TOLSTOI'S SON ON A VISIT TO AMERICA

Attributes His Late Father's Erratic Conduct to the Influence of an English Evangelist.

NEW YORK, March 11.—The international floating hotel Mauretania brought many interesting passengers to her pier yesterday morning. Nearly all assembled in the brilliant illuminated lounge Thursday evening and listened to an address by Count Leo Tolstoy, third son of the late Russian philosopher.

The count is forty-two years old, of medium height, with brown beard, long face, mild eyes, and teeth that gleam. He is a sculptor. He is deeply interested in social subjects and reform in educational methods. In Paris he has been two years studying with Rodin, the sculptor.

The speaker produced two busts of his father which he had fashioned; one in plaster and the other in bronze. The audience noted the likeness of the busts to the young count. He said he had been his father's intimate and co-worker in writing, editing and teaching, and enjoyed his father's entire confidence. The son attributed his father's erratic conduct during his last days to the influence of Lord Radstock, an English evangelist, under whose spell the elder count had fallen.

The count was followed in the speaking by Dr. Wilfred Grenfell, the missionary physician to 20,000 fishermen and their wives and children on the coasts of Newfoundland and Labrador. In May, when the ice breaks, he will return with his wife, who was Miss Clapham of Chicago, to his headquarters at St. Anthony, on the south side of the Straits of Belle Isle.

The chairman of the entertainment was Sir Edward Tennant, who just before his departure for America, was elevated to the peerage and may choose as his new title Lord Glenconner or Lord Tennant of Glen. Immediately after his elevation, he was appointed lord high commissioner of the Church of Scotland.

Vancouver to study the trees and flora of that province. His art gallery in his mansion in Queen Anne's Court, London, consisting of pictures collected principally by his father, the late Sir Chas. Tennant, is thrown open every Wednesday and Saturday to the poor of London.

The Mauretania brought hundreds of pots of growing shamrocks for St. Patrick's Day.

DON'T LIKE THE CUT.

WINNIPEG, March 12.—That members of the Manitoba Elevator Commission would not be pleased with the sweeping reduction in their salaries proposed in the legislature, and accepted by the government, was only to be anticipated. Report has it that Mr. MacLennan, whose salary was cut from $5000 to $4000, has resigned. D. W. McCuaig, the chairman and former president of the Manitoba Grain Growers' Association, is also said to be disgruntled.

Huron Old Boys.

St. Patrick's Day will be celebrated by the Huron Old Boys' Association, who will hold their first quarterly meeting of the season at Williams' Cafe on Friday evening. Among the speakers will be Col. Hugh Clark, M.L.A., Albert Griggs, M.L.A., and H. G. Ber, M.L.A.

SEPARATE CROWNING AS EMPEROR OF INDIA

A Thousand Details of Ceremonies at Delhi and at Carnarvon to Be Settled.

LONDON, March 12.—King George is now seen daily in Rotten Row cantering with equerries. He needs the bracing effect of exercise in the nipping air, for he is overwhelmed with the details of the various ceremonial of what must be the busiest year of his reign. The precedents of the last coronation are followed closely, except the minor points, like the substitution of girls for boys as the Queen's train bearers, but a series of new questions have been raised for the Delhi coronation and the investiture of the Prince of Wales at Carnarvon, since tradition and recent practice do not cover them. Lord Curzon and other viceroys have been consulted respecting the Delhi function, and the decision has been reached that it must not be treated as a recrowning of the king, already consecrated at Westminster Abbey, but as a separate crowning as Emperor of India. A thousand novel details connected with regalia and costume and Oriental pageantry need to be determined. The prince's investiture is almost equally as difficult, owing to Welsh sensitiveness. The Duke of Connaught, who is the King's closest adviser, has decided never to accept another military command. He may become Viceroy of India after serving a short term at Ottawa.

Mr. Mulock Out of Danger. Wm. Mulock, who was operated on by Dr. Bruce for complications arising out of appendicitis on Tuesday last, is now believed to be out of danger.

DR. A. W. CHASE'S CATARRH POWDER 25c. It is sent direct to the diseased parts by the Improved Blower. Heals the ulcer, clears the air, passes drops in the throat and permanently cures Catarrh and Hay Fever. No more free. Accept no substitutes. All dealers or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Toronto.

NO MONTREAL EXHIBITION.

MONTREAL, March 12.—That there will be no exhibition is the opinion of the aldermen who were present at the meeting yesterday afternoon of the directors of the Industrial Exhibition Commission held in the city council chamber. No site so far proposed for an exhibition seems to be good enough on which to hold an exhibition in Montreal, according to the aldermen. A final decision in the matter was reached on Saturday. Votes were taken on different sites in question, with the result that all were voted down and lost.

Thompson, district passenger agent, C. P. R., Toronto.

WILL COMPANY SELL OUT?

WINNIPEG, March 12.—Considerable speculation exists over a prolonged conference Sir Wm. Mackenzie had with Premier Roblin yesterday, presumably in connection with the dispute between the Winnipeg Electric Co. and the city. In one quarter it is stated that Sir William is about ready, on behalf of the company, to offer to sell out, lock, stock and barrel, to the city.
