KILLS WIFE WITH AN AX CUTS THROAT AND DROWNS

Man of Weak Mind Attacks Woman in Bed and Then Jumps Into River.

Digby, N. S., July 28.—(Special.)—Avard Morine, a laborer of Bear River, killed his wife Saturday morning with a hatchet and then after cutting his own throat with a razor, rushed to the river and threw himself in, drowning before a rescue could be effected.

About a year ago, Morine contracted typhoid fever, and since his recovery had been mentally unbalanced.

About 5.30 o'clock Saturday morning Morine's 6-year-old son, who slept in the room with his parents, says Morine came into the room making a great noise by which he was awakened. He was then terrified to see his father attack his mother with a hatchet, striking at her viciously with the keen blades, the blood flying over the bedclothes at every blow.

Edward Morine, brother of the unfortunate man, hearing the noise and seeing his brother in the stream, attempted to effect a rescue, but Avarad was determined not to be subdued, and by the time Edward was able to get to him life was extinct.

Morine's insanity also showed itself in unreasonable jealousy of his wife, so much so that Mrs. Morine at times had reason to fear she might meet with injury at the hands of her husband. She was 40 years old and very handsome.

During the past few years several startling occurrences have taken place at Bear River. The murder of Annie Kempton by Peter Wheeler dates back to ten years, and since that time there have been five tragedies.

TO THE MINES. (Canadian Associated Press Cable), London, July 29.—Two hundred Yorkshire miners called for the Dominion Coal colliers of Nova Scotia.

YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS LICENSES ARE GRANTED THREE HOTELS IN WESTON

Radial Rumors in North Toronto—Accident at the Junction—Some Saturday Sports.

Toronto Junction, July 29.—The West York license commissioners met on Saturday evening and granted the transfer from John Bailey to L. Wynn. The owner of the property, Robert Davis, is making extensive repairs. In the case of the Eagle House, the license for the balance of the term was granted, the repairs having been completed. W. J. Burke, seeing that renovation is the order of the day, is also making extensive repairs to the Russell House, so that Weston will have three first-class hotels. For the Hunter Hotel, F. Armstrong, who at the beginning of the season was granted a license for three months so that the house might be put into proper shape, was also given a license for the balance of the term, the landlord, Mr. Woods, having started to do the repairs required by the commissioners.

Fred Connelly, son of Edward Connelly, of 84 Carlton-street, met with a serious accident on Saturday morning while at work with Palmer Piano Co. He cut his right wrist with a chisel, severing the main artery and leading tendons. Dr. Harris attended his injury and had him sent to Grace Hospital.

John Joseph, son of John Boylan of South Keele-street, died on Saturday morning after an illness extending over a period of five years. Deceased was 21 years of age. He had been in the west last winter, expecting that the climate would be beneficial. The funeral will take place Monday morning at St. Cecilia's Church, thence to Mount Hope Cemetery.

The town is coming to the front in cricket as well as lacrosse. On Saturday afternoon, the Toronto Cricket Club met at St. Matthew's Club in Toronto on their grounds at the corner of Pacific-avenue and Beatrice-street, and defeated them by a score of 71 to 21. Nicholls made 23, and Sexton 13.

The sidewalk contractors have a busy time keeping dogs off the newly laid concrete sidewalks before the frost has a chance to dry, and some day there will be trouble. No dog has a right to run at large and do damage. The contractor's treatment to prosecute for damages if the nuisance is not stopped.

At the Davisville grounds on Saturday afternoon the Ossington lacrosse team beat the home twelve by ten goals to two. It is hinted that the Radial Railway Co. is making fresh overtures to the town council for the privilege of double tracking Yonge-street, which the summer travel has again demonstrated as absolutely necessary if a full service with any kind of safety is to be maintained. The company appears to be in the frame of mind to make concessions in the shape of a much cheaper fare, but not to the extent of a single fare for the city and local system.

BUYING MORE REAL ESTATE WHILE DISCARDING STOCKS

Turn in Choice of Investments—Buyers Want to See What They Have.

