

was not present long; Keefer and Scott made a good stand; both played with freedom, and Logan was at last punished. The bowlers were both changed; Lindsey got Scott off his pad; Jackson rattled up 14, four of which got over the fence into John Street, at last Logan sent him back on his wickets before he was ready. The two Montgomerys contributed 0 and 0 respectively, which did not materially help the score. The fielding during this innings was sniply wretched, although the long-stopping of Vankoughnet was plucky and well done. Then followed two processions, interrupted only by lunch. The spectators were treated to a confused mass of flying balls, bails and wickets, of batsmen going in and out, and all was over. Curtain. Score:

TORONTO CLUB v. TORONTO CRICKET CLUB.

This game was played on the Toronto Ground last Saturday. For the social club Gordon and Ogden, the former of whom has not handled a bat for five and the latter for two years, played in their old form. Daly got his 32 in splendid style. The bowling was easy.

The Toronto Club did well in getting their 65, as all their men were out of practice, and the bowling opposed to them, on the whole, good. Had they had more adepts themselves in this latter art they doubtless would have played on even terms with their opponents. Score:

TORONTO v. TRINITY COLLEGE.

This match, arranged for the purpose of getting together the team that is to play Hamilton on Friday, resulted in the disastrous defeat of Toronto; which serves them very well right. Only two or at most three of those who are booked for the aforesaid match took advantage of the chance, and three quarters of an hour after the fixed time for beginning, eight Torontonians took the field. At three, the ninth man made his appearance, and before half of another hour had elapsed another straggler and a Trinity man were pressed into service. It is needless to say that the fielding of this heterogeneous eleven was the worst possible, while nearly every man fielded in every position. Merritt was a good deal hit, and missed, and Foy bowled bad maidens to begin with, but pulled himself well together after the second wicket had fallen for 33; Wright took Merritt's place, and he and Foy disposed of the rest of the eleven for 8 runs. Then followed the disorganized procession of Torontonians, headed by Daly, who was given out l b w, and the rear brought up by Foy, who skied together 8. S. Howard played well against poor bowling for his 19, and Fidler barn-doored his runs; Hague showed good form, and had hard luck in hitting his wicket. On the whole, the practice derived by the men for Hamilton was strengthening. Score:
