

25 cents you spend to get

END

ocers are der. Try

& SONS, butors.

ing water off the stove this suddenly fell to the floor the water was spilled all over the deceased, scalding her. Deceased was about 75 years of age and was suffering from a heart disease. She leaves a daughter and grand-daughter and five young children. A most devout member of the Baptist church.

AMHERST

Eldest Daughter of Rev. Dr. A. Steele.

ated at Hockey Meeting of the Red Cross Society.

Feb. 10.—After a long and weary Mary M. (Pattie), daughter of Rev. D. A. and Mrs. P., passed away at an early morning. Three years ago she was troubled with a serious trouble. Miss Steele, a native of California, trusting in a congenial climate might benefit her health. A change in her health was not noticeable since she had returned to her native land. A few weeks ago she became noticeably ill. Since then she has been confined to her bed. Only a few years ago Mrs. Steele was a healthy and active woman. Her husband, Mr. Steele, was a member of the teaming business in Moncton. Some splendid playing by the home team was witnessed by the visitors, the former to 0.

of the recent Crossley evangelistic meetings down again at yesterday's session. At the Presbyterian sixty-five members, after received on the previous night, taking the sacrament. Eighteen more of the baptized receiving the fellowship, and at the other thirty being admitted to probation.

the late son of the late farmer, who dropped dead this morning while hauling McLaughlin's mill. He had had a fall from a boat and had got on top of his head. He fell forward on his head. Atkinson and others, who hauling slabs, saw him fall and found him dead. He had a wife (Miss Est) and five young children about thirty-five years of age.

NY Times thinks no government should be asked or requested of establishing facilities in Nova Scotia.

YOU LOSE

From 20 cents to 25 cents on every dollar you spend for TEA if you don't get

UNION BLEND

All the Leading Grocers are making it their leader. Try a pound of it.

GEO. S. DE FOREST & SONS, Wholesale Distributors.

TEMPERANCE COLUMN.

By the Women's Christian Temperance Union of St. John.

Trust the people—the wise and the ignorant, and the good and the bad—the great questions, and in the end you educate the race.

COUNTY CONVENTION.

The quarterly convention of the W. C. T. U. of St. John county was held on Friday, the 7th, at North Head. As the day was stormy, the attendance was not as large as had been hoped for, but all the unions except Carleton were well represented. Mrs. Harrison of north end union led the prayer meeting, and the business meeting was held in the afternoon. The report of the work done in Fairville during the last three months was most satisfactory. The day was stormy, the attendance was not as large as had been hoped for, but all the unions except Carleton were well represented.

AMHERST

Eldest Daughter of Rev. Dr. A. Steele.

ated at Hockey Meeting of the Red Cross Society.

Feb. 10.—After a long and weary Mary M. (Pattie), daughter of Rev. D. A. and Mrs. P., passed away at an early morning. Three years ago she was troubled with a serious trouble. Miss Steele, a native of California, trusting in a congenial climate might benefit her health. A change in her health was not noticeable since she had returned to her native land. A few weeks ago she became noticeably ill. Since then she has been confined to her bed. Only a few years ago Mrs. Steele was a healthy and active woman. Her husband, Mr. Steele, was a member of the teaming business in Moncton. Some splendid playing by the home team was witnessed by the visitors, the former to 0.

of the recent Crossley evangelistic meetings down again at yesterday's session. At the Presbyterian sixty-five members, after received on the previous night, taking the sacrament. Eighteen more of the baptized receiving the fellowship, and at the other thirty being admitted to probation.

the late son of the late farmer, who dropped dead this morning while hauling McLaughlin's mill. He had had a fall from a boat and had got on top of his head. He fell forward on his head. Atkinson and others, who hauling slabs, saw him fall and found him dead. He had a wife (Miss Est) and five young children about thirty-five years of age.

NY Times thinks no government should be asked or requested of establishing facilities in Nova Scotia.

THE LOCAL LEGISLATURE

Government Will Grant Aid to Cold Storage Warehouses.

More Encouragement for St. John as the Canadian Winter Port.

The Address in Reply to the speech Moved by Geo. W. Fowler in an Able Speech.

Fredericton, Feb. 13.—The members of the legislature were sworn in at 11:30 o'clock this morning in the chamber of four by Judge Vanwart in the legislative chamber. The absentees were Messrs. Lewis of Albert, Scovell of Kings, Hill of Charlotte and Sive-wright of Grand Falls. The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute. The band playing the national anthem and the canon commanded by Quartermaster Sergt. Walker fired a salute of thirteen guns. The military staff, including Major Montgomery-Campbell, A. D. C., Lieut. Bridges, Lt. Unshack and Lieut. Gray. Sheriff Sterling's turnout, so far as the horse-flesh went, was more conspicuous than that of the lieutenant governor. Hon. Mr. Birchill having been re-elected speaker, on motion of Hon. Mr. Blair, seconded by Dr. Stockton, he claimed all the ancient privileges accorded to the speaker of the assembly. Governor Fraser assented, his honor formally opened the session with his speech from the throne.

