Herald, and later on to form the opinion that Graham had got it. Whether, McGibbon got his money back that he spent on The Herald, is not known, but Graham now has control of Sign.

DDODED'S ODI but Graham now has control of Sier, Herald, Telegraph and The Weekiy Standard. He owns some interests in other papers as well. He controls the Hearst newspaper features.

McGibbon has said in substance that Graham also owns a bly block of Tramsays stock and that he went into the fight against Graham to nead off an attempt that was to be made to extend the franchise and to carve up a melon of over $50,000,000. That of itself is a great story, and that is why a melon of over $50,000,000. That of itself is a great story, and that is why Burns was brought here to head it off. But more of this further down.

McGibbon "Man Behind."

McGibbon is left with only one known paper. The Financial Times, and perhaps an interest of some kind in a French paper, but it was McGibbon who brought Burns and his sleuths to Montreal. He did this, it is believed, under the management of Mr. Beck, his oditor of The Herald. When The Herald was sold last week, it is Brck, his editor of The Herald. When The Herald was sold last week, it is said. Mr. Beck walked out of The Herald with all the reports of the Burns sleuths in his possession, and that they are now in possession of The Mail. It is believed here that Messrs. Macnab and Nichols will offer to put copies of these reports in the hands of the speaker of the Quebec Legislature, where they will appear before the bar on Tuesday.

Fought Franchise Extension. In the meantime, this story must go back to the tranways McGibbon was determined that no extension of the tranchise was to be allowed if he could prevent it, and the Burns men were to collect evidence to show how vulnerable the legislature was that was expected to grant it, and here another peculiar incident happened. It is believed that Sir Lomer Gouin, who was supposed to be friendly to Robert, head of the tramways, and to Sir Hugh Graham's street railway views, had determined not to give any legislation to help the franchise grabbers. McGibbon, therefore, found himself with Graham on his way back and the likelihood that no tramways legisla-tion would be offered. At this point he sold out The Herald but made no peace with Graham. He attacks Graham as a newspaper Czar in The Financial Times of Saturday.

Alleges Party Plot.
And now Sir Lomer Gouin came on the scene thru the columns of his organ. Le Solell of Quebec. In that paper of Friday last, under page headlines and big type, it is alleged that the Conservative opposition in the Quebec Legislature are promoting the charges made by The Mail. It says that Sir Lomer will insist on any members guilty of taking bribes being punished and driven out of public life, and also that he will insist on knowing who was at the bottom of the whole business of the charges, of the employment of Burns men, etc. Le whole business of the charges, of the employment of Burns men. etc. Le Solell says this will be pursued to the end. Machab and Nichols will therefore have to refer him to Beck and McGibbon, and McGibbon may refer him to the tramways extension that he was trying to head off, and to Robert and Graham and Burns reports on the Montreal aldermen. Sir Lomer says he wants to know who seeks to discredit a fegislature, and worse still to discredit a race. So the thing grows, and unless he cares to give the protection of the crown, to the Burns men they cannot come in to give evidence as if what they say be true they are criminals for bribery.

The from the United States in the first eleven months of last year. These were bought by Canadians, besides the autos made in this country.

Limeux's Pessimism.

Hon. Rodolphe Lemleux insisted that times were hard, with at least 15,000 men out of work in Toronto and 40.000 in Montreal. His figures as to the unemployed in Vancouver were challenged, however, by Mr. Stevens, M.P. for that city, and Solicitor-General Meighen ridiculed the statement that the Northwest Mounted Police had been called out in Regina to deal with bread riots.

Mf. Lemieux went on to argue in faate criminals for bribery.

Bourassa Takes Hand.

Enters also on the scene at this time the tribune of the French, people of Quebec, Henri Bourassa of Montreal, who, in his paper Le Devoir demands that the truth and the whole truth must be told, even if his race be more or less involved but he is more con-cerned about his former friends and

DEFACED COINS STOLEN

Unknown thieves, believed to have been children, made off with a quantity of mutifated coins from the Parkdale Presbyterian Church on Sunday evening. The amount stolen is very small, the coins consisting mostly of 5 and 10 cent pleces, most of them plugged or cut. All were refused by the banks.

Cast of High Living.

Dealing with the high cost of living. Mr. Broder said: "I know a man can live cheaply, for I've had to do it all myself. It is the mode of people's all myself. It is the mode of people's living that makes the cost high. A friend of mine was talking to me about the enormous cost of living, and I pointed out that his wife did not bake her own bread as our mothers used to years ago, and I doubted if she knew where the scrubbing brush or broom was kept.

"The people are making more money now and they spend it more freely. The opposition urges the government to reduce the cost of living, but the government cannot make that hen running around the barnyard lay one egg more, and it cannot make the cattle any fatter. It is the man who feeds them who can do that. The solution is with the farmer."

is with the farmer."

Not For Free Wheat.

Mr. Broder said he could not view the question of free wheat from the same point of view as the western man. He added: "The future of the west depends on mixed farming, and it needs the by-product of the wheat. Without it dairying will suffer severely. We now grind enough flour in Canada for 14,000,000 people, but should grind enough for 50,000,000."

Decline in Milch Cows.

Mr. Broder then referred to the decrease in the number of milch cows in Eastern Canada, and the increase in the west. In Ontario, in the last

In Ontario, in the last four years, owing to lack of the right kind of hired help, the number of milch cows fell from 30,000 to 26,000, while the non-milch cows increased from 13,000 to 19,000, and from 1901 to 1911 the decrease in milch cows in creased 1911 the decrease in misch cows in Ontario was 32.784. The other eastern provinces had also lost, but Manitoba gained 13.856. Saskatchewan gained 124.000. Alberta 101.586, and British Columbia 9420. Eastern Canada had lost in all 62.000 milch cows in the decade, while the west gained 249,374, making a net gain of 187,348.

Solicitor-General Meighen pointed but that the company had been given until May 15, 1913, to put its business on a legal basis. Could Mr. Lemieux say that it had not done so?

Mr. Lemieux: "Can you? The government should be in a position to inform the house. I am informed that the company is still defying the law with impunity, because it has powerful friends and because it has a pul with the government." (Liberal ap-

Railway Officials Visit Toronto But Have No Information to Divulge.

Howard G. Kelley, vice-president of the Grand Trunk Railway, and H. R. Stafford chief engineer of the G.T.R. were in Toronto yesterday, and it is understood their visit here was in connection with the formation of the ter-minal company for the erection of Torento's new union station. They left for Montreal last night, but before going declared there was nothing new in the station situation. The railways had certainly lost no time when once a start was made on the work of clearing the site for the new depot, and when the time for its erection came the same progress would be shown, they said.
