PERSONAL.

WE are sorry that circumstances have taken from our midst Mr. A. Munro, one of our best workers, but our loss will be some other place's gain, for he knows that in influence a Christian is a light, and wherever he is he will obey our Lord's command to let it shine.

QUEN the 13th of Sept. we received a visit from Bro. Orr, the R'y Sec'y of St. Thomas. We returned the visit on the 18th, and are very glad to be able to state that the work at that point far exceeds all our expectations. The daily attendance at the rooms, and at the meetings is steadily on the increase, and the meetings are also being added to.

COTTAGE MEETINGS.

AS the evenings get cooler and longer, we hope that our friends will turn out to these means of grace regularly. The place and time of meeting will be found on the fourth page.

MR. W. H. Howland, at Union Station first Sunday in October, and Hon. S. H. Blake is expected the first Sunday in November. Bring your friends.