The lieutenant governor, who was dressed in black wore a silk hat, was in good voice, and appeared to biter advantage than if encased in the Windsor uniform. Justices Tuck and Vanwart were present at the opening. The galleries were packed with spectators.

The house settled down to business as soon as the opening scenes were over, and the new members were directed to some orderly speaking on the address in reply to the speech. The debate on the address was not distinguished for brilliancy on either side, the program being somewhat dry. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

The formal opening this afternoon passed off without special incident. Many ladies occupied seats on the floor of the house. The speaker of the day was Mr. R. C. Ingham, under command of Capt. Chinn, and as Lieut. Governor Fraser with Col. Gordon, A. D. C., and Lieut. Col. Mansell drove up his honor was received with a royal salute.

ready mentioned, a bill to revise and consolidate the several acts relating to highways, and various other measures of importance will be submitted for consideration, and I trust that your deliberation, under divine guidance, will be directed to result in the promotion of the general welfare.

GEORGE W. FOWLER.

In moving the address in reply to the speech from the throne, said: When I heard the names of the many able and eloquent men who have in previous years performed this honorable duty in this hall, with a feeling akin to diffidence that I rise to move the adoption of the address. After referring to the recent death of Prince Henry of Battenberg, he said the sentiment expressed in the next section of the address struck a sympathetic chord in every Canadian heart. We are now passing through a period when his torious made those who fondly dreamed that their country should be drawn and peace with sheltering wings should overshadow the earth have been sadly diminished and the fruits just reaped from their labors have been thought to have been eradicated from the hearts of men, is seen to still exist in full force and strength. Even from those nations where from their own danger to peace, and the specter of a sword being held over their heads, it is that it is pre-eminently the home of Christianity and liberty, where the oppressed and downtrodden of other countries find a harbor and a refuge, some of whose leading statesmen are ready to plunge the best part of the civilized world into a bloody war. For nearly a century the British Empire has been the great bulwark of the world, and it is that it is pre-eminently the home of Christianity and liberty, where the oppressed and downtrodden of other countries find a harbor and a refuge, some of whose leading statesmen are ready to plunge the best part of the civilized world into a bloody war.

SPORTING MATTERS.

Thistles Win the Curling Championship of New Brunswick.

(From The Daily Sun of the 18th inst.)

Thistles Win the New Brunswick Curling Championship.

The bonspiel is over and the Thistles have won the Willis medals. It was an easy victory for them. Six clubs competed for the Willis medals. The Thistles won their five games with good majorities. Their majorities over their opponents aggregated 94 points, which S. W. Milligan had 69 to his credit. Yesterday morning the game of the question and there was no curling in the afternoon or evening. Each of the other clubs had lost one or more games, so that it was useless to play the full number. The St. Stephen men got three out of the four games that they played, a very creditable record. The St. Andrew's club secured three of the five games in which they competed. Fredericton won two and lost three. Campbellton lost three, and Hampton four.

A SHOCKING CASE

Of Infantile in Chatham—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

Chatham, Feb. 13.—A most shocking case of infantile has occurred here within the last twenty-four hours. Last night Dr. John S. Benson was called to the house of George B. Fraser to attend Mary Dwyre, the domestic servant of Mr. Fraser. After the doctor had examined the patient he inquired for the new born child and was told by Mary that there was none. A search revealed a baby with its throat cut concealed under its mother's pillow. Coroner M. S. Benson was notified and the following jury of the effects of one or more wounds inflicted in its neck by its mother, one Mary Dwyre. Mary Dwyre belongs to St. Margaret's and is a daughter of Con. Dwyre of this place. She is now in the hospital and when she recovers will be taken on a coroner's warrant for the killing of her baby.

FIRE AT PETITCODIAC.

About five o'clock Wednesday morning the people of Petitcodiac were awakened by the blowing of the whistle of an I. C. R. locomotive, a special train that just arrived. People looked out of their windows and saw a large fire on Academy street. They hurried to the scene of the fire, and learned that the dwelling house, barns and other buildings, belonging to Charles Fowler were doomed to destruction, so they began getting out the contents of the buildings, and succeeded in saving nearly all the furniture in the dwelling, but the contents of the barn were destroyed. The buildings, which were worth about $1,500, were insured in the British American for $80. The furniture was also insured in the same policy for $250. Mr. Fowler has moved into the house on the lower end of Main street recently vacated by Earl O'Brien. The origin of the fire is unknown. It started in the all or barn. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Fowler because he is a hard working, industrious young man and had labored several years to accumulate the property that was destroyed.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER.

