

NOTE INCREASE SCHOOL SALARIES $24,000

MAJOR CHESHAM ADMITS WIFE WAS NOT NOTIFIED

D. S. C. R. Official Asserts It Was Unfortunate Mrs. Wm. J. Thompson Was Unable To Attend Her Husband's Funeral.

STRAIGHTENED CIRCUMSTANCES TO BLAME

Mrs. Thompson, of 121 D'Arcy street, Toronto, widow of the late Pte. William J. Thompson, whose body is lying in the vault at Mount Pleasant Cemetery, was not notified until February, ten weeks after the body was placed in the vault, that interment had not been made.

"As a matter of fact I don't think Mrs. Thompson was notified," Major E. N. Chesham stated. "We did not think it was of sufficient importance. Other people of ours were there awaiting burial. It is unfortunate that Mrs. Thompson was unable to attend the funeral."

When Thompson's death occurred on Dec. 5, Mrs. Thompson instructed the authorities at Byron Sanatorium to bury her husband in the soldiers' plot at Mount Pleasant Cemetery.

Under Wrong Impression. Statements were made by Mrs. Thompson to the effect that she received a wire from the authorities here that her husband would be buried in the soldiers' plot, unless she desired other arrangements be made. Major Snelgrove, of Byron Sanatorium, declares Mrs. Thompson must have been under a wrong impression, that she apparently believed, that her husband would be buried in the soldiers' plot.

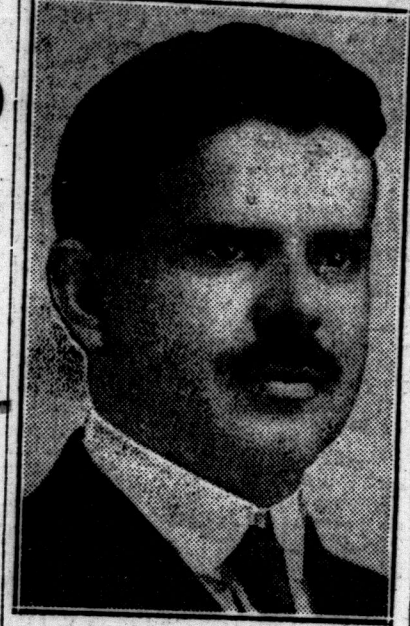

However, as her husband's eligibility for treatment at the sanatorium was under discussion at the time he died, as he was a civilian patient at the time he died, the authorities could not bury him in the plot, unless Mrs. Thompson signed an agreement to pay for a regulation headstone, or unless the authorities at Ottawa, who were investigating the matter, decided Thompson's death was due to disability received in the service.

Final decision in the case was not given by the Ottawa authorities until Feb. 5. Mrs. Thompson, who was apparently laboring under the impression her husband had been buried, was not notified until this date, that her husband's body was still in the vault.

Could Not Attend Funeral. On account of the destitute circumstances in which she found herself at the time of her husband's death, Mrs. Thompson could not afford to come to London to attend the funeral. The D. S. C. R. unit in London was authorized by the head office to spend $100 to give the 97th Battalion veteran decent burial. Fifty-five dollars has already been used.

In view of the fact that Mrs. Thompson was unable to attend the funeral, we attempted to give him a good funeral as possible. Major Chesham asserted, "We engaged the R. G. R. band and a gun carriage." A letter to Mrs. Thompson, reviewing the circumstances of the case, since Thompson was admitted as a civilian on June 17, 1922, Mrs. Thompson was informed $45 was still available for burial expenses, and that if Mrs. Thompson desired, her husband could be buried in the soldiers' plot, which would cost $12, or that he could be buried in Toronto or any other place, without expense to her. If the place of burial would not be distant that transportation would be at the balance of funeral expenses on hand.

Mrs. Thompson has been requested to forward an early reply, expressing her wishes in the matter.

