

GOOD THINGS COMING TO THEATRES OF ST. JOHN

"THE KAISER"—"BEAST OF BERLIN"

Pictorial Arrangement of World's Arch-Enemy Monday

A Sensational Yet Truthful and Powerful Presentation of The Man Who Brought on The Awful War

Rupert Julian, long identified with Bluebird and Universal productions, made his bow as an independent feature producer at the Broadway theater Saturday evening, March 9, where his seven-reel production, "The Kaiser, the Beast of Berlin," opened for an indefinite run.

Julian himself, enacts the title role of "The Kaiser." With features that lend themselves readily to a facial resemblance to the German war lord his screen appearance is uncanny in its fidelity to the published portraits of the Prussian ruler.

Not content with merely physically resembling the central character of his production the player-director closely studied the various memoirs that have been written by people formerly of the Imperial Court. These furnished him with the mannerisms and habits for which the Kaiser is peculiar, and so enabled the producer to lend an additional air of realism to the production.

Fractions every important character in the German Court is represented in "The Kaiser." Bethman-Hollweg, Admiral Von Tirpitz, Von Hindenburg, Admiral Von Plessen, General Falkenhayn, General Von Bessler, General Von Der Goltz, and others. Famous characters embraced under the Allied battle flags who are seen include President Wilson, Ambassador Gerard, General Pershing, General Buller, General Joffre, General Diaz, and King Albert of Belgium.

A notable cast enacts the important roles. Among the more prominent players who appear are Allen Sears, Nigel De Bruiller, Lon Chaney, Mark Fenton, Harry Carter, W. H. Reinhardt, Harry Von Meter, Walter Belasco, Wadsworth Harris, Winter Hall, Elmo Lincoln, Robert Gordon, Joseph Girard, Alfred Allen, Harry Hicklin, George W. Stone, Gifford, Betty Carpenter, Ruby Lafayette, Gretchen Lederer, and Zoe Rice—Motion Picture World.

HUNDREDS OF DOZENS OF EGGS DESTROYED HERE

While the cry for conservation of food and for greater production is being promulgated throughout the civilized world, wholesale waste goes on.

A glaring instance was brought to light this morning when a Times' representative had occasion to visit the south end. While watching a city employe operating the incinerator at the foot of Broad street, he was surprised to see a barrel containing liquid eggs and a large quantity of shells. Upon enquiry he learned that it was by no means unusual for barrels of rotten eggs to be brought there to be burnt.

The man in charge said that as many as five barrels and five cases have been brought to him one time. He estimated that each barrel contained at least 200 dozen eggs and the cases thirty-four dozen, making in all, 2,870 eggs. He said that an many as fifty barrels and some cases have been brought to him during the winter to be burnt. This would roughly aggregate 120,000 eggs.

HARRY HAYES AND JUNIOR ACQUITTED; DISAGREEMENT AS TO THE FOUR OTHERS

His Honor Judge Barry addressed the jury at length this morning in the case of the King vs. Hayes et al, charged with stealing wool from the warehouse of the Colonial Hide Company. His Honor concurred in the view expressed on behalf of the crown that where stolen goods were found in the possession of the defendants, it was sufficient proof, and the onus then rested upon the defendants to prove satisfactorily how the goods came into their possession. He said it was not necessary for the crown to produce the mysterious John McLean, as had been suggested by the defence, and concluded by explaining to the jurors that the defendants should have the benefit of any reasonable doubt in the matter. The jury retired a little after eleven o'clock, and when the court adjourned for lunch at one o'clock had not then arrived at a verdict.

After being out since eleven o'clock the jury in the wool case returned at ten minutes to two with a verdict of not guilty in the case of Hayes, senior and junior. GERMANS PRESS AHEAD A LITTLE EAST OF AMIENS

(Continued from page 1) BETWEEN DEVIL AND THE DEEP SEA. Paris, April 4.—(Montreal Gazette Cable)—General Berthaut, in the Petit Journal asserts that the Germans are between the devil and the deep sea and cannot stop where they are. He argues that they must force their advance further or fall back to the much better positions which they held at the start of the present offensive.

If the offensive were really ended, General Berthaut adds, he would expect to see the Germans fall back even without any pressure from the Allies. He believes, however, that under no circumstances will the Germans make such a decision without first exhausting all the possibilities of renewing their offensive.

He says that the Germans are known to be bringing forward their heavy artillery. The Busy Airmen. London, April 5.—Describing the air fighting on the western front, the correspondent of the Daily News says that never before in any army have airplanes been used in such great concentration. On one sector of the battlefield as many as 300 machines were in the air at one time. The use of machine guns on enemy troops, guns and transports by low flying machines has also been carried to a point far beyond anything in previous experience.

Baker's Visit Historic. London, April 5.—The recent visit of Newton D. Baker, the American secretary of war, the Daily Mail says, was a historic one, as it was then decided that American legations should be brigaded with British and French troops on the western front.

Premier Lloyd George, it says, acquainted Mr. Baker with the situation and expressed the lively desire of the British government for the immediate employment of the American forces. Secretary Baker was much impressed and went to France the next day and saw General Pershing.

President to His Soldiers. With the American Army in France, April 4.—(By the Associated Press)—This week's issue of "The Stars and Stripes," a soldiers' weekly, will contain the following message from President Wilson:

"Please convey to the officers and men of our expeditionary forces my warmest greetings on this, the anniversary of the entrance of the United States into the great war for liberty, and say to them that we all have very truly and gratefully admired and been very proud of the way they have so far accounted for themselves, but also have the utmost confidence that in every sense they will prove to be made of the finest metal of free men."

THREE YEARS TO SITTING SENTENCE. Calgary, April 5.—Wm. S. Stitt, alias Capt. Wm. Stewart, who was sentenced to serve a term of four years for bigamy, has been given another three years, having pleaded guilty to charges of wearing the king's uniform without signing as a member of his majesty's forces, and also for wearing decorations and gold braid signifying that he had been wounded. The charges were preferred by Major J. M. Carson, deputy judge advocate general for Alberta, who prosecuted the case before the magistrate. Stitt will now have to serve seven years in Edmonton penitentiary.

Toronto Team Beaten. Cleveland, Ohio, April 5.—The all-stars hockey team here defeated the Toronto, five to four last night.
