

THE
NOVA SCOTIA
School of Horticulture,
OPEN FROM
November 1st to May 1st.

Where a liberal and thorough course is provided students desirous of obtaining a practical Education with a correct and complete knowledge of horticulture and its kindred branches.

A school that is to the farm boy what the city academy and business college is to the town boy who is to devote himself to a trade or profession.

The following points of advantage present themselves :

The School is found :

- 1st.—With Free Tuition to all Students.
- 2nd.—With Good Equipment for Thorough Work.
- 3rd.—In a University Town, with good influences.
- 4th.—With Expenses Reasonable.
- 5th.—With Library and Reading Room, containing best literature of the present time.
- 6th. A course containing Theory with Practice.

Those desirous of attending should make application and write for circulars of information and calendar to

E. E. FAVILLE,
DIRECTOR,
Wolfville, N. S.