W. P. NEAR, of St. Catharines, Ont., who announces that he will accept an offer from the city of London to be city engineer at a salary of $5,000.

SPECIAL SUPERVISORS GUIDE OSGOOD HALL

Government Appoints Committee To Take Charge of School of Law.

Special to The Advertiser. Toronto, Feb. 17.—The Osgood Hall reorganization, authorized by the attorney-general's department, provides that a supervising committee of three shall have charge of the school of law. The committee will be composed of Charles Garrow, of Ontario; the new senior registrar, Edmund Harley, and the inspector of legal officers for Ontario, J. W. Mallon, G.C.

While George S. Holmsted, K.C., in his 82nd year, will be superannuated March 1, as senior registrar at Osgood Hall, he will remain as registrar-in-bankruptcy.

Mr. Holmsted received the bankruptcy appointment from the chief justice under a dominion act, and therefore he will continue to act until some other change is made.

Osgood Hall, to the uninitiated is a place where a change is out of place. The fact of the matter is that the hall has been changing radically in the last decade or so.

Even longer ago than that, the records show, "something new" happened. When George M. Lee, now junior registrar, went to the writ of habeas corpus, he introduced a system that made the dry bones of law. That was years ago, but it was a success. Telephones became general, too, and eventually an elevator was installed. It had its ups and downs, but the most radical change of the modern and picturesque stairway.

The Snomish said she expected to remove the remainder of the crew today. The Tuscany, one of the vessels wrecked in the recent storm was reported pounding on Village Point, Barkley Sound.

Special to The Advertiser. Seattle, Wash., Feb. 17.—Fourteen of the forty-three members of the crew of the British steamer Tuscany, wrecked on the west coast of Vancouver Island during the Pacific storm, have been rescued by the revenue cutter Snomish, according to a radio from the latter vessel early today.

The Snomish said she expected to remove the remainder of the crew today. The Tuscany, one of the vessels wrecked in the recent storm was reported pounding on Village Point, Barkley Sound.

Special to The Advertiser. St. Catharines, Ont., Feb. 17.—City Engineer W. P. Near stated to The Advertiser today that he would accept an offer from London to be city engineer at a salary of $5,000, which is $1,500 more than he receives here. He has been a captain to the city of St. Catharines for ten years ago.

Special to The Advertiser. Harrisburg, Pa., Feb. 17.—An equal rights bill that upsets the act of 1884, which provides that women cannot be arrested and placed in jail for the non-payment of taxes, day by Representative Jefferson W. Smith, Philadelphia.

The bill amends the act of 1879, which authorizes cities of the first class to levy and fix a tax rate for extending the method of collecting delinquent taxes.

Special to The Advertiser. Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 17.—The government has recovered $90,000, $200,000 Denver mint robbery two months ago, it was made known today, when details of a scheme to outfit members of a gang of bank robbers in the city of Denver were revealed.

In the case which tricked the crooks and securities valued at $80,000, obtained by bandits who robbed the Hamilton County Bank here of $265,000 last September, were also recovered.

Postoffice inspectors, private detectives and bank officials collaborated in the recovery.

17 DEAD AFTER BLIZZARD. Associated Press Despatch. St. Paul, Minn., Feb. 17.—At least 17 persons lost their lives in the northwest as a result of Thursday's blizzard and the following cold spell, according to figures compiled here. Six persons in Minnesota, five in Saskatchewan, three in South Dakota and three in North Dakota.

Jewish Lad Taken by Death, Wills All To Tiny Patients. Dearly Beloved Bathrobe, Toys and Money of Little Sufferer Distributed Among Children at Victoria Hospital.

Unselfishness and consideration for others has been strikingly illustrated by the death of Isaac Zimmerman, 13-year-old Jewish boy, who passed away at Victoria Hospital last Sunday after a lengthy illness. By the last wish of this little sufferer, all his toys and a bath robe which he prized greatly, have been distributed to other children who are patients in the hospital.

