TORONTO'S BILL WAS SLAUGHTERED

Clauses Thrown Out in Wholesale Fashion by the Committee.

MONEY WITHOUT VOTE. Civic Improvements Will Be Carried Thru With Little Delay.

The private bills committee of the legislature rolled up its sleeves yesterday and threw out clauses of the Toronto "bill in wholesale fashion." One point only managed to slip past and even that aroused much warm discussion. The request that the committee reverse the privy council decision regarding the Toronto and Suburban tracks on Bathurst street and Eglinton street was turned down flat, and the city will have to be compelled to construct all the pavement in those districts up to within 18 inches of the rails. The request to expropriate the portion of the car lines within the city limits also went out with little ceremony. It was decided at the same time that the Ontario railway board should not be asked to force the Toronto Railway Company to build 18 miles of track and more new cars as the railways report advised. R. J. Fleming, riding at the last minute told of new work being done and good intentions held, and the committee acted on his evidence.

The only point gained will allow the city to raise $357,000 on civic improvements without popular vote. The $300,000 sought for relief work was omitted and items allowing $70,000 for exhibition buildings, $100,000 for new civic cars, $70,000 for Scarborough bridge, $72,000 for parks department, $11,000 for Crawford street bridge and $12,000 for waterworks were kept.

The main argument centered about the Suburban railway question. I. F. Helmuth, K. C., said the company claimed that the privy council decision freed them from all paving expenditure and that stock had been sold in good faith. He suggested that to change the decision would be to cast reflection on the high court action. He admitted that much of it was in this state and to co-operate in precautions to prevent the disease spreading to St. Lawrence County.

SWISS ARE BITTER TOWARD GERMANS. Residence of Professor of Freiburg University Stopped by Mob.

LONDON, March 23, 7:30 p.m.—"In future no self-respecting German will expose himself to the insults of the rabble by whom German money never has been despised, but to whom the German people are so repugnant," says The Cologne Gazette, as quoted in a despatch from Amsterdam to Reuters Telegram Co.

This utterance was inspired by reports of numerous anti-German demonstrations in Switzerland in connection with the possession of French money who had been exchanged for French and British prisoners. Accounts of these demonstrations are published in several German newspapers.

Largest of these demonstrations occurred at Freiburg, where it is said, a crowd of the most prominent professors of Freiburg University, mixed German speaking inhabitants and smashed windows of their houses, being finally dispersed by soldiers.

MOTORISTS ASK FOR RECIPROCITY

Three Hundred From All Over Ontario Saw Premier Hearst.

WANT NO IMPEDIMENTS. No Legislation is Needed to Comply With Their Request.

It is possible that Ontario motorists may yet gain the privilege of license reciprocity with the United States, but the Ontario Government is holding forth no promises. Fully 300 delegates hailing from all parts of the province and all urging this interchange waited upon the government yesterday and pleaded their cause. Hon. W. H. Hearst in reply stated that no legislation was necessary for the change, but the regulations could be amended at any time. He recognized the universal demand from border towns and cities, but thought that the interests of all Ontario should be considered first.

The premier remarked that some of the claims had carried the idea of provincial benefit too far. American tourists might bring in some money, but they would hardly boost the value of summer residences as suggested. Tourist traffic should be encouraged as it helped the province, but the wear and tear of the roads had to be well considered. Hon. W. J. Hanna was engaged in committee work and could not attend.

No Impediments. H. M. Grayson of London asked for the placing of no impediments in the way of their appeal. At London hotels every week American cars were always staying, especially for weekends, and people spent nearly $25 per day. There were few non-stop runs, and money came into Ontario.

The thought of an untaxed motor run to the Panama Exposition appealed to A. C. Gaudin of Hamilton, and he claimed great benefits that would be derived from reciprocity. Andrew Reed of Windsor stated that 500 cars in that city would benefit at once. The Ontario Motorists' Association backed this plea and other representatives of boards of trade spoke to the same end.

President W. W. Digby of the Motor League spoke briefly for the organization.

LEGISLATURE SETS ASIDE SEVENTY-FIVE THOUSAND DOLLARS FOR YEAR. Monument to Whitney.

Ten Thousand Dollars Voted for Erection of Suitable Memorial.

The Ontario Legislature is nearly thru with the consideration of estimates. When the making of the next fiscal year was brought down yesterday, involving an expenditure of $7,755,235, the financial statements of the year closed. There is here also a slight decrease on the vote of last year. One significant feature is that fall fares will be paid to co-operate in precautions to prevent the disease spreading to St. Lawrence County.
