IMPROVEMENTS ON GRANVILLE STREET EAST

There are several improvements being made on both sides of Granville Street East, among the most noticeable being the trimming up of the trees, the removal of the fence and the removal of the old building. The new building, which is being erected by Mr. E. Banks, is a two-story building, and is being erected on the site of the old building. The new building is being erected by Mr. E. Banks, and is being erected on the site of the old building. The new building is being erected by Mr. E. Banks, and is being erected on the site of the old building.

THE BRIDGETOWN TENNIS AND QUOT CLUB

The annual meeting of the Bridgetown Tennis and Quot Club was held in the Board of Trade Rooms on Wednesday evening last. A large number of the members was present, which would indicate that a great interest will be taken in these favorite sports this summer. The secretary's report was a very satisfactory one and after paying a deficit carried over from 1918, there was in the hands of the treasurer one hundred dollars. The following officers were elected: President Fred R. Fay, Vice President Harry McKenzie, Secty. & Treasurer A. F. Little, Managing Committee Union A. Lloyd, Alexander Fowler and Max Young, Chairman of the Social and Tea Committee, Miss Ethel Daniels.

BRIDGETOWN'S NEW FIRM

Miss Minnie Buckler and Miss Eva Daniels, for more than a dozen years clerks with the late J. W. Beckwith, have leased the store in the Royal Bank building formerly occupied by Mr. Walter Scott, "The Keon Kutter" and will open to morrow a dry and fancy goods establishment which will compare favorably with any other similar stores in our town. They have arranged for a large advertising space in the MONITOR, both are very popular with the buying public in Bridgetown and vicinity and we predict for them a successful business career and feel sure they have the best wishes of a host of friends in their new enterprise.

SUPREME COURT

The Supreme Court opens in Bridgetown Tuesday, June 15th, the Criminal cases to be dealt with by the Grand Jury are as follows:

- (1) The King vs Mader (Charge of Indecent Assault).
- (2) King vs Wilkins (Carnal knowledge of girl under fourteen years of age).
- (3) The King vs Everson (Charge of murder).
- (4) The King vs Givim (Charge of Perjury).
- (5) The King vs Daniels (Charge of theft of a cow).
- (6) The King vs Spurr (Charge of theft of a fox skin).

WILL CROSS THE CONTINENT IN AN OVERLAND

The Berwick Register says: Messrs W. O. Blich and M. Nichols arrived home from Boston on Saturday, bringing with them a new Overland car of which Mr. Nichols is the owner. Mr. and Mrs. Nichols and son will leave in the course of a few weeks for Los Angeles, Cal. where they intend making their future home. They plan to make the entire trip by car. Mr. Nichols selected this "Overland" after looking over almost every other make and says the car was thoroughly tested out over all kinds of "mumms" in Massachusetts, before he purchased it.

PROMOTED TO A RESPONSIBLE POSITION

Mr. Jacob W. Gesner, a brother of Mr. Arthur Gesner, of Belleisle, and Mrs. Landale Hall, Beaconfield, has been promoted to assistant master mechanic of the White Mountain Division and North End of Southern Division of the Boston & Maine Railroad with offices at Concord, N. H. We are always pleased to hear of Annapolis county boys' success and we congratulate Mr. Gesner on his promotion to such a responsible position.

SALVATION ARMY DRIVE

The Salvation Army's Jubilee Self Denial Campaign begins Saturday, May 15th, and continues until Saturday, May 22nd. Mr. V. W. Lloyd, of Bridgetown, has been appointed chairman for this town and the entire Annapolis County. We notice that the campaign has had no newspaper advertising in this vicinity while it has been given a lot of publicity elsewhere.

WELL PLEASED WITH THE WORK

Set. Maj. Inst. Jackson, of the Royal Canadian Regiment, Halifax instructor in cadet work and physical training, inspected the Bridgetown cadets last Friday and was very much pleased with both their marching and drill. In an interview with the MONITOR Set. Maj. Jackson said the local company was a credit to the town and also a credit to their young instructor, William Gill.

The grand display of hand work at Buckler & Daniels cannot be found in any city store. Do not miss seeing it.

Local Happenings

Chief Police Gill made two seizures Saturday under the N. S. Temperance Act.

The Watering Cart made its appearance on the streets Friday morning for the first time this season.

