vegetables, cheese, oil and sour milk, there was a continuous high birth rate and no decrease.

Here in the West Indies, where the dark races live on yams, sweet potatoes, cassava, Indian corn, sugar, milk, coconuts, bananas and oranges, with some salt fish, the birth rate is high and the fertility irrepressible.

Owing to ignorance and want of sanitation the infant mortality is high, but when that is removed the black population will multiply at a far higher rate than the white and the world's population of the world learns that it is corn, oil and wine, salads, milk and honey which produce a fertile race, and that most eating spoils increased fertility.

America's Oldest Bank Building.
(Baltimore Sun.)

Within twenty miles of where the first English settlement in America was made at Jamestown is the scene where Captain John Smith records the story of his rescue by Pocahontas, the daughter of the Indian chief, Powhatan. Within a circle of twenty miles is to be found the oldest Protestant church in America; the kitchen where Martha Washington cooked in good colonial style; the college which has graduated three presidents; Barton Church in which more men of historical importance have worshipped than in any other church in America—and Yorktown, where Cornwallis surrendered to Washington.

Although Yorktown has a population of less than two hundred, it has two banks, both of which are working in what are probably the two oldest buildings for banks in America. One of these banks, operating under state and trust company laws is housed in the historic oldest customs-house built in America—erected in 1715. Here the Bos for Philadelphia were once compelled to enter and clear. Here at one time was the gathering place of the fin-anciers of the early colonies. Wall Street has taken away the financiers, but has left the same old building with its same old walls of English brick, some twenty-four by forty feet square and two stories high.

BULLET UNDER HEART

HIS HOUSEKEEPER, Ottawa, Feb. 21—Stanislaus Demoutin, him from the house, he turned a revolver on himself, the bullet entering just be-
