WINTER WHEAT DAMAGE FEARED

Cold Snap Bullish Factor at Chicago—Corn Joins in Advance.

CHICAGO, Jan. 12.—Sudden cold, which threatened to kill unprotected fall-sown wheat, carried prices today substantially higher. Most of the advance was held, the market closing steady at a gain of ½c to ¾c. Corn closed the same as Saturday night to ½c above; oats dearer by 1-16c to ⅜c, and provisions virtually unchanged.

Wheat today more than made amends for last week's losses, due to liquidation in corn and oats. Besides the cold wave, there was considerable else to encourage buyers, notably a decided falling off in the estimated export surplus of Australia. It developed also that generous sales for export had been made Saturday.

Speculators in wheat worked for the most part on the belief that snow covering had largely disappeared thruout the winter crop belt. A good deal of perplexity was evinced, however, that, despite the assumed danger to the plant, the amount of outside investment was not as large as might have been expected.

Corn Was Firm.

Corn showed firmness because the cold weather was regarded as certain to increase feeding. Bullish sentiment, tho, was tempered by predictions that if the cold continued heavier receipts might be looked for, owing to better conditions for handling. Warehouse interests were conspicuous on the bear side. Buying on the part of shorts lifted oats. This incentive was the strength of other grain. Weakness at the yards counteracted speculative demand for provisions. Neither side was aggressive.

MONTREAL LIVE STOCK

MONTREAL, Jan. 12.—Trade was good today at the local stock yards for butchers' cattle. The majority of shipments were received before the storm began to interrupt traffic. Some, however, did not arrive until quite late on that account. Receipts on the market at the West End Stock Yards were 900 cattle, 2500 sheep and lambs, 2600 hogs and 150 calves.

A good quality of beef was offered. Butchers' bulls were slightly easier on large receipts. Other prices held steady. A large shipment of western hogs, consisting of 8 car loads, was received, and tended to keep the live pork prices down. Prices for selects eased off 25c, as the shipment of western selected hogs sold lower by that margin.

Sheep were offered freely and the price was easy. The undertone to the market for lambs was also easy and demand light. Prices ranged between 4¾c to 7½c per pound. A fair demand for calves held prices very steady. Quotations:

Good bulls, $7 to $7.25; choice butchers' cattle, $7.25 to $7.50; fair butchers' cattle, $6.75 to $7; medium butchers' cattle, $7.25 to $7.50; butchers' cows, good, $6.75 to $7; fair, $6.25 to $6.50; bulls, $4 to $6.75; feeding steers, $6.25 to $6.50; butchers' steers, $4.50 to $5; hogs, fed and watered, $9.50 to $9.75; sows, $7.50; stags, $5; calves, $3 to $15.

FRANKFORT-ON-MAIN, Jan. 12. — (Can. Press) — The plea of not guilty was entered today by Carl Hopf, the local druggist and former fencing master, when brought up for trial charged with killing his two children, his father, and his first wife by administering poison, and with attempting to commit similar crimes on his second and third wives and another person.

The accused admitted today that he had given a poisonous drug to his three successive wives, ostensibly as a means of improving their looks. To his third wife he had also given fever germs, but she escaped death owing to the vigilance of the doctor.

The three women had been insured by the prisoner for $5000, $7500, and $20,000, respectively, and each of them fell seriously ill within a year after her marriage to the accused.

LEMIEUX EXPLAINS THE QUEBEC ACT

Gives Emphatic Declaration of French-Canadian Loyalty to Britain.

SAYS "WE ARE LOYAL"

Quebec Act Was Magna Charta for French in Canada.

Before the Canadian Club yesterday Hon Rodolphe Lemieux made his address on "The Quebec Act," the occasion for an emphatic declaration of French-Canadian loyalty to British government and institutions.

After reviewing briefly the conditions which led to the passing of the Quebec Act in 1774, Mr. Lemieux pointed out that it gave French Canada three things—representative government, responsible government and Federal government. It introduced French-Canadians to the notion of a "popular" government, and it preserved for them their laws, customs and language as well as protecting their religion. It was, in effect, the French-Canadians' Magna Charta, and it was the foundation of French-Canadian loyalty.

"We may differ," he said, "as to the method by which we can best serve the British Empire, but as Canadians, whether British or French, our minds are all the same. We are loyal, and I cannot see the object of advertising half the population of this country as disloyal. The great point of union for every Canadian is his majesty the king, the crown, and the great instrument of freedom which belongs to me and to you—the British constitution. The French-Canadian in Quebec, the Scotchman in the Highlands, the Irishman, the Welshman is as loyal as the Englishman in Devonshire or even the Canadian in Toronto."

"Talk not," he continued, "to a French-Canadian of annexation, because our constitution retains all that he loves in monarchy, and it maintains all that there is in democracy."

The president, Mr. John R. Bone, occupied the chair.

PRIEST-POLITICIAN IS SUSPENDED BY BISHOP

Abbe Lemire Was Only Priest Occupying Seat in French Parliament.

HAZEBROUCK, France, Jan. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Abbe Jules Lemire, the only priest a member of the chamber of deputies, has been suspended by the Bishop of Lille, and M. Bonte, editor of Le Cri Des Flandes, the organ of the abbe's supporters, has been excommunicated as a result of differences over the abbe's political program.

The bishop's letter, which has been read in all the pulpits of the diocese, has aroused intense interest and much comment. Friends of Abbe Lemire have signed a strong portest against episcopal action, and it is understood that the matter will be immediately carried to the higher ecclesiastical authorities.

BEAT DOWN GUARDS AND MAKE GETAWAY

BRIDGETON, N. J., Jan. 12.—(Can. Press.)—Two prisoners, known in police circles as the "Pink Shirt Twins," sawed and fought their way out of the Cumberland County Jail here early today. They cut away two bars of their cell, and using them as weapons, beat a guard and a "trusty" into unconsciousness. They then bound and gagged them and walked out of the jail.

The escaped prisoners are Harry Jordan and Edward Haight. They were recently paroled from the penitentiary in Philadelphia and were arrested here several months ago, charged with burglary.