Mr. James Walker, of Carleton Corner, caught a trout, weighing two pounds last Saturday, above the Power House Dam.

The regular meeting of the G. W. V. A. will be held in the G. W. V. A. room Ruggles building Friday May 14th at 8 o'clock p. m.

To morrow (Thursday) being Ascension Day there will be a service in St. James Church with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 10.30 a. m.

Rev. A. N. Morgan, pastor of the Annapolis County District, will preach in the Inglewood Baptist church on Sunday at 3 and 7 o'clock. All are welcome.

The Aylesford Athletic and Farmers' Fair Association are arranging for a good programme of horse races on May 24th. See advertisement in another column.

Lunenburg's rate of taxation this year has been fixed at $2.75. Kentville's rate is $4.10 divided thus: for general purposes, $1.40 for schools and 10c for highway tax. These are the two highest in the province.

The Church Road line has been completed and the electric lights have been turned on at the bridge. The bridge, which includes the County Home, County Hospital and Recreation Hall.

Two bridge engineers were in town last week in connection with the erection of a new steel bridge across the river to take the place of the one carried away during the March flood.

A number of our merchants have requested us to state that the Bridgetown stores will close every Wednesday afternoon, commencing June 2nd, and continuing until Wednesday, Sept. 29th.

What's going on? we asked a citizen this week. "Nothing," he replied. A newspaper man must draw on his imagination or use his shears on his exchanges in a community where there's "huthin' doin'."

The D. A. R. Co is greatly improving the grounds in the railway yard at Bridgetown. Preparations are being made for a flower garden at the west end of the station. Two electric lights have been conveniently placed along the platform between the street and station. The old, unsightly water tank will also be removed.

We have told our advertisers many times that all ads. which are in early receive our careful attention. Those that reach us between 11 and 12 o'clock Mondays are set up with a rush, displayed any old way, and are always sure to get the worst possible position at such a late hour.

WEDDING BELLS

FLEET—MORGAN

Morganville was the scene of a very pretty wedding last week when Hazel, the oldest daughter of Clarence Morgan, was given in marriage to Endon Fleet, of Digby. The ceremony was solemnized by Rev. F. H. Bone, Bear River. The church was prettily decorated with potted plants and may flowers, and the ushers were Miss Amy Morgan and the bride's sister. The bride looked charming in her white crepe de chine dress trimmed with satin ribbon her bridal veil being caught up by orange blossoms. The little flower girl, the bride's youngest sister, looked very sweet with her basket in her hand. The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Handparker of Digby. The groom was attended by Mr. Milton Morgan, of Bear River. Many friends from outside were present and a reception was given at the bride's home. Mr. and Mrs. Fleet will visit along the South shore, and will take up their residence in Digby. The bride received many valuable presents of glass, linen and silver.

GAUL—BEST

Mr. Aubrey William Gaul and Violet Mary Best, both of Annapolis County, N. S., were united in marriage by the Rev. I. A. Corbett, at the Baptist Parsonage, Paradise, N. S., May 4th, 1920.

VISITING DAYS AT BRIDGETOWN SCHOOLS

Tuesday and Wednesday of next week will be visiting days at our Schools when Teachers and pupils will be glad to see as many parents as possible. The Schools as can spare time to attend.

For the last few years the EXAMINATION DAY, of former times has been done away with and the fall Exhibition taken its place but this year the School Board and Teachers have brought back this time honoured and interesting School function under the new term of VISITORS' DAY.

It is to be hoped that parents will very largely embrace this opportunity of seeing the work as it is carried on week by week by our faithful teachers and the 500 and more pupils under their care.

Below we give the day and hours for the various Grades and rooms.

LOCAL DEATH ROLL

MRS. ANN BEALS

Mrs. Mary Ann Beals suffered from a stroke on Wednesday last week and as she sat at the breakfast table and passed peacefully away the same evening at her home in Middleton. Very few persons reach the century mark, but Mrs. Beals observed her 100th anniversary nearly two years ago. She was 101 years, ten months old, at her decease and a volume might be written upon the changes which took place in the world during her life.

She retained her mental faculties, but slightly impaired, up to the day of her death, but for over a year she had been confined to her room.

