and July $1.52 5-8 to $1.52 3-4. Oats gained 1-8 to 5-8 3-4c. The outcome in provisions ranged from 50c decline to 10c advance.

Except during brief intervals, corn displayed an upturn tendency thrusuit and finished at the top prices of the day with shorts covering freely. The chief incentive for this action on the part of the shorts was continued adverse weather likely to interfere with rural wagon traffic and to damage the quality of holdings. It was said numerous complaints were at hand from rural sources and that corn was getting out of condition.

Besides, reports of car shortage getting out of condition.

Besides, reports of car shortage again attracted notice and there was less apprehension that labor difficulties would curtail the outflow of foodstuffs from New York. Omaha interests were especially conspicuous in the buying. Oats hardened with corn and a result of seeding delays. It was said much re-seeding in lowa would be necessary.

Lower quotations on hogs led to a sharp setback in the value of provisions. Pork fell $1.25 a barrel. Rallies which ensued were ascribed to