In addition, Isaac wished that all the money in his possession at the hospital when he died, which amounted to approximately $8, be utilized in purchasing books for the young patients at the institution whom he numbered as his friends, and who mourn his death.

An account of the sufferings and cheerful fight against death of this 13-year-old martyr was published in The Advertiser last Monday.

ORDER SHIP TO CAPE JUBY. Associated Press Despatch. Cadix, Spain, Feb. 17.—The Spanish cruiser Reina Regente was ordered to Cape Juby, opposite the Canary Islands, where a number of Nomad tribes are reported to be in revolt.

TOTAL SURRENDER OF THE GERMANS IS ONLY SOLUTION

France Sends Note to Great Britain Today, Outlining Her Stand.

REFUSE MEDIATION. Communication Said To Be the Result of Lord Curzon's Speech.

Special Cable to The Advertiser. Paris, Feb. 17.—Total surrender of the Germans is the only solution of the Paris problem acceptable to France, according to a note sent to Great Britain today, The Journal said.

The note, couched in the most precise terms, stated France would not admit it possible for an ally to pretend to the part of foreign minister Curzon's speech in the House of Lords, that Germany was definitely decided to accept an intervention, and the only solution is complete submission of Germany to the French plans for collecting reparations.

The Journal said the note was sent as a result of foreign minister Curzon's speech in the House of Lords, referring to possible British mediation.

WILL WITHDRAW TROOPS. Special Cable to The Advertiser. London, Feb. 17.—Premier Bonar Law has told M. Le Troquer, French minister of public works that Great Britain will withdraw her troops from the Rhine, if France so requests, according to today's morning newspapers.

The real danger in connection with British withdrawal is that such action would be followed by another application for intervention, a Brussels despatch in the Daily News declares.

ESSEN MAYOR HEAVILY FINED. Associated Press Despatch. Essen, Feb. 17.—Vice Lord Mayor Schaefer of Essen, who was tried by the Essen court-martial, charged with not supplying automobiles and coal for the troops, contended that the government to which he owed allegiance, had forbidden him fulfilling such orders. He was sentenced to two years in jail and a fine of 10,000 marks.

The French imposed this fine yesterday as punishment for interference with the supply of electricity to the Kaiserhof Hotel, the French headquarters, and at the same time sentenced Oberhauser, three years imprisonment.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Pharaoh's Tomb Thought Richest Ever Uncovered. Gold and Precious Stones, Chariots and Ornaments Valued in Millions.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered. Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions. But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

PHARAOH'S TOMB THOUGHT RICHEST EVER UNCOVERED

Gold and Precious Stones, Chariots and Ornaments Valued in Millions.

Associated Press Despatch. New York, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

Royal furniture, garments, chariots, ornaments, works of art, rare beauty, no exquisite workmanship, already have been found in unprecedented quantities in the outer chamber of Tutankamen's tomb. The funeral equipment, much of it heavily encrusted with gold and semiprecious stones, is valued in the millions.

But treasures of greater value, in the eyes of the Egyptologists—bits of historical data of the era antedating Christ by thirteen and a half centuries—are hoped for when the hieroglyphic inscriptions within the tomb itself have been translated.

One of the most fascinating theories of the records in the tomb may confirm or explode it, that advanced by Arthur Weigall, former inspector general of the local engineering department, and one of the best known Egyptologists, that Tutankamen was the Pharaoh who oppressed the children of Israel, and whose army, pursuing the Israelites at the time of exodus, is declared in Biblical accounts to have been swallowed up in the Red Sea.

Associated Press Despatch. London, Feb. 17.—The tomb of Pharaoh Tutankamen, opened by explorers yesterday in the Valley of the Kings near Luxor, is by far the richest treasure trove ever uncovered in the necropolis of ancient Thebes, and in all likelihood is the richest that ever will be discovered.