The St. Andrew's club, under whose auspices the bonspiel was held, gave a complimentary dinner at the Dufferin last night to the other clubs.

was a grand affair. The dining hall was elegantly arranged for the occasion; the tables being beautifully decorated. It was after nine o'clock when the company sat down. Prior to going up stairs, the Campbellton men, with the assistance of a few others, gave President McLaughlin of the Thistles, Sids Milligan and Willet of that club, and Skip Watson of the St. Andrew's club, a good bouncing. About fifty sat down to dinner. A. O. Skinner, president of the St. Andrew's club, was in the chair, with H. Allen, president of the Fredericton club, and Mayor Robertson on his right, and W. A. Mott, M. P., sec'y of the Campbellton club and J. B. Whitaker of the Hampton club on his left. Geo. T. Kimball was in the vice chair. President McLaughlin of the Thistles was at his right and John D. Chipman of St. Stephen at his left. The menu card was a very pretty thing. On the front page were the club's colors, and on the inside the several courses were given between two T's, one at the top and the other at the bottom of the page. The menu was as follows:

St. Andrew's club, we glad to see you. "DEAR M." "Soup" "Beef and Potatoes" "Dinner be over soon."

"Dinner be over soon." "God bless you, caller, 'n' sauce." "The 'K' O'P." "Scalloped Oysters" "Lobster Salad" "Sweet and Sour" "Apple Pie" "Bit of gold silk roast." "Bobby Jock, 'n' 'n' Shank o' Gumphe." "Takes time and makes sure of them."

"Takes time and makes sure of them." "The toast was: The Queen, the Governor General, the Roarin' Game, Our Guests; E. LeRoi Willis.

The toasts were proposed and responded to as follows: The Queen and the Governor General were drunk with musical honors. The Roarin' Game was proposed by J. D. Chipman of St. Stephen, was responded to by Rev. L. G. Macneil and E. H. Allen of Fredericton; A. O. Skinner proposed Our Guests, and T. A. Peters of Hampton, E. H. Allen of Fredericton, J. B. Ganong of St. Stephen, W. A. Mott, M. P. of Campbellton, and President McLaughlin of the Thistles responded.

After a recitation by Andrew Malcolm of the health of Mr. Willis, the proprietor of the Dufferin and he won eight medals next year to be competed for in the same way.

The St. Andrew's club, proposed by J. D. Chipman, brought out a speech from A. O. Skinner.

The Chief Magistrate of St. John, suggested by Judge Forbes, was replied to by Mayor Robertson, who presented the medals to the Thistle men. They are pretty good quality, and the health of the gentlemen who won them.

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

ready mentioned, a bill to revise and consolidate the several acts relating to highways, and various other measures of importance will be submitted for consideration, and I trust that your deliberation, under divine guidance, will be directed to result in the promotion of the general welfare.

GEORGE W. FOWLER.

In moving the address in reply to the speech from the throne, said: When I heard the names of the many able and eloquent men who have in previous years performed this honorable duty in this hall, with a feeling akin to diffidence that I rise to move the adoption of the address. After referring to the recent death of Prince Henry of Battenberg, he said the sentiment expressed in the next section of the address struck a sympathetic chord in every Canadian heart. We are now passing through a period when his torious made those who fondly dreamed that their country should be drawn and peace with sheltering wings should overshadow the earth have been sadly diminished and the fruits just reaped from their labors have been thought to have been eradicated from the hearts of men, is seen to still exist in full force and strength. Even from those nations where from their own danger to peace, and the specter of a sword being held over their heads, it is that it is pre-eminently the home of Christianity and liberty, where the oppressed and downtrodden of other countries find a harbor and a refuge, some of whose leading statesmen are ready to plunge the best part of the civilized world into a bloody war. For nearly a century the British Empire has been the great bulwark of the world, and it is that it is pre-eminently the home of Christianity and liberty, where the oppressed and downtrodden of other countries find a harbor and a refuge, some of whose leading statesmen are ready to plunge the best part of the civilized world into a bloody war.

SPORTING MATTERS.

Thistles Win the Curling Championship of New Brunswick.

(From The Daily Sun of the 18th inst.)

Thistles Win the New Brunswick Curling Championship.

The bonspiel is over and the Thistles have won the Willis medals. It was an easy victory for them. Six clubs competed for the Willis medals. The Thistles won their five games with good majorities. Their majorities over their opponents aggregated 94 points, which S. W. Milligan had 69 to his credit. Yesterday morning the game of the question and there was no curling in the afternoon or evening. Each of the other clubs had lost one or more games, so that it was useless to play the full number. The St. Stephen men got three out of the four games that they played, a very creditable record. The St. Andrew's club secured three of the five games in which they competed. Fredericton won two and lost three. Campbellton lost three, and Hampton four.

