammond, who relieved him when the bases were filled, forced two runs, tying the score.

London Won in Tenth. took an extra inning to decide the conflict. London was strong in the pinches, driving three counters across the plate es, driving three counters across the plate in the tenth. Twenty hits were registered altogether. London collecting 14 of them from Bill Donohue. The locals had four errors while they made but six hits. A home run, three three baggers and a double by London, and a triple by the locals provided the sensation.

Whitcraft's Double Settles It.

In the tenth, Bierbauer went out and Reisling was hit on the pitching arm. Long ran for him. The London manager was struck on the muscle and may be out of the game a few days. Lamy beat out a bunt, as did Reidy, and Whitcraft registered a two sacker, scoring two runs, Snyder's single put Whitcraft on third, and Mullin's single scored him.

Bierbauer had a three bagger? which he tried to stretch into a homer, but was caught at the plate.

CINCINNATI'S LEADER, BUCK HERZOG, SENSATION OF BASEBALL, IS THE COMING KING OF MANAGERS

By Hugh S. Fullerton.

"Buck" Herzog is the sensation of baseball. From the offcast of the Giants, he became the leading spirit of Boston, only to be brought back to the Glants. Deposed by McGraw as a regular, and resenting it, he became manager of the lowly Reds, and by his grit and energy and brains he has lifted them toward the top and is now battling to drag McGraw out of first place.

The success of Herzog this season demonstrates the necessity of having brains at the head of the club. No manager of recent years—not even Chance when he took the Yankees—has faced a harder task than did Herzog. He is young. He never had managed a ball club. He had wretched by the standard of the color of the color of the color of the color of the club. ed material, and took over a disorgantized, loafing, careless club. Through things about McGraw's management years of mismanagement the Reds had in which he did not believe. McGraw the control of the control come to consider themselves the joke himself. Last winter he travelled ones, even if they conflicted with those more than 20,000 miles hunting players of McGraw. His efforts to work them for his own use-digging them up. He out on the ball field this year offer knew that the success of all managers the most interesting study of the sea-lies in finding men who will play ball as directed. He sought intelligent

Then Herzog assumed charge. He was met at once by the active or passive opposition of the old guard and the usual "knocking" within the of-ficial family. When I saw the team, at Alexandria, Herzog was in the saddie. He was riding the loafers at top speed. He knew just who were dangerous men, just which players would make trouble, and which ones merely had fallen into careless habits. He was determined to tame the trouble-makers and to inspire the real players to work. But he was depend-ing more upon the boys he had found than upon the others to make the spirit of the team.

Herzog is square, is brainy, is a hustler and a fighter. There were things about McGraw's management wants to do all the thinking for his team, and Herzog wanted to think for himself. It was bad. No one can blame McGraw for getting rid of him.

Off to a bad start, he rallied his men. He has kept them working and kept them thinking. It is not a strong team, either in pitching or in attack but it is hustling, working, and thinking all the time. I watched it beat

Pittsburg two games, when the triumph was due entirely to outthinking the Pirates.

He has developed Von Kolnitz, Rawlings, and Niehoff into very effective men. He has taught his pitcher a lot. One of them, a veteran of many years, told me that he had learned more about pitching under Herzog than he ever did in his career. Herzog has a team that ranks fiffth or sixth on strength, and it is playing the best ball in the league. If he is perwill continue to play good ball. Herzog has made a place for him-

PETERBORO, June 23.—Nickell, the latest addition to Rube Deneau's pitching staff, was a soft proposition for the Petes today, and the homesters made it two straight from the Brants, winning easily by 8 to 3. The Petes found Nickell for fourteen hits, including three doubles and a triple, while they ran bases well, getting five steals. Outside of the sixth and ninth innings, Schettler was a puzzle to the Brants.

All the Runs Were Made in First Two Innings-Kane Only Lasted One Inning.

[Special to the Advertiser.] TORONTO, June 23.—Over-eagerness on the part of Manager Lee cost the Beavers their chance to tie Ottawa in the ninth inning of today's game at the island stadium. At that time the score stood 3 to 2, with Ottawa possessing the odd run. Killilea, with three and two on him, offered at a wide ball and struck out. Trout then lined a hit over third base, which Wagner allowed to get away from him after the ball had caromed off the left field bleachers. If handled right it would only have been a two-base hit. Kirley was on the mound for the locals, but was removed in the eighth to allow Moseley to bat for him. ST. THOMAS. June 23.—Inability to hit with men on bases, was the chief cause of the Saints losing today's game, the second straight, to Erie, by the score of 3 to 1. Midge Craven's club is suffering a batting slump at present, and in the last three games has only made six hits. Morse the Erie youngster, held them to two blows today, both hits coming in the third inning and resulting in the only run the home team scored.

Howick pitched a good game for the locals, but he had a couple of bad innings. Hadley's error was a costly one, as it let in two runs. Had this not occurred, the teams might have been playing yet. Morse was in grand form, on the other hand, and he was a complete puzzle to the locals. After the third inning only one St. Thomas man reached second base.