Amrose Lansing, acting curator of the Egyptian section of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, declared today.

Tombs of practically all the early rulers of Egypt have been accounted for, most of them thoroughly looted by native grave robbers, said Mr. Lansing.

MOLDERS REFUSE TO RESUME WORK WITH NO INCREASE

Secretary of the Vulcan Works States Slack Times Necessitated Layoff.

SAYS WAGES FAIR. John Fraleigh Declares Pay Is Lowest Paid to Men in City.

According to announcement made by Secretary Wray of the Vulcan Iron Works this afternoon, members of the committee representing the molders, who demand a thirty-three and a third increase in wages at the above factory, offered in conference with the employers today to cut this demand to ten per cent. No settlement was reached, however, as the firm did not agree to this reduction. Negotiations will be resumed next week, said Mr. Wray, pointing out that there is no work to be done anyway, and that there is no urgent demand for a settlement.

Following a demand for an increase in wages of thirty-three and a third per cent, issued by eleven molders employed at the Vulcan Iron Works, these men have been laid off, and that there is no work for them during a slack period. While both employees and employers declare there is no strike, John Fraleigh, a member of the union molders' committee, stated this morning that the men will not return to work until they receive a reply to their demand for increased wages.

The molders set Friday as the date on which a reply to their demand was to be received. Wednesday night the eleven men were off, and W. E. Wray, secretary of the Vulcan Iron Works, informed the Advertiser this morning that this action was necessitated by slack times, and is not concerned with the demand for increased pay. In the meantime, an answer to the demand has not been given to the union workers, although John Fraleigh, representing the molders, is now conferring with their former employers, and an early settlement of difficulties is expected.

Laid Off Eleven Men. "We laid off eleven men Wednesday afternoon," said F. E. Wray, representing the Vulcan Iron Works, this morning. "The molders' union cause there was no work for them. Two weeks ago the molders demanded an increase in wages of thirty-three and a third per cent, and wanted an answer by the end of the week. We laid them off until there is more work."

"It has been attempted to make out that this is a lockout because of the demand, but there is no lockout. We have no work for these molders, but will have soon. The molders' union has not demanded this increase from other foundries of London, although our scale of wages compares favorably with those paid in the other foundries."

"We have always used our men right," continued the secretary, "and we will continue to do so. We hope to settle this amicably, and if we had lots of work to do, we would pay higher wages. Our molders draw more money in the aggregate than any molders in the city."

May Get Increase. Regarding the increase demanded, Mr. Wray declined to commit his employers, but intimated that there "might be some increase." He stated that his firm was willing to take the molders back when the work picks up, but admitted that no answer had yet been made to the molders' demands.

Direct contradiction to Secretary Wray's statement that his firm paid wages favorably compared to other London foundries was made by the sending the Molders' Union, and in the presence of the Advertiser.

"We do not call this a lockout," he said, "because to call it a lockout brings in a lot of other people who are not doing any work. We are waiting to see what they are going to do, and four of us have out-of-town jobs to go to in ten or fifteen hours. We get 60 cents an hour at the Vulcan Iron Works."

Wray must have an answer before we come in to work again. Before the men will come back until then. The men set the date for the answer. The Vulcan Iron Works pays the lowest wages to molders in town, and that is the trouble here. Mr. Wray gave their molders a 16 per cent increase on special jobs, and a 23 per cent increase on the whole."

John Priest and Edward Johns, also members of the molders' special committee, corroborated these statements.

Will Try To Unseat Reeve Elected Twice This Year. George Cooper Petty Enters Action Against Owen Geiger of the Village of Hensall.

Canadian Press Despatch. Toronto, Feb. 17.—From the village of Hensall comes an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks to unseat Owen Geiger, who has twice this year been elected reeve of the village. The quo warranto proceedings have reached Osgood Hall, and the master of the village is an extraordinary record of municipal politics, as a result of which George Cooper Petty seeks