Don't miss Mrs. Jarley. Buy your Axes at Shipley's. Large stock, low prices.

It costs money to advertise in the Monitor, but it costs more money to keep goods until they become stale.

A company has been formed at Yarmouth for the manufacture of peat as fuel, and working operations will commence shortly.

The new dominion parliament has been summoned to meet on January 11th, and on the 12th Earl Grey, Governor-General of Canada, will deliver the speech from the throne.

The program of the Variety Entertainment of Monday evening next in this town. Those who enjoy the humorous will be especially pleased, as the fun-making element predominates.

The game of basket ball played between Laurentown and Bridgetown teams last Thursday evening in the Y. M. C. A. hall here resulted in favor of Bridgetown with a score of 7-4.

Afternoon what parties are very popular with Bridgetown ladies as social diversions this fall. Mrs. Edwin Ruggles and Mrs. Miss Lloyd very pleasantly entertained their friends in this manner on recent occasions.

—If your life is well insured, and it probably is, do it safely and well. You can be sure of "positive protection" and good returns in the Manufacturers' Life. For information apply to O. P. Goucher, Agent, Middleton.

The sixty-third birthday of Canada's premier occurred on the 20th inst., his age and the date of his birth being very nearly coincident with that of King Edward. Sir Wilfrid, accompanied by Lady Laurier, leaves this week for a trip to Halifax.

Mrs. F. L. Miller and O. S. Miller, barristers, and Miss Annie Chute and Mr. Fred Stone, all of Bridgetown, were in Annapolis on Friday, says the Spectator, probating the will of the late Miss Chute, who died at about the end of last winter.

—It is suggested that the Victoria Cross, owned by the late William Hall, Avonport, should be sold for the benefit of a blind sister of the hero, that is now deprived of the means of her support. Lord Minto suggested that the Nova Scotia Historical Society should purchase it for a good round sum.

—A fifteen-year-old girl, named Ruby Ferguson, drank carbolic acid at her sister's home in Carleton, N. B., last week, and died from the effects. A dispatch states that her father lives at Port George, while another report locates him at Granville Ferry. Temporary insanity is supposed to be the cause of the suicide.

—A meeting of the Bridgetown Agricultural Society will take place in the office of the secretary on Saturday evening, the 26th inst. As matters of importance will be discussed, it is requested that all members should be present. O. S. MILLER, Secy.

—Thanksgiving Day was duly observed here by suspension of business and church services, and the day was passed quietly. A number of family reunions took place, many taking advantage of the excursion rates on the D. A. R. in going or coming for the purpose. The disagreeable weather made the family frolics the more attractive.

—Successful moose hunters are not going far from home these days to procure their game. Messrs. Louis Ricketson and Parker Whitman left their homes at 7 o'clock last Friday, and by 3 o'clock in the afternoon had shot two cow moose and had them dressed. The animals were killed near Birch Hill Lake, about five miles from town.

Save dollars by laying in your Fertilizers for 1905 now. Read John Hall's ad. this issue.

—Try a Meat Chopper that costs one dollar—once used, always used. R. SHIPLEY.

—Mrs. J. F. Saunders, who formerly kept a millinery store in Digby, died on Wednesday last at the home of Mr. S. N. Jackson, Clarence, very suddenly of hemorrhage of the stomach.

—Annapolis was gaily decorated on Wednesday last, says the Spectator, in honor of the wedding of Miss Mary Bishop, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Stanford Bishop, to Mr. Bertram Leary, of Weymouth. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Mr. Whitman, pastor of the Baptist Church, took place at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Leary will reside in Lynn.

—Spectator—The S. S. Dordogne completed her cargo of apples and sailed for Hull, England, at 3.30 Saturday, the 12th inst., giving her time to get clear of the coast before Monday's gale. She carried 2007 bbls. of apples, mostly red varieties, of which Baldwin formed a large part. Highly colored fruit stands the best chance in the market at present, on account of the lack of color of the English apples which are still plentiful.

—The explosion of a cooking stove, and narrow escape from serious consequences, occurred at the home of the Salvation Army officers in the Murdoch tenement block one day recently. The stove was a second hand one which had been just set up, and the occupants, who are young women, were engaged in getting dinner when the explosion occurred. Fortunately no one was near enough to be struck by the flying fragments, and the only damage was a slight scorching of the floor and a rug. It was learned that the cause of the explosion was a bottle of gun-powder which had been tucked away in the unused stove for safe keeping.