Mary Ann Payson was born at Sackville, N. B. and upon her father's death when but nine years old she removed to Lawrenceville, N. S. to live among relatives. She married Stephen Beals, who predeceased her by over 20 years. Their only child, Albert Beals, who died six years ago, was a prominent business man of Middleton for many years.

After her husband's death Mrs. Beals resided with her daughter in law, Mrs. Albert Beals, who faithfully cared for her during her declining years. The grand children and two great grand children survive. The funeral service on Friday was conducted by Rev. W. R. Turner assisted by Rev. Dr. Hutchins. The interment was at South Parsonage. The death of Mrs. Beals removes one of the oldest and best known citizens of the oldest town in the county. The death of Mrs. Beals was universally respected by her fellow citizens.

MRS. AMANDA KELLEY

Our Lawrenceville correspondent writes: Mrs. Amanda Kelly died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. O. Foster on Wednesday April 28th, after a short illness of two days. Mrs. Kelly came from her home at Sheffield Mills before Christmas to spend the winter with her daughter and was in her usual health until Tuesday morning. Her sudden death came as a shock to the family. She was a faithful member of the Baptist Church. Her husband predeceased her a number of years ago. She leaves to mourn one daughter, Mrs. F. O. Foster and one son, Rev. Dwight Kelly who resides in the west.

The funeral took place Saturday afternoon, the service being conducted by Rev. F. H. Beals assisted by Rev. H. T. Jones. The scripture read was Psalm XC The text which was taken from Isaiah 38 chap. 1st verse, was very impressive. The pall bearers were Deacons Wm McKeown and T. G. Bishop, W. H. Phinney and Robt. Balcom. The floral offerings were beautiful. The remains were laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery. We extend our sympathy to the bereaved ones.

C. W. HOFFMAN

C. W. Hoffman, Nictaux Falls, passed away at the V. G. Hospital, Halifax, on Wednesday following an operation. He was aged about 65 years and leaves a widow. He is also survived by two brothers, Abel, at Wilmot and Major, at Torbrook. He was a member of the Methodist Church and Superintendent of the Methodist Sunday School, taking a deep interest in everything which was for the good of the community. The funeral which was largely attended was held from his late home on Friday services being conducted by the Rev. Mr. Turner, pastor of the Middleton Methodist Church.

MRS. MARY MILLS

The burial took place at Stoney Beach Cemetery, Granville Wednesday afternoon with service by Rev. Mr. Gibson. Mrs. Mary Mills, widow of the late Robert Mills, who died in Cambridge, Mass at the residence of her son on Feb 12 at the age of 83 but whose body just arrived here via Yarmouth Wednesday noon accompanied by her son, Dr. John Smith, deceased having formerly been Mrs. Smith and leaving three sons of that name but none to Mrs. Mills. She was a daughter of the late Reid Hall of Granville and a stenographer of Mr. A. T. Mills, Granville Ferry.

Charles Messinger, a highly respected and successful farmer died at his home in Tupperville very suddenly at 2 o'clock Monday morning May 3rd, of heart failure, aged 72 years. Mrs. Messinger predeceased him twelve or fourteen years ago. He leaves one daughter, Mrs. Louis Messinger, one sister, Mrs. both residing in his native village and one brother W. D. of Boston, who was present at the funeral which took place Wednesday afternoon the services being conducted by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church.

MRS. MARY BURRELL
The death occurred on Sunday last at her home in Clementsport of Mrs. Mary Burrell, widow of the late Capt. John Burrell, aged 73. The funeral was conducted on Tuesday by Rev. McNitch. Deceased was an aunt of Mr. Herbert Hicks, of that village.

MRS. WALTER S. HARRIS
Esther, the young wife of Walter S. Harris, 57 High Street, Danvers, Mass. died at Salem Hospital last Tuesday. Walter S. Harris is first cousin to Vernon L. Harris and Mrs. Howard L. Rice, of Bear River, N. S.

HENRY MANZER

Mr. Henry Manzer, after a short illness died at his home in Weymouth on May 3rd, aged 50 years. He leaves beside his widow four sons and four daughters.

It is reported that the D. A. R. day freight trains between Halifax and Yarmouth will, in the near future be run in three divisions—Halifax and Kentville, Kentville and Annapolis, and Annapolis and Yarmouth. This will even up the work for the various train crews and will also give the public a better service.
