BURIALS

Feb. 19th.—Jennie Sharp Greening.
 March 1st.—Sophia Gardner Elliott.
 March 1st.—Maida Elliott. Infant.

The sympathy of all in the congregation goes out to Mr Greening and his family in the awfully sudden death of Mrs. Greening, and to Dr. Elliott, for the equally sad loss of his wife and infant daughter. May the God of all comfort be with them. Only last month we had to chronicle the death of Dr. Elliott's mother.

"Father, in Thy gracious keeping, Leave we now Thy servants sleeping"

CHURCH ATTENDANCE

The attendance of our people at weekday services during Lent can scarcely be considered satisfactory. Whatever may be said about the difficulty of coming to Church for morning and afternoon services cannot apply to those held in the evening, and yet the most that can be claimed for St. George's Parish is that it furnishes a congregation of from twenty-five to thirty on Wednesdays at 8 p.m. Surely there can be no more profitable form of self-denial during Lent than that which gives up an hour a week to the worship of God and receiving instruction in sacred things. We hope that with the solemn call of Holy Week—the call to be with our Saviour in His last hours—there may be a better response.

THE EASTER COMMUNION

We remind the congregation of the rule—
 "And note, that every parishioner shall communicate at the least (the irreducible minimum) three times in the year, of which Easter to be one." And the reason for this rule is not far to seek. The Supper of the Lord is the Christian Passover. It is the joyful commemoration of our deliverance from the bondage of the spiritual Egypt through the Blood of the Paschal Lamb of God, Who died and rose again. "It is very meet, right, and our bounden duty, that we should at all times and in all places, give thanks unto Thee, O Lord . . .
But chiefly are we bound to praise Thee for the glorious resurrection of Thy Son Jesus Christ our Lord." Let us therefore unite in offering our Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving on Easter Day.

NEW SCHOOL HOUSE

At least it is practically new, so far as the interior is concerned; the old has vanished.
 Every spot of old plaster has been painted afresh, and every portion of ancient woodwork has been varnished or colored anew.
 The shades have been so well selected that