That a decided turn in the choice of investments and speculations has taken place and is increasing in volume in Ontario one has but to glance along the "purchase" sheets of the Toronto real estate brokers to be convinced. A World man made a careful canvass of the estate brokers to ascertain the class and volume of investments in their line.

Without suggestion the almost invariable return was: "We are recording more deposits and the initial payments on real estate properties by men who have formerly bought bonds and stocks for investment than ever before in our experience, and, perhaps, even in the history of Ontario ventures."

As to the reason, it seems that people are timid to make even conservative commitments in stocks at prices where a few years ago they were flooding the market with orders. The panic of 1903 is not quite forgotten, and even now when the whole situation seems to be mollified by changing conditions, there is a reluctance to enter into investments where four or five years ago every man with a thousand had the temerity of a Lawson or Keenan.

Result of Investigations. The recent investigations in industrial and commercial enterprises have without doubt, had much to do with calling into question the minds of otherwise too venturesome underwriters and speculators. They have been taught a lesson. They have learned the great percentage, they have been playing against in purchasing securities at a slight profit, is a small yield in the face of the inevitable eventual depreciation, which always happens at the most sanguine moment.

They have learned from that lesson that the only true responsibility and hope from any investment are the assets behind it. After Tangible Assets. Viewing the situation from this standpoint it is readily seen why the cautious investor or speculator is increasing his margins on real estate—tangible assets—which even the depression should come, he will always be able to realize, and with greater satisfaction than if his assets were securities whose prices were based on the company's "capacity to earn."

GORKY CRIES TO AMERICA TO SAVE RUSSIAN PEOPLE

Czar Will Now Inaugurate Policy of Brutal and Bestial Reprisals, He Says.

New York, July 28.—Maxim Gorky, the Russian author, to-day made public an appeal directed to the people of America to "Help the people of Russia to free its body from the parasites which suck its life blood." The appeal was in part as follows: "The czar has dispersed the duma. This small man, trembling on his throne for his life and power like an aspen leaf, has with one stroke of his pen destroyed all semblance of law in Russia and called into life a new series of murders, robberies and outrages. The Russian government will now inaugurate a policy of brutal and bestial reprisals. The hangmen and thieves surrounding the throne and supporting it with bloodstained hands have of late heard many bitter and insulting truths from the lips of courageous and honest men. They will avenge themselves for it, and their vengeance will be severe. Embittered, accustomed to shed blood, and encouraged by the reign of lawlessness, they will once more appal the world by their deeds. They will commence to annihilate the unarmed and defenceless people, who love peace and civilization, and who have been so impatiently hoping for the triumph of justice. The black, blood-soaked struggle of death will utter over the country for months. The exhausted earth will swallow thousands of corpses of men whose only crime was the desire to live a human life. Many women and children will perish from bullets, swords and clubs. Many crying outrages will be perpetrated. The world will be seized with horror and indignation. Here and there public meetings will be held at which the speakers will eloquently denounce the czar and his band of savages. The speakers will be rewarded by applause and the public will leave the meetings in the proud conviction that they have responded to the call of the unfortunate people of a foreign land and thus discharged their duty to humanity. At the same time the blood of the Russians will flow in wide streams."

"Are we civilized people or are we not?" Gorky then asks. He declares that he thinks not, and that the people who live quietly when everything is in the proud conviction that they are simply satiated animals. "If such crying horrors occur as those which we now witness in Russia, true men and women cannot remain quiet at their sight," he asserts. He closed with an appeal for help for Russia and asked, "Are there in this country living men and will they hear me?"

The car struck a big water bar in the road, bounded into the air, then turned turtle and landed on the rocks at the side of the road. The car was demolished. Mr. Vaughan escaped without serious injury.

THREE CARS OFF THE TRACK PASSENGERS GET SHAKING

Mishap to G.T.R. Train From Detroit at Bathurst St.—Wash-out at Sunnyside.

The derailing at the foot of Bathurst-street of three passenger coaches of the Grand Trunk train from Detroit, gave the passengers, of whom there were about 150, something of a shaking up last evening. No one was actually hurt, and the coaches themselves sustained no damage. Terminal Superintendent H. H. Brewer, who was soon on the scene, was unable to account for the cause of the cars leaving the rails.

