SPORTING MISCELLANY.

Silver Sticks Stamp of Approval on Tommy Burns-General Notes.

Says George Siler: Jack O'Brien did not loosen Tommy Burns' grasp on the heavy-weight championship title at Los Angeles Wednesday night as was predicted and expected by the majority of the followers of the game throughout the country. In fact, according to press accounts of the battle, Jack was fortunate to receive a draw. Although Hogan is one of the few who do not like his man to fight and evidently does not like the son of grapes.

Beel won the wrestling match from (Goth Saturday night at New Orleans. The contest was for the championship of America and Goth was a hot favorite in the betting.

With doctors, his mother and sister attending him, Philadelphia's Jack O'Brien did not lead a very splendid life of apartments in Hotel Argosy, says a Los Angeles despatch. To anyone but the physician, the picture of a man that O'Brien is, the punishment inflicted by Burns on Thanksgiving evening would seem to be a very severe one. President Darrach on Saturday made his appointments to the O. H. A. Executive. He was assisted by Mr. H. H. Hope and Dr. C. E. Gilfillan of Exbridge.

A Brockville despatch says that ice races in Ogdensburg are a possibility the early part of January next. An association is being formed to handle the undertaking, and several purses will be offered.

The report of the graduate treasurer of Harvard University, made public at Cambridge, shows that Harvard football last year came the nearest in the history of the gridiron sport at Cambridge to being a hundred-thousand-dollar business. The gross receipts of the Crimson football management during the season of 1905 were $85,333.66, which is nearly $17,000 more than was taken in during 1904.

Robert Kerr, Hamilton's champion sprinter, was once more successful in his races in Buffalo Saturday night at the annual athletic meet in the Seventy-fourth Armories. In the 100 yards he was the only man to scratch, his competitors, including handicaps to the extent of nine yards. A little over anxiety caused Bob to be neutralized, for the pistol, for which he was penalized by being put back one yard. Even with this extra handicap, he was able to show his competitors the way to the tape, and has added another beautiful gold watch to his collection of jewelry.

Starters in the race. In the 250 yards race, he was unable to make the turns and only finished third.

Short Stop Billiards.

New York, Dec. 2.—Albert Cutler of Boston defeated William Phillips of Philadelphia to-night in 18.2 ball-billiard tournament for the shortstop championship, 400 to 288, and three two were tied for first place. In the afternoon Al. Taylor of Chicago won from Tom Gallagher of this city, 400 to 190, which gives third place to Gallagher, with Taylor and Edward McLaughlin tied for fourth place.

Amateurs Return From North After Pleasant Trip—Challenge to Jack Munro.

The amateur boxers returned yesterday from Cobalt, after a most pleasant trip and a satisfactory tournament. The results of the last night were as follows: Special bout—Jugger beat Briggs on a foul.

125 lbs.—Christie beat McCarthy, another special, hard bout.

145 lbs.—Lang beat Holt, best bout of the tournament.

165 lbs.—Laum beat J. McMahon.

Heavyweight—Baldwin beat F. Laum.

Tyrrell and Briggs, both Englishmen, were the only two to fight from Toronto. Baldwin knocked out Tyrrell in less than a minute the first night. Daily city tournament stakes ring.

Among the notables in Cobalt is Jack Munro, the Butte Miner, who once knocked down Jim Jeffries. He is looking for a bout and Prof. Moriarty says Briggs will be willing to turn professional and match with Munro. For this purpose $250 is posted at the Cobalt Hotel as Baldwin's forfeit.

John L. Sullivan, who 12 years ago was the heavyweight of the world, is in Cincinnati this week appearing at one of the theatres. Sullivan is better than any pugilist living, and for the same time only appearing on the stage in a monolog act, he now being and will be seen again with Kid Cutler along with his monolog.

Joe Gans passed thru Chicago last night en route for Memphis, Tenn., where on Jan. 1 he is slated to fight Kid Herman for a world title. Gans is a very good fighter, while there and agreed to give Nelson a return fight at Bay, Nev., for a $90,000 prize.

BASKETBALL OPENING.

West End Wins Two Games of Basketball From All Saints.

West End Y.M.C.A. open the basketball season with a double-header last night, the opposing teams being All Saints and West End Y.M.C.A. team, and Junior City League teams from the same associations.

The first game was a fast exhibition of basketball and brought out several good combinations. West End had the advantage of being on their own floor and won out handsily by a score of 58 to 30. The teams lined up as follows:

West End (58): P. Hams and J. Ralston, forwards; W. Robertson, center; A. Kyle and L. Lee, defense.

All Saints (30): Hughes and Cook, forwards; Sargeant, center; Richard and Fahy, defense.

The second game the Junior Canadian and city champions met All Saints Juniors, the runners-up in the city league. The game was very fast at times and some fine combination work was indulged in by the team specially. All Saints played the game, Wilson at centre was excellent, making two free use of his extra weight, and scored several points for his team. The West End boys all showed good form for the early in the season and demonstrated their hardy by a score of 44 to 20.

There was also much excitement caused by the potato race between teams from the Junior and intermediate departments. Fred Steinhilber for the Juniors won the event, making a new record for the boys' department.

Messrs. Scott and McDonald gave a spirited exhibition of fencing, which was much appreciated by the audience.

Messrs. Davis and Latremouille astonished the audience by their marvelous feats of strength and speed, repeatedly applauded for their good work.

Music furnished thru the evening by Mr. Davis.

Granite Open To-Night.

The Granite Curling Club with its new floor and modernized system of electric lighting, will open to-night, on Wednesday night the skating rink and curling rink will be open to the public.

Robert Fitzsimmons expressed surprise at a published statement that Hugo Kelly, the acknowledged middleweight champion, is out with a challenge to fight any man in the world. Kelly has no intention of knowing how this fellow Kelly has any right.
