He remained in the western province for about a year and then went north to the gold fields. In letters re-ceived by his mother and wife recently, he spoke of his success in staking out several large claims, and promised to return home next Christmas. His last letter came about a week ago, having been written `on the Bith of March, in which he described the St. Patrick's Day procession. Deceased was 27 years of age, and his father was the late William Ryan. He was also a nephew of the late Hugh Ryan. Five years ago he started in the wholesale provision business on Church-street. He was a member of "1" company, Q.O.R., and was well-known in the city. Besides a widow, who is the daughter of Patrick Burns, he leaves one boy, three years of age. Rev. Father Ryan received the first in-timation of Mr. Ryan's death in the follow-ing telegram yesterday: Roderick A. Ryan is dead; body embalam-et. James G. Larkin. Unworkable Franchise Act. To a question by Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper as to whether the Clerk of the Crown in Chancery had received original copies of voters' lists from the clerks of municipalities under the new Franchise Act, the Premier gave an answer which shows the unworkability of the Act. It appears from Ontario "most of the lists" have been received, from Quebec "some," and full returns only from New Brunswick and British Columbia. In the recent bye-elections the lists of 1808 and 1897 were used.
