Saturday will provide an opportunity for St. Patrick's or St. Andrews to get a flying start on the other teams in the Toronto Senior League. Both were winners last Saturday, and both will return to win the coming engagement to stay at the top of the heap. If both lose, all the four teams will have one win and one loss. At 2 p.m. St. Patrick's are entertained by the seniors. Two years ago will be on the mound for St. Pata, while Norman Kelly, who did such good work with the seniors, two years ago will likely shoot them over for St. Andrews, while Flude or Sando will leave for Judeans.

This game is bound to be a hummer, and the patrons of Stanley Park are in for a treat.

The Intercollegiate Baseball League, at a meeting held in the office of the London Guarantee & Accident Company, decided to reorganize for the coming season. This league will comprise teams from the following accident companies:

Dominion of Canada, London Guaranty, Employers' Liability, Imperial

Guaranty & Acc., General Accident, London

Guaranty & Acc., Lancashire. From the enthusiasm shown by the delegates, a most successful season is anticipated. The schedule will commence during the first week in June.

MUSICIANS' BALL.

Two excellent orchestras of 75 musicians each, were in attendance at the Toronto musicians' fourth annual ball at the Arena last night. A thousand members and friends of the Toronto Musical Association were present.

The committee of arrangements included Ed. Jarrot, chairman; James L. Reid, secretary; G. J. Timpon, treasurer; J. Weatherburn, financial secretary. The event was a great success.

St. Davids play Katons at Perth Ave.

square Saturday, kick-off at 2.30 p.m.

St. Davids will line up as follows: Mc-

Gill, White, Culbert, Scott, Hurst, Burns,

Ives, Donnell, Jackson, Atkinson, King, reserves, Andrews, Fitzpatrick, Jenkins.

All players and supporters of the Caledonian F.C. are requested to be on the Don Flats not later than 1.45 p.m. for their game with Country, kick-off at 2.15 p.m. As another game takes place at 4 p.m., all players should be on time.

All Caledonian players should turn out at the Riverside Club tonight for the ing, as the secretary has important business in connection with the players which has to be settled as soon as possible.

The Gerrards play West Toronto United at their grounds on Saturday, and the following players are requested to meet at the corner of Leslie and Gerrard not later than 1.15: Goal, West, full-backs,

Burgum and Stubbs; half-backs,

Freer, Farthing, J. Lee, Edwards, Brown,

Pearson, P. Lee, Green, Warehurst.

Players are to turn out for practice tonight at the church not later than 8.30.

Messrs. Wilson, Russell, Percott, Lowe and Williams, take note that all Rob-
