Natural Lines in Corsets

Forty odd years ago, when MAHON BROTHERS commenced business, wasp waists and hoop skirts were in vogue. The ever restless Style leaders have wrought a wonderful evolution, and corsets have played a prominent part in giving Miladi health, grace and beauty.

Just now it is the natural figure line, which grows much more pronounced as the season advances.

The newest models show the maximum degree of flexibility produced by the use of very few steels and the employment of the softest materials.

New models show the straight back, large waists, long skirts, extremely low bust and slightly relaxed abdomen. The last named effect is produced by taking out some of the boning, by the use of elastic or tricot sections, or by slight widening of the gorges.

Staple corsets do not adhere to this new line, but follow the style tendencies in regard to flexibility in a more conservative way.

The silhouette figure is graceful and desired by many. You can obtain it in many of our corset models. Select your favorite from the following:

Royal Worcester, guaranteed to fit, wear and satisfy, American Lady, extra good values, D. & A., non-rustable, Nemo, especially desirable for stout figures, C-C-a-la Grace, "qualite superieur," "La Reine," the Queen of corsets, Ferris Waists, for women and children, La Vogue, figure builder,

Come in and be fitted by expert corsetiers.
