Denied Ransom and Chased by Troops, They Slay Captive

Canadian Press
MEXICO CITY, Sept. 17.—Jacob Rosenthal, a United States citizen was murdered by his bandit captors on Wednesday night when the troops closed in upon them.

Having failed to receive the $10,000 ransom demanded, and being hampered in their flight by the weak old man, the criminals killed him rather than let him be rescued alive by the Federal troops with whom they were engaged in a running fight.

BANDITS TRACKED.
The tragedy occurred in wild country, less than 40 miles from Mexico City. The Federal troops had tracked down the gang and had killed two of the bandits when the pursuit was halted by the recovery of the body of the captive. Later the pursuit was resumed after the bandits, who are believed to be only a small group.

The reason for Mrs. Marlowe's resignation are not given, but The London Times says it will inevitably be connected with the incident which occurred in August when Lord Rothermere in an article published in The Sunday Pictorial dissociated himself from the policy adopted by The Daily Mail in respect to allied debts and America.

Priddle, 20 Simonds street, on Thursday evening, Sept. 16, at 6.30 o'clock, when their eldest daughter, Edith Annie, was united in marriage, by Rev. Hugh Miller of St. David's United church, to Harold James Graham, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James B. Graham of Richibucto.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a wedding gown of oak buff georgette with blonde moire skirt and stockings to match and fox fur, the gift of the bridegroom, carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses.

Miss Alice Knodell acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of peach georgette with black picture hat and carried an old fashioned nosegay. Little Miss Bertha Priddle, sister of the bride, was flower girl, and wore a dress of white silk and carried a basket of sweet peas.

Miss Lillian Priddle played the wedding music. The bridegroom was supported by Ralph Thorne.

After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served and later the bride and groom left by motor on a short honeymoon. Going away the bride wore a navy blue tailored suit with smart felt hat and fox fur. Many beautiful and useful gifts were received, including cut glass, china and silver. Among them were a beautiful Limoges china tea set from the bride's fellow employees with T. Rankine & Sons Ltd., with whom she had been for several years, and a silver service from other employees. Mr. and Mrs. Graham will reside at 200 Main street.

Society Brand Clothes For Men

Why Their Wide Popularity?

Their smart cut—that's the answer. Any maker—if he wants to—can give you sturdy fabrics and careful tailoring. But only Society Brand can give you as well the distinctive Society Brand cut.

No matter how fine the fabric—or how excellent the tailoring—if the cut is not absolutely correct, a suit or overcoat cannot look its best. When you choose a Society Brand, you can be certain, not only of choice fabrics and expert tailoring, but also correct cut—the one lasting touch of smartness that well-dressed men admire.

The double-breasted suit is more in favor than ever. It looks well on most men. The new fall double-breasted models are interestingly different and smart. And the Society Brand label in the inside pocket is your guide not only to correct cut, but also to unequalled value.
