THE BEST QUALITY AT A REASONABLE PRICE

Don't Bother With Two Pairs of Glasses

A reserve pair of glasses is good judgment. But having one pair for near vision and another for far vision is inconvenient and behind the times. Bifocals are the modern glasses. The upper part of the lens gives far vision, the lower part near vision. There is no dividing line in the glass. Apparently it is an ordinary one-range lens. We are experts in fitting bifocals. Come in and let us demonstrate how practical they are.

EXCAVATION BANKS COLLAPSED

The heavy rains yesterday caused a considerable loss to the contractors who are digging trenches for the new city water mains. As usual, on most of the jobs the contractors had taken a chance for rain. The excavation they were digging up the walls of the excavations and the downward caused them to collapse. The trench which was ready to be filled was almost half filled again. The N. B. Building and Contracting Co. is a similar experience in City road.

A BASKETBALL MATTER

Whether or not a series of games for the junior championship between the Portland and Westport teams will be played to a finish depends upon an answer from the captain of the West Side nine, according to the manager of the Portland. He says that on last Saturday his nine were on deck to play the Westport team but the referee had been lined his men up and claimed both games. He contends that this is a double breach of the rules. He maintains that his team is ready to fight it out with the Westport team, but desires an answer. If none appears, he says, he will arrange to play another team.

TROUBLE WITH THE MAINS

Water pressure in the city is lower than usual today, as a result of repairs in No. 2 main at the Trafalton property, just beyond the One Mile House, last night. In order to maintain the low filling blew out of a joint. A gang of men was hurried to the scene and worked all night. In order to maintain the city service while the main was shut off for repairs, adjustments were made in the connections of the water meters, but the trouble was accentuated by the blowing out of a stop-cock at the round-house, and one time the pressure on the water works office gauge showed only thirty pounds. Today it is almost back to normal. The repairs have not yet been completed.

REUTHER AND KERR THE SIXTH GUESS FOR THE

Chicago, Oct. 7.—Manager Gleason of the White Sox, before leaving for Cincinnati for the sixth game of the world's series with the Reds, said he was "sick at heart" over the way his men had played the game. "I don't know what the matter," said Gleason, "but I do know that something is wrong with my team. The team I had fighting in August for the pennant would have trimmed the Reds without a struggle. The bullpen I have now could not beat a high school team. We hit something over 280 for the season in the American League. I can't remember the best hitting any club ever did in the history of baseball. The way those 280 hitters acted against Eilers, they couldn't make a place on a high school team. "I am convinced that I have the best ball club that ever was put together. I certainly have been disappointed in it in this series. I thought all of them were my boys. There is only one chance they can win now. "You know it doesn't seem possible that this team that worked so great for me all summer could fall down like this. I told you I am absolutely sick at heart. I thought all of them were my boys. I felt like a school teacher might feel toward his pupils. I loved those boys for the way they fought for me this summer."
