

LORD SYDENHAM

- Sherwood, Hon. Henry, opposes union, 207; retires from bench, 252
- Simcoe, J. G., governor, introduces Family Compact, 78
- Smith, Sydney, on British politics, 11; on Lord John Russell, 55
- Speech from Throne, in legislature of Upper Canada, 203; in united legislature, 319
- Stanley, Lord, 43, 275, 312
- Star*, Cobourg, on union, 211
- Strachan, Hon. John, Bishop of Toronto, opposes union, 231; on Clergy Reserves Bill, 248, 249
- Stuart, Andrew, 112
- Stuart, George O., archdeacon, conducts services at Lord Sydenham's funeral, 344
- Stuart, James, Chief-Justice of Lower Canada, 140, 191, 255, 256
- Sullivan, Hon. R. B., 228, 283, 334; introduces union resolutions in council of Upper Canada, 209
- Sydenham, Lord (Charles Edward Poulett Thomson), family and birth, 4; education, 5; in St. Petersburg, 5, 7; travels in Europe, 6, 7, 39; desires diplomatic career, 6; in business in London, 8; attracted by free trade movement, 12; candidate for Dover, 13; elected, 15; his liberal views, 3, 15, 18, 31-6, 50, 54; attacks the corn laws, 15, 37, 39-42, 52, 53; first speech in parliament, 17; advocates voting by ballot, and repeal of the usury laws, 18; advocates free trade, 18, 33, 40, 51; winter in Paris, 1829, 20; promotes Reform Act, 21; moves for reform in taxation, 22, 29, 30; on timber duties, 23; vice-president of Board of Trade, 25; president of Board of Trade, 26, 43; aids in revising system of public accounts, 28; promotes commercial treaty with France, 28, 29, 39; also with Australia, 50; member for Manchester, 2, 30, 32-6, 37, 48; on banking in Britain, 38; enters cabinet, 43, 46; Greville's sketch of, 43; estimates of his ability, by Raikes, 49; by Melbourne, 56; promotes technical education, 51; and international copyright, 51; improves regulation of railways, 53; organizes statistical department, 54; as possible Chancellor of the Exchequer, 56, 57; becomes governor-general of Canada, 57-60; comments on his appointment, 60, 129-40; instructions as governor, 141, 271, 272; his qualifications, 60, 187, 188, 350, 352; attitude of public towards, 155, 213, 267, 339, 345, 346, 354; his grasp of practical responsible government, 83, 104, 105, 108, 138, 139, 174, 219, 223-5, 249, 309-14; his special work in Canada, 124, 147, 177, 179, 187, 188, 345, 353, 354; as prime minister in Canada, 186, 226, 227, 262-4, 291; his personal influence, 210, 211, 237, 269; introduces cabinet system in Canada, 249-51; first visit to Upper Canada, 196, 197; opens legislature of Upper