OCCASIONAL PAPERS

The Institute publishes approximately four Occasional Papers each year. These monographs aim for both scholarly excellence and policy relevance, and deal with the subjects that fall within the areas defined in the Institute's mandate.

BACKGROUND PAPERS

This series is a medium for timely analysis, in a non-academic style, of major events and emerging issues of peace, conflict and international relations. In some of these, authors are encouraged to incorporate their own personal viewpoints in the presentations.

WORKING PAPERS

Working Papers, the result of research work in progress or the summary of a conference, are often intended for later publication by the Institute or another publisher, and are regarded by CIIPS to be of immediate value for distribution in limited numbers – mostly to specialists in the field. Unlike all other Institute publications, these papers are published in the original language with a translation of only the abstract.

FACTSHEETS

Factsheets provide short synopses of current issues in arms control, disarmament, defence and conflict resolution, and outline the historical context for contemporary events. The series is intended primarily for senior secondary students and teachers.

PEACE&SECURITY MAGAZINE

Peace&Security is a quarterly magazine published since Spring 1986 to let Canadians and others know what the Institute is doing, and to provide a forum for the full range of Canadian viewpoints on issues of peace and security.

ANNUAL GUIDE

The Guide, published annually, provides a basic reference source on Canadian policies in the field of peace and security. It seeks to identify the major policy issues to which Canada responded in the year, place them in context, and, where appropriate, cite a range of Parliamentary comment on these issues.

ANNUAL REVIEW

Once a year, the director of the Institute takes stock of the major events and trends in the areas of peace and security, and their implications for Canadian policy.

ANNUAL REPORT

The Annual Report sets out for the Parliament and the people of Canada the record of activities and financial statements of the Institute for each fiscal year.

Barton Awards Programme

The Institute invites applications for its Awards Programme, now designated the Barton Awards in honour of the first Chairman, former UN Ambassador William Barton. The programme is open to both academics and non-academics who wish to enter or continue studies in the field of international peace and security. The programme is intended to encourage expertise and scholarship in that area by supporting Canadians who wish to pursue their studies at institutions abroad or in Canada.

The Institute expects to make ten awards, two senior fellowships valued at up to $30,000 and eight scholarships at up to $14,000. Applications will be assessed by an independent selection committee and decisions will be announced in May 1990.

Applicants must be Canadian citizens whose experience or academic qualification enable them to pursue advanced study.

The deadline for applications for the 1990-1991 academic year is 1 February 1990.
