

vi THE BEAUTIFUL LADY CRAVEN

CHAPTER XII

	PAGE
We arrive at Berlin—Our kind reception there again by the King of Prussia—Authentic anecdotes of the Great Frederic—Explanation of his conduct to Baron de Trenck—The Philosophers and Illuminati—Freemasonry—Rosenfeld—M. Bardt—M. Eberhard—M. Edelmann—Thaumaterges—Character of Frederic . . . . .	53-74

CHAPTER XIII

Information which I obtained at Berlin respecting Voltaire—His quarrel with the King—Bust of him in my possession—His singular habits—His house at Ferney—Anecdotes of him—Curious prediction respecting myself . . . . .	75-82
---	-------

CHAPTER XIV

Anecdote of Sir William Windham—Prince of Wales—Remarks—Lord Lyttelton—Lord Clarendon—Duke of Buckingham—Observations on the marvellous—Anecdote of Lord Clarendon—Madenioiselle Le Normand . . . . .	83-91
---	-------

CHAPTER XV

My return to England—Conduct of my eldest daughters and family—Message from the Queen to the Margrave—I write an appeal to the House of Lords—Sir Theophilus Metcalfe—General Dalrymple—Purchase of Brandenburg House—The Margrave presents me with Benham, in Berkshire—My son Keppel Craven—Lord Craven—Amusements at Brandenburg House . . . . .	92-108
---	--------

CHAPTER XVI

Beckford—Mrs. Montague—Lord Thurlow—Madame de Vacluse—Dr. Johnson—Lady Bute—Mr. Thompson of Yorkshire—Lord Nugent—Lord Huntingdon—Duc de Guisnes—Anecdotes of Marshal Saxe . . . . .	109-131
--	---------

CHAPTER XVII

Literature—Mr. Edward Jerningham—Lord Thurlow—Anecdotes of his Lordship—Remarks . . . . .	132-141
---	---------