

THE EVENING TIMES-STAR, ST. JOHN, N. B., THURSDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1924

Social Notes of Interest

Mrs. Percy Thomson and her son, Mr. Eric Thomson, will leave by motor for North Carolina in a few days to remain for the winter.

Mrs. Fred Caverhill Jones was hostess yesterday at a cosy luncheon for Mrs. J. D. Chipman, of Toronto, and Mrs. Lucien deBury, of Montreal, at her residence, 180 Germain street. The other guests were Mrs. Walter A. Harri-son, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. Charles Beard, Mrs. Percy Thomson. The guests attended the Valcartier bridge in the afternoon.

Mr. W. I. Fenton entertained Commander Lieutenant H. G. Reid, of H. M. S. Patriot, and the first engineer at a duck shooting outing on the St. John River one day last week. They enjoyed luncheon, returning in the late afternoon with a good bag of birds.

Mr. and Mrs. Douglas V. White, who were in Moncton for a few days, have returned home.

Miss Ethel Hasen Jarvis entertained Miss R. E. Hamilton, R.N., and Miss Huihla Dykeman at luncheon yesterday at Green's dining hall, prior to Miss Hamilton's departure on the evening train for her home in Toronto. Miss Hamilton will take up permanently Red Cross work in her own province of Ontario.

Hon. Dr. and Mrs. William Pugsley have arrived in Ottawa and are at the Chateau Laurier.

Mr. W. L. Caldwell entertained at a bridge for his gentlemen friends last evening.

Mrs. Charles FitzRandolph, of Fredericton, who was the guest of Miss Mabel Thomson, has returned home.

Mrs. John D. Chipman, who has been the guest of her daughter, Mrs. J. Royden Thomson, R.N., will leave for her home in Toronto on Saturday.

Mrs. H. B. Robinson and Mrs. T. B. Robinson, mother of the former's husband, will arrive home very shortly from Montreal, where they went some time ago to visit the other sons of Mrs. Robinson, senior.

Mr. E. J. Terry, who has been in the General Public Hospital for several weeks following a serious operation, was able to return to his home, Goodrich street, yesterday. He will not be able to be about for several days.

ST. JOHN BAPTIST WOMEN ENTERTAIN

St. John the Baptist church hall, Broad street, was an animated centre for the successful bridge of 62 tables played last evening, under the auspices of the Ladies' Association of the church. Miss Nellie McCarthy, assisted by Miss Stella McDermott, convened the event, which was greatly enjoyed. The ladies of the society served delicious refreshments, superintended by Mrs. James H. Dood, president. Rev. J. J. McDermott, rector of the church, received the guests and made the announcements for closing the game; the call to supper and the names of the prize winners. The decorations were particularly well carried out with the Halloween idea pronounced, with yellow curtains on the windows, with black cats, witches and other symbols of the season. The serving table, set on the platform at the head of the assembly room, was attractive, with a large pumpkin, grinning at the company and having for company golden candles, which displayed many and delicious kinds of sandwiches, cake and dainty biscuits. The waitresses were prompt and attractive in their semi-formal gowns. There were present as special guests, Very Rev. Dean Carney, of St. Dunstan's, Fredericton; Rev. Joseph Ward, of Sussex; Rev. Simon Oram, of Riverside, and Rev. Frank Cronin, of Holy Trinity, St. John. Dean Carney, who was the guest of Rev. Father McDermott last night, was cordially received by the large assembly and made a genial guest, as he renewed old friendships among former parishioners who now reside in St. John.

The prize winners were announced at midnight and were: for bridge, Mrs. D. J. Doherty and Miss Mary Culley; for four handed auction, Mrs. Aves, Miss Jennie Stevens, Miss Madeline Sullivan, M. T. Chohlan and William Ritchie; for six handed, Mrs. Aves, George McDermott.

I. O. D. E. BRIDGE IS GREATLY ENJOYED

A most successful and enjoyable bridge of more than sixty tables was Valcartier Chapter, I. O. D. E., at the Pythian Castle. At a few of the tables Mah Jongg was played.

Mrs. Hugh McLean, regent of the chapter, wearing a navy blue plaided crepe frock and tan ducky hat, received the guests. She was assisted by Mrs. R. J. Campbell, first vice-regent, who wore rust crepe heavily embroidered in copper beads with a paisley and fur hat.

Mrs. Arthur Carter was in charge of the tickets. Mrs. Frank Miller and Mrs. Thomas McAvity had charge of the home made candy, which was sold in dainty little Halloween boxes.

Bridge was played until five o'clock when tea was served. The tea table which was presided over by Mrs. Heber Vroom, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. T. E. G. Armstrong and Mrs. Royden Thomson, was aglow with many candles and a huge grinning pumpkin in the centre—black cats and witches or broomsticks added the weird touch of Halloween.

Mrs. Fred R. Taylor was at the head of the refreshment committee and the credit of the decorations goes to Miss Barbara Jack and Miss Audrey McLean. All the members of the chapter assisted at tea.

The first prize, a handsome hand made bridge cloth, was won by Mrs. Ralph Robertson; the second, cards in leather case, by Mrs. Kelly; the third, silk stockings, won by Mrs. King Huen, and the fourth, handkerchief, won by Mrs. Mortimer. The special Mah Jongg prize was won by Mrs. Allan McAvity.

Among those present were—Mrs. George F. Smith, Mrs. Malcolm MacKay, Mrs. Busby, Mrs. Sherwood Skinner, Mrs. Stewart Skinner, Mrs. Arthur Adams, Mrs. James Jack, Mrs. Simeon Jones, Mrs. Heber Vroom, Mrs. Andrew Jack, Mrs. Thomas Bell, Mrs. Royden Thomson, Mrs. Walter Harrison, Mrs. Allan Schofield, Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson, Mrs. Lee Day, Mrs. Allan McAvity, Mrs. Arthur Bowman, Mrs. G. The fastest-cooking cereal

COLDER weather calls for hot breakfasts. Now, you can prepare a steaming cereal every morning in 3 to 5 minutes. Quick Quaker cooks perfectly while you make the coffee.

Quick Quaker is just as delicious and flavoury as the regular Quaker Oats you have always known. It is just as wholesome and nourishing. It is packed in the same sealed cartons.

The only difference is that in Quick Quaker, the grains are cut in two, rolled thinner and partly cooked before packing. Because of this, it cooks perfectly in less time than it takes to boil coffee or fry eggs.

Your grocer has both kinds of Quaker Oats now. Get whichever kind you prefer. Look for the picture of the Quaker on each package.