The train, which was due in Toronto at 8.15 p.m., was 20 minutes late, the mishap occurring about 8.30 p.m., just as the train had passed from under the bridge which spans the tracks at the foot of Bathurst-street. The engine had slowed down in compliance with the regulations prescribing the rate of speed within the city limits, and the train was moving along at something like 15 miles an hour. At the point reached there is a cross-over of tracks, known as the Bathurst-street V or "diamond." Within the last few years there have been a number of freight cars damaged, with damage to rolling stock, but passenger trains have been immune. The flagman in remarking on the incident of last night, said that he had not in 12 years been a witness of a passenger train or any section of one leaving the tracks at the point.

Three Coaches Were Off. A rather violent jarring suddenly alarmed the passengers. It lasted only a few seconds, and it was then discovered that while the engine and baggage coach remained on the track, the three passenger coaches making up the train had swerved off several feet, in so doing the leading coach was detached from the other two and was brought to a standstill about 30 feet away. In its course it did violence to the road-bed, twisting the rails and tearing up ballast. The passengers, their journey brought to this abrupt end, but thankful that they had escaped with sound limbs, alighted and finished their trip by street car.

Worked All Night. An auxiliary engine was soon on the spot and under the direction of H. H. Brewer, superintendent of terminals, worked all night repairing the damage done, and replacing the coaches on the tracks. No stay in traffic was caused, it being switched to another line.

A washout at Sunnyside slightly delayed some of the afternoon trains. A sewer is being laid on Wilson-avenue, and in the heavy downpour of rain a stretch of 40 feet on the north line of tracks had the heaviest washout. It was necessary to run all traffic over the other line until about 7.30 p.m., when the track was repaired.

FATAL SHOOTING AFFRAY.

After Brandishing Revolver, Young Man Kills Another. Huntingdon, July 28.—Saturday night a shooting affray took place at the little hamlet of Cazaville. Some thirty farmers and laborers had gathered about the hotel, among them Ernest Lee, a son of the late Patrick Lee of Lee's Corners, and Jean B. Lerol. A slight disturbance arose, Lee, who had the insane habit of carrying a revolver, drew his weapon, and after firing two shots deliberately leveled it at the breast of Lerol, who was within five feet of him when he fired, the bullet passing thru the left side of Lerol's heart.

Lee then flourished his revolver and threatening to shoot anyone who dared to interfere with him, made his escape. At daylight Sunday morning Dale Laurin, bailiff, went to Lee's home where he found him in bed asleep. He was placed under arrest. Lee was about the same age, and heretofore bore a good character.

HARSHA FOND OF TORONTO.

Would Sooner Have Jail Here Than Liberty in Chicago. Frank Harsha, who has been in jail since last November, fighting extradition, was taken to Chicago last night by two detectives. He is a printer, and is wanted there on the charge of printing bogus tickets for the police benefit concert. He expects to be acquitted, and said before leaving he would rather be in jail in Toronto than at liberty in Chicago.

MR. BECK AT PORT ARTHUR SEES LOCAL POWER PLANT

Predicts Great Future for the Twin Lake Towns—The Coming Canadian Pittsburg.

Port Arthur, July 28.—(Special.)—Hon. Mr. Beck and Cecil B. Smith, members of the hydro-electrical power commission were guests of Port Arthur yesterday. The morning was spent in visiting the local power plant of Port Arthur, and also looking over the public utilities of the lake town. In the evening the Hon. Mr. Beck was banqueted at the Marltagg, and business men of the town attended. Mr. Beck made an able speech on government development of the powers of Ontario. He stated that people should derive the whole benefit of those great assets of power and that the power should be controlled by government. He said that the great faith of the people of these towns would make them great towns and centres. Pittsburg has been made by coal, and Port Arthur with its water power will become the Pittsburg of Canada. He said that in no place in the world could a more beautiful town be found than Port Arthur. It was one of the most energetic towns, knowing its natural advantages and its own resources. This would make the town a great centre and it should be the manufacturing centre of Canada.
