Correspondence Between Earl Grey and Lord Crewe is Presented to Parliament

OTTAWA, May 19.—(Special.)—Sir Wilfrid Laurier this morning presented to the house the correspondence in regard to naval defence, as passed be-tween the imperial and federal authori-ties. The premier announced that the invitation to the conference in London had been accepted and that two ministers would go to London when the time arrived.

The correspondence shows that on which are to-day independent, Morocco and Abyssinia, the latter is the most prominent. For many years the death of the sovereign of Abyssinia has been followed by a civil war and anarchy, and since 1841 no sovereign of the old royal fine has occupied the throne. Meneitk, the present ruler, however, is garding an amusing poet. The latter is in love with the woman and imagines that she reciprocates his passion. This leads to many dramatic scenes between the classical particular and the clas son, the young prince.
