

counterpanes, pillow cases, towels, and all other articles belonging to her department, and for which she will be held responsible.

(12.) Until the services of a housekeeper are required, the Matron shall also have the oversight of the kitchen and dining-room, and shall receive from the Steward upon requisition all the provisions to be prepared for meals, and she shall see that such provisions are economically used, and after every meal carefully put away. She shall have charge of the laundry, and see that the articles sent in are properly and promptly washed, and that the kitchen and laundry are kept in order.

(13.) She shall at all times consult with the Principal as to the proper performance of her duties specified in sub-sections 2 to 8 inclusive, and with the Bursar respecting the duties specified in sub-sections 9 to 12 inclusive.

TEACHERS.

20. The Teachers shall instruct the pupils, under the direction of the Principal, and perform such duties as he, with the approval of the Inspector, may require of them. They shall in no case absent themselves from their duties without the consent of the Principal or Inspector.

(2.) They shall at all times exercise a proper supervision of the pupils, and see that they violate none of the rules.

(3.) Their treatment of the pupils shall be uniformly gentle and kind. No teacher or subordinate officer shall administer corporal punishment, but shall report extreme cases of disobedience to the Principal.

(4.) Teachers shall note any absence from or irregularity in their classes, and report the same to the Principal.

(5.) The senior teacher shall, in the absence of the Principal, take charge of the educational department, and fully carry out the instructions of the Principal.
