Moncton, N. B. — "I have found a most optimistic feeling of confidence in both Montreal and Quebec" stated Mr Justice A E. Arsenault of Charlottetown, P. E. I., when passing through Moncton on the Maritime Express of the C. N. R. en route from those cities to Charlottetown. On all sides Judge Arsenault noted indications of returning prosperity. Reports from Detrott, he remarked, are that automobile sales are ahead of production and that the outlook for the automotive trade is most optimistic. Speaking with regard to the tourist trade Judge Arsenault, who is President of the Prince Edward Island Tourist Association, stated that the Maritime Provinces can look forward to a greatty increased influx of tourist trade in the United States. Tourist officials in Montreal, he continued, are expecting a record tourist season for the province of Quebec He found an increased interest among the tourist trade in the Upper Provinces in Prince Edward Island across the Strait of Northumberland from Cape Tormentine, N. "Canadian politics may have had abler minds, more brilliant minds, it has had few minds more rich and spacious and cultivated." With these words my friend, Grattan O'Leary, ends his recent portrait of Hon. C. H. Cahan, secretary of state, and little can be added to this frank tribute in summing up the character of this elder statesman. Mr. Cahan's of this elder statesman. Mr. Cahan's H. Cahan, secretary of state, and little can be added to this frank tribute in summing up the character of this elder statesman. Mr. Cahan's mind reaches back far beyond the late ninetecht century and his individualism and restiveness under party discipline is more attuned to Cobden and Bright and John Stuar Mill than any parliamentarians either in Great Britain or Cahan was being the state of the state o When you go to your Summer home or cottage, you can still get your dependable supplies from this store. With outdoor activities less alluring than they will be when spring arrives, and with the knowledge that probably this will be the final year for the coach, it is expected that many more boys will concentrate on their coaches and share in the awards next summer. Models which were started in previous competitions can be completed and entered providing the builder was not yet 20 years old on Sept. 1, 1932. He must, however, re-encoll.