A SHOCKING CASE

Of Infantile in Chatham—Verdict of the Coroner's Jury.

Chatham, Feb. 13.—A most shocking case of infantile has occurred here within the last twenty-four hours. Last night Dr. John S. Benson was called to the house of George B. Fraser to attend Mary Dwyre, the domestic servant of Mr. Fraser. After the doctor had examined the patient he inquired for the new born child and was told by Mary that there was none. A search revealed a baby with its throat cut concealed under its mother's pillow. Coroner M. S. Benson was notified and the following jury of the effects of one or more wounds inflicted in its neck by its mother, one Mary Dwyre. Mary Dwyre belongs to St. Margaret's and is a daughter of Con. Dwyre of this place. She is now in the hospital and when she recovers will be taken on a coroner's warrant for the killing of her baby.

FIRE AT PETITCODIAC.

About five o'clock Wednesday morning the people of Petitcodiac were awakened by the blowing of the whistle of an I. C. R. locomotive, a special train that just arrived. People looked out of their windows and saw a large fire on Academy street. They hurried to the scene of the fire, and learned that the dwelling house, barns and other buildings, belonging to Charles Fowler were doomed to destruction, so they began getting out the contents of the buildings, and succeeded in saving nearly all the furniture in the dwelling, but the contents of the barn were destroyed. The buildings, which were worth about $1,500, were insured in the British American for $80. The furniture was also insured in the same policy for $250. Mr. Fowler has moved into the house on the lower end of Main street recently vacated by Earl O'Brien. The origin of the fire is unknown. It started in the all or barn. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Fowler because he is a hard working, industrious young man and had labored several years to accumulate the property that was destroyed.

ENTERTAINED AT DINNER.

The St. Andrew's club, under whose auspices the bonspiel was held, gave a complimentary dinner at the Dufferin last night to the other clubs.

was a grand affair. The dining hall was elegantly arranged for the occasion; the tables being beautifully decorated. It was after nine o'clock when the company sat down. Prior to going up stairs, the Campbellton men, with the assistance of a few others, gave President McLaughlin of the Thistles, Sids Milligan and Willet of that club, and Skip Watson of the St. Andrew's club, a good bouncing. About fifty sat down to dinner. A. O. Skinner, president of the St. Andrew's club, was in the chair, with H. Allen, president of the Fredericton club, and Mayor Robertson on his right, and W. A. Mott, M. P., sec'y of the Campbellton club and J. B. Whitaker of the Hampton club on his left. Geo. T. Kimball was in the vice chair. President McLaughlin of the Thistles was at his right and John D. Chipman of St. Stephen at his left. The menu card was a very pretty thing. On the front page were the club's colors, and on the inside the several courses were given between two T's, one at the top and the other at the bottom of the page. The menu was as follows:

St. Andrew's club, we glad to see you. "DEAR M." "Soup" "Beef and Potatoes" "Dinner be over soon."

"Dinner be over soon." "God bless you, caller, 'n' sauce." "The 'K' O'P." "Scalloped Oysters" "Lobster Salad" "Sweet and Sour" "Apple Pie" "Bit of gold silk roast." "Bobby Jock, 'n' 'n' Shank o' Gumphe." "Takes time and makes sure of them."

"Takes time and makes sure of them." "The toast was: The Queen, the Governor General, the Roarin' Game, Our Guests; E. LeRoi Willis.

The toasts were proposed and responded to as follows: The Queen and the Governor General were drunk with musical honors. The Roarin' Game was proposed by J. D. Chipman of St. Stephen, was responded to by Rev. L. G. Macneil and E. H. Allen of Fredericton; A. O. Skinner proposed Our Guests, and T. A. Peters of Hampton, E. H. Allen of Fredericton, J. B. Ganong of St. Stephen, W. A. Mott, M. P. of Campbellton, and President McLaughlin of the Thistles responded.

After a recitation by Andrew Malcolm of the health of Mr. Willis, the proprietor of the Dufferin and he won eight medals next year to be competed for in the same way.

The St. Andrew's club, proposed by J. D. Chipman, brought out a speech from A. O. Skinner.

The Chief Magistrate of St. John, suggested by Judge Forbes, was replied to by Mayor Robertson, who presented the medals to the Thistle men. They are pretty good quality, and the health of the gentlemen who won them.

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V. Bridges (Fredericton), and B. Fairay (Campbellton).

The Campbellton club's health was drunk, and Mr. McLaughlin responded. The Press was honored as usual. During the evening songs were given by A. H. Lindsay, H. V