

ARTICLE 13

In cases where a subject or citizen of one High Contracting Party has, in accordance with Article 12, been exempted from giving security for costs in the territory of the other, judgments condemning such person to pay costs shall be enforceable by the Courts or authorities in the territory of the former High Contracting Party by the most summary procedure available for enforcing foreign judgments under the laws of that country.

V.—General Provisions

ARTICLE 14

Any difficulties which may arise in connection with the operation of this Convention shall be settled through the diplomatic channel.

ARTICLE 15

(a) Either High Contracting Party may at any time while the present Convention is in force terminate the operation of Articles 5, 6 and 10, without affecting the operation of the remainder of the Convention, by giving two months' notice to this effect through the diplomatic channel.

(b) If while the present Convention is in force, the President of the Turkish Republic shall, by a notification given through the Turkish Ambassador in London, give his consent to the extension of the application of Articles 5, 6 or 10 to classes of persons other than the class to which those articles at present apply, the application of those articles shall be extended in the territories of both High Contracting Parties as from the date of and in accordance with such notification.

ARTICLE 16

The present Convention, of which the English and Turkish* texts are equally authentic, shall be subject to ratification. Ratifications shall be exchanged in London. The Convention shall come into force three months after the date on which ratifications are exchanged and shall remain in force for three years after its coming into force. In case neither of the High Contracting Parties shall have given notice to the other six months before the expiration of the said period of his intention to terminate the Convention, it shall remain in force until the expiration of six months from the day on which either of the High Contracting Parties shall have given such notice.

ARTICLE 17

(a) This Convention shall not apply ipso facto to Scotland or Northern Ireland, nor to any of the Colonies or Protectorates of His Majesty, nor to any mandated territories in respect of which the mandate is exercised by his Government in the United Kingdom, but His Majesty may at any time while the Convention is in force under Article 16 extend by a notification given through his Ambassador in Turkey this Convention to any of the above-mentioned territories.

(b) Such notification shall state the authorities in the territory concerned to whom judicial and extra-judicial documents and letters of request are to be transmitted. The language in which communications or translations are to be made shall be English. The date of the coming into force of any such extension shall be one month from the date of its notification.

(c) Either of the High Contracting Parties may, at any time after the expiry of three years from the coming into force of an extension of this Con-